Copy of a Letter from Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Captain of His Majesty's Ship Indefatigable, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Sea, the 16th Instant.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that this Evening, after a Chace of Four Hours, the Squadron in Company, I had the Pleasure to capture L'Inconceivable French Privateer, from Dunkirk, out Ten Days, taken nothing, armed with 8 Guns, and manned with 50 Men.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

EDW. PELLEW.

Dublin Castle, January 15, 1798.

THIS Day his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant went in State to the House of Peers, and being seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Nicholas Price, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Excellency to the House of Commons, signifying his Pleasure that they should immediately attend his Excellency in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither according y, his Excellency made the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Have His Majesty's Commands to assemble you in Parliament at this important Period, and to resort to your Deliberation and Advice.

When I reflect on the Tranquillity which attended the late General Election, I have just Ground to believe that the Wisdom and Firmness which were manifested by the late Parliament were felt and approved by the Nation at large, and that your Conduct will be actuated by similar Principles in Defence of our happy Constitution.

It mu't have given you great Concern to learn that His Majesty's Endeavours to restore the Blessings of Peace have been again frustrated by the desperate Ambition of the French Government. I have His Majesty's Commands to lay before you His Royal Declaration, and the various Papers which passed in the Course of the late Negotiation, in which the Magnanimity and Moderation of His Majesty were so eminently displayed, as to leave no Pretext or Colour for the insidious Conduct and falacious Statements of the Enemy.

His Majesty relies with Confidence on the Spirit of His People of Ireland, who are sensible of their Duty to their God, their Sovereign, and their Country. He knows they are incapable of being intimidated by any Threats, or deluded by any Offers; and He implicitly depends on the Valour of His Regular and Militia Forces, the active Loyalty of the District Corps, the Courage of the Nation, and the Prowess of His Fleets and Armies for defeating every hostile Attempt which may be made on this Kingdom.

The late signal Victory of Admiral Lord Duncan over the Dutch Squadron, atchieved upon their own Coasts with such professional Skill and heroic Gallantry, has not only added fresh Luitre to the Glory of His Majesty's Navy. but had given new Strength and Security to all His Majesty's Dominions.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Public Accounts and the Estimates for the ensuing Year to be laid before you, I lament that additional Burthens are still necessary, in order to maintain the Honour and Security of the Empire in the present Exigency; and although from the State of Preparation in which this Kingdom stands, some of the Demands of former Years will not recur, yet I fear the general Expencc of the ensuing Year will not admit of any considerable Reduction. When you reflect upon all you have to preserve and all you have to expect from the Enemy

Enemy you have to combat with, I doubt not, the Supplies will be cheerfully granted. I shall endeavour on my Part, that they shall be faithfully applied.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

In consequence of the Addresses of the Houses of Lords and Commons in May last, I directed immediate and vigorous Measures to be taken for repressing Disaffection in the Northern Parts of the Kingdom, and for restoring Security and Confidence to the loyal and well-disposed; the Effect of which has been manifested in the Return of Subordination and Industry in that Quarter. Other Attempts have since been made by the Leaders of the disaffected in some Parts of the Midland and Southern Districts with too much Success; and Emisaries have been employed, and Publications have been circulated by them to revive religious Animosities, and to open Prospects of Plunder, by which Means the lower Classes have been excited to commit Acts of the most horrid Outrage and Barbarity. I have to lament, that the Diligence and Activity of the Magistrates, though assisted by the Troops which have been ordered into that Part of the Kingdom, have not yet been able entirely to put a Stop to these Disturbances. Constant Vigilance and unremitting Exertions continue to be necessary, when all Means are tried to excite the People to Rebellion and Revolt; when a systematic Plan of Assassination is adopted and encouraged, and when the most audacious Attempts are made to impede and prevent the Administration of Justice.

Amidst your Exertions for the Defence of the Kingdom, I must not omit to recommend to you not to relax your Attention to it's Commerce, it's Agriculture, and it's Manufactures, and especially to that of the Linen; nor will your Liberality be less conspicuous in continuing that Protection to the Protestant Charter Schools, and the other charitable Institutions under which they have so long flourished.

His Majesty has commanded me to declare to you that his firm Resolution is taken in the present arduous Contest. He will not be wanting to His People, but with them will stand or fall in the Defence of their Religion, and in the Preservation of the Independence, Laws and Liberties of His Kingdom.

It will be a Source of infinite Satisfaction to my Mind, if, in the Execution of my Duty, I can contribute to support the generous Determination of my Sovereign, and maintain the Safety and Prosperity of His People. I rely upon your Advice and Cooperation; and, aided by them, I look forward with Confidence to a happy Issue of the Contest in which we are engaged.

St. James's, January 18, 1798.

This Day being appointed for the Celebration of the Anniversary of the Queen's Birth-Day, there was a very splendid and numerous Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment Their Majesties upon the Occasion. The Guns at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock. There was a Ball at Court in the Evening, and Illuminations and other Public Demonstrations of Joy in London and Westminster.

St. James's, January 17, 1798.

This Day Count d'Uxkull Gyllenband, sent to notify the Death of his late Serene Highness the Duke of Wurtemberg, had a Private Audience of His Majesty:

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Stephen Cottrell, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Count d'Uxkull Gyllenband had an Audience immediately afterwards of Her Majesty, at the Queen's House: To which he was introduced by the Earl of Morton, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, January 18, 1798.

This Day Count de Tauentzien, sent from His Majesty the King of Prussia to notify his Accession to the Throne of that Kingdom, had a Private Audience of Her Majesty:

To which he was introduced by the Earl of Morton, Lord Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by Sir Stephen Cottrell, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, January 19, 1798.

Whitehall, January 14, 1798.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Tuesday the 2<sup>d</sup> Instant a Straw-House, Cow-House, Fattening-House, some Piggeries, a Cart-Hovel, Part of Two Ricks of Hay, a Cress, and some Farming Utensils, (the Value of the whole of which is estimated at Two Hundred Pounds or upwards) were burnt in a Farm situated near the Town of Woburn in the County of Bedford, and in the Occupation of John Circuit, of the said Town; and that the said Premises were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

It has likewise been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Monday the 8th Instant, a thatched Workshop, situated in the Town of Woburn aforesaid, and in the Occupation of John Evans, Col- lar-Maker, was discovered to be on Fire; but that the Flames, having been timely perceived, were speedily extinguished by the Inhabitants of the said Town; and that in some Thatch which had been stripped off the said Shop a Piece of Cotton or fine Wool, mixed with Grease or Oil, was found, partly consumed.

And it has been further humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Tuesday the 9th Instant, a thatched Wood Barn, (containing Coals, Wood, old Paper, and other Articles susceptible of Fire) in the Occupation of Samuel Handcombe, and situated in the Town of Woburn aforesaid, was observed to be on Fire, but that, by the timely Exertions of the Popu- lace, the same was got under before the Flames had made any considerable Progress; and that, from different concurring Circumstances, it was manifest, that the said Barn, as well as the thatched Workshop before mentioned, were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown, with a View to burn the Whole or the greatest Part of the said Town, which it is believed would have taken Effect, from the Nature and Position of the said Premises, the Direction of the Wind, and other Circumstances, if the Fire, in both Instances, had not been providentially discovered in Time to frustrate the wicked Designs of the Incen- diaryies who meditated the same.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bring- ing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to either of the said Premises) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the said Town of Woburn to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by the Overseers of the said Town.

And, as a still further Encouragement, an additional Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid, on the Conviction of any one or more of the Of- fenders, by me.

BEDFORD.

Whitehall, January 9, 1798.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 7th Instant, an anonymous threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, was thrown on the Premises of Henry Chicheley Plowden, Esq; of Newtown Park, near Lymington, in the County of Hants:

" Beech Plowden"

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letter above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, to be paid by Henry Chicheley Plowden.

Whitehall, January 19, 1798.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Two anonymous threatening Letters have been addressed to the Duke of Richmond, one of which was hung up on the Pales of John Shakspear, Esq; at Singleton, and the other inclosed in a Letter to George Francis Tyson, Esq; at Drought, containing Threats to kill the said Duke and Three of his Gamekeepers, and to destroy and burn his Woods and Plantations, and destroy Mr. Tyson's Plantations; and that the Writers would "do for" the Farmers, and destroy their Property and that of the Millers; and that they could raise Forty Poachers any Night.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letters above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote and sent the said Letters) who shall discover his, her or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Grace the Duke of Richmond, and several Magistrates, Yeomen and others, have subscribed the Sum of 284l. 11s. which is hereby offered to any Person or Persons, excepting the Writer or Writers, or Person or Persons who wrote or sent either of the said Letters, who shall discover the Person or Persons who wrote or sent either of the said Letters, so that he or they may be convicted thereof, by due Course of Law.

ALL Persons who have any Claim or Demand on the Estate of Thomas Hill, late of the White Hart Inn, St. Alban's, in the County of Hertford, Innholder, deceased, are requested to transmit the Particulars and Amount thereof, and all Persons indebted to the said Estate are requested to pay the same forthwith, to Mr. Ellis, Solicitor, Abingdon-Street, Westminster.

ALL Persons who have any Demand on the Estate of the late Mr. Peter Cruikshanks, Surgeon of the Carnatic East Indiaman, deceased, are desired to lodge their respective Claims with Mr. Patrick Kilgour, No. 3, Friday-Street, on or before the 17th of February next, in order for their immediate Settlement.

ALL Persons having any Claims on Mr. John Bell, of Peckham, Gardener, are desired to deliver Particulars thereof to Sheppard and Cook, Dean-Street, Southwark, Solicitors for Mr. Bell's Trustees, on or before the 4th Day of February next, otherwise they will be excluded from any Benefit under the said Trust Deed. And all Persons indebted to the said John Bell are requested to pay their respective Debts to the aforesaid Solicitors, on or before the said 4th of February, to prevent being sued for Recovery thereof. Dated the 16th Day of January, 1798.

Whereas William Langham, a Grazier, and Elizabeth his Wife, formerly and for many Years residing at Thornby, near Cole Ashby, in Northamptonshire, at the Time of their Decease left several Sons and Daughters: Notice is therefore hereby given, that if such of the Sons and Daughters, who were living on the 1st Day of December, 1795, will apply to Edmund Howard, of Henrietta-Street, Covent-Garden, London, Solicitor, and prove their Relationship, they will bear of something to their Advantage. And in case any of such Sons and Daughters shall have died since the above Period, leaving any Child or Children, if such Child or Children will apply in like Manner to the said Edmund Howard, they will also bear of something to their Advantage.

IF the Relations or next Kin of Edward Lewis, late Valet or Servant to Colonel John Isaac, of the 81st Regiment of Foot, and who died at Cape Nicola Mole, St. Domingo, in July 1796, will make Application to Mr. Roberts, Solicitor, in Gloucester-Street, Red Lion Square, they will bear of something to their Advantage. The said Edward Lewis was the Son of Edward Lewis, who was a Cooper, at or near Stoke Blits, near Bromyard, Herefordshire, but died above Thirty Years ago. Edward Lewis the Son left Herefordshire when he was about Ten Years old; and from that Time till early in the Year 1796, (when he sailed with Colonel Isaac to the West Indies) he generally lived in and near London, as Valet or Gentleman's Servant.

JOHN GUNSTON, of Stroud in Kent, Mariner.

IF John Gunston, of Stroud, near Rochester, Mariner, Son of John and Mary Gunston, and aged about 45 Years, be living, and will apply to Mr. Austen, of the London Assurance Office, Birchin-Lane, London, he will bear of something to his Advantage; or if he be dead, any Person giving Information thereof as above, so that it can be proved, will be thankfully recompensed for their Trouble. The said John Gunston, about Sixteen Years ago, was the Master of a small Vessel in the Straights Trade, and was afterwards Assistant to Mrs. Austen in a Coal Wharf at Stroud, where he was last seen about Nine Years ago, when he talked of going to Sea.

Whereas William Heaton, late of Almondbury in the County of York, Yeoman, deceased, did, in and by his last Will, bearing Date the 14th Day of April, 1795, (amongst other Things) give all his Real Estate in Lindley in the said County of York, to the Rev. Edmund Armitstead for a Term of Years, in Trust, nevertheless, to receive the Rents and Profits of it, and pay and apply the same to his Nephew, John Heaton, for the Term of his natural Life, if he should be living and made Claim thereto within Twenty Years after his (Testator's) Death; and in Case he was then dead, or did not make his Claim within the Time aforesaid, he gave it to another Person therein named. Said Testator died in November following.

The said John Heaton had then absented himself from his Family, and still continues absent, not having made his Claim to the Benefit intended him by the said Will, and the said Mr. Armitstead doubts whether he be yet living: If he is, he desires that he will apply to him personally, and receive what is due to him; but in case the said Mr. Armitstead be not soon satisfied of the said John Heaton's Existence, he will make Application to the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for Directions how he is to act, as he wishes to be discharged from his said Trust. Dated January 10, 1798.

THE Creditors of Henry Poole, of Little Stanmore in the County of Middlesex, Clerk, (an Insolvent Debtor, who has recently been discharged from His Majesty's Prison of the Fleet) are desired to meet on Friday the 26th Day of January instant, by Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Mr. Reid's, Old Slaughter's Coffee-House, St. Martin's Lane, for the Purpose of nominating an Assignee or Assignees of the Estate and Effects of the said Henry Poole, agreeable to a late Act of Parliament.
