Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 30, to Saturday February 3, 1798.

By the KING;
A PROCLAMATION,
For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, for the Maintenance of the Independence of Our Crown, for the Defence and Protection of the Commerce; and of the Rights and Liberties, Civil and Religious, of Our Subjects; and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Wednesday the Seventh Day of March next; that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgements which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved; and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety and Prosperity to Us and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England; Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick

Worship; and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses!

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fourth Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in the Thirty-eighth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING:

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, for the Maintenance of the Independence of Our Crown, for the Defence and Protection of the Commerce, and of the Rights and Liberties, Civil and Religious, of Our Subjects; and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Eighth Day of March next; that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgements which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved; and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety and Prosperity to Us and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. Our Will is therefore, and We charge, that that this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance: And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published: And We appoint them to send Copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above mentioned the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fourth Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in the Thirty-eighth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of January, 1798,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath received Information, that the Plague has broken out in the Island of Corsica, in consequence of Communication with a Vessel from Barbary, and that many Vessels had left Corsica on the Alarm, and even some from the very Port where the infected Vessel came in, and where the Infection raged; and that some of these Vessels are probably bound through the Straits of Gibraltar: His Majesty this Day took the same into Consideration, and although it appeared, that a Quarantine of Forty Days is at this Time subsisting, by Orders of this Board, upon all Ships coming from or through the Mediterranean, except those coming directly from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain within the Mediterranean, or from the Island of Minorca, laden with the Products of Spain only, and also except Ships and Vessels arriving from the Town or Port of Gibraltar, provided the Cargo on Board all such Ships or Vessels do consist entirely of non-enumerated Articles, (except any Bags, Straw, Matting and Plating on Jars, which were solely made Use of as Package for such non-enumerated Articles) yet His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, judges it necessary upon this Occasion to cause His Orders for the Performance of Quarantine to be enforced and extended: And to that End His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby order, require and command, that the subsisting Quarantine be strictly enforced, and that all the Officers appointed for the Service of Quarantine do use their utmost Care and Diligence in causing the several Rules and Regulations established for the due Performance of Quarantine to be punctually and strictly observed and carried into Execution. And His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, is further pleased to order, require and command, that all Ships and Vessels arrived, or that shall arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, from any of the Ports of the Kingdom of Spain within the Mediterranean, or from the Island of Minorca, or from the Town or Port of Gibraltar, although the Cargo of such Ships shall consist of non-enumerated Articles only, and also all Ships and Vessels arrived, or that shall arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark or Man, from the Island of Majorca, or from the Island of Corsica, and all Goods and Merchandize on Board the same, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and do likewise strictly conform themselves in all Respects to the Rules and Regulations now in Force, and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine.—And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of January, 1798.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to authorize His Majesty, for a limited Time, to make Regulations respecting the Trade and Commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope," it is enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from Time to Time, to give such Directions, and make such Regulations, touching the Trade and Commerce to and from the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty, in Council, shall appear most expedient and salutary, any of the Acts of Parliament therein referred to, or any Usage, Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas the said Act has, by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, been continued for a further limited Time, and is now in Force: And whereas during the Time the said Settlement, with the Territories and Dependencies thereof, were in the Possession, and under the Government of the States General of the United Provinces, or of the Honourable the General East India Company in the Netherlands, it was usual to admit the Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of Countries in Amity with the said United Provinces into the Ports of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, for Repair and Refreshment, and with that View to permit the said Ships and Vessels to carry on Trade with the Inhabitants of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof: His Majesty is hereby pleased to order, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above recited Act; and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful until further Order, for all Ships and Vessels belonging to His Majesty's Subjects, as well as for all Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any Country or State in Amity with His Majesty, to enter into the Ports of the said Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to carry on Trade and Traffick with the Inhabitants, bitants of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to import and export, to and from the Ports of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatsoever, subject to the following Exceptions, and subject also to such Duties, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, as shall be established by His Majesty, or by the Governor of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, by Virtue of Authority derived from His Majesty; and in the mean Time, subject to such Duties, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as subsisted and were in Force before and at the Time of the Conquest of the said Settlement by the Arms of His Majesty, with such Alterations as have been since made under the Authority of the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at the said Settlement: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that no Goods, Wares or Merchandize, which shall be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, shall be subject to any Duty.

And it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that no Goods, Wares or Merchandize, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the Countries to the Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies; and that no such Goods, Wares or Merchandize be permitted to be exported from them, except for Sea Stores only, or by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by their Licence.

But it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing in this Order contained, shall extend to prevent Ships or Vessels employed in the Southern Whale Fishery, from carrying on the same, in such and the same Manner as might have been done, if this Order had not been made.

And it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that no Arms or Artillery, Gunpowder, or Ammunition of any Sort, be allowed to be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by Licence from His Majesty.

And it is His Majesty's further Pleasure, that the Trade and Commerce to and from the said Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, shall be subject to such of the Laws of Trade and Navigation as would have affected the same, if this Order had not been made, except so far as such Laws are contrary to this present Order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Faulkner.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of January, 1798,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twentieth of July last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-

Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bow-sprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-fifth Day of this instant January, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bow-sprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland; or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies; or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards; and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction, tion of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

St. James's, February 3, 1798.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful Subjects the loyal Pontefract Volunteers, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the most faithful Attachment to your Royal Person and Government.

At this important Crisis, when Preparations are making by the common Enemy to invade this Kingdom, we feel the Necessity of uniting with the Rest of our fellow Subjects to frustrate their Machinations by every Exertion in our Power.

We therefore humbly intreat Permission, should the Enemy invade this Country to offer our Services to act in such Manner as your Majesty may be graciously pleased to direct; and to assure your Majesty that our utmost Endeavors will be used in Defence of your Royal Person, our glorious Constitution, and the Dignity and Independence of the British Empire.

On Behalf of the whole Corps,

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 3, 1798.

Notice is hereby given, that there will be no Drawing-Room at St. James's 'till Thursday the 15th Instant.

IN Pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to amend and continue, until One Month after the Conclusion of the present War, the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament of the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Years of His present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-

"One, videlicet, on the Twenty-second of June, "One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, "for the Restriction on Payments of Cash by the "Bank;" I do hereby give Notice, that the Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England did, on the 31st Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, notify to me, "That they mean to issue Cash in "Payment of the One and Two Pound Notes of "the Governor and Company of the Bank of "England, dated prior to the 1st Day of February, "One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight"

HENRY ADDINGTON,

Speaker of the House of Commons.

Admiralty-Office, January 30, 1798.

PURsuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the concerned, That Information has been sent to this Office, that the Brigantine Good Hope, of Hull, whereof Michael Colman was Master, of the Burthen of 110 Tons, bound on a Voyage from Faro to Dover, laden with Fruit and other Merchandize, was, in a strong Gale of Wind, stranded on a Ledge of Rocks under the High Clift of Beachy Head, in the County of Suffex.

Evan Nepean.

Whitehall, January 25, 1798.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night between the 3d and 4th Instant, Thirty Pieces of Woollen Goods (of different Denominations, Lengths and Prices) the Property of Mr. William Kennaway and Sons, Merchants, in the County of the City of Exeter, were feloniously cut in various Places, so that not One Yard and Half of the said Pieces was left whole, as the same were drying in the Tenter Ground belonging to the said Mr. William Kennaway and Sons; and that the said Felony was committed by some wicked and malicious Person or Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Members of the Chamber of Commerce of Exeter hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me,

Sam. Tremlett,

Chairman of the Exeter Chamber of Commerce.

Bank of England, February 1, 1798.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Tuesday next, the 6th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at the Request of Nine Proprietors,

"For the Purpose of taking into Consideration the "Propriety of a Subscription to the Books now opened "for receiving Contributions for the Publick Service, "to be made by the Bank in its Corporate Capacity."
