Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Portsmouth and Spithead, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 17th Instant.

THE Telemachus Cutter arrived this Morning from Dartmouth. In her Way to Spithead she captured La Sophie, a French Cutter Privateer, of 4 Guns and 20 Men, as reported in the inclosed Letter from Lieutenant Newton.

Telemachus, at Spithead, March 17, 1798.

S I R,

I Have the Pleasure of acquainting you, that Yesterday, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon, Three Miles from the Berry Head, I fell in with and gave Chace to a Cutter: At Nine o'Clock, Two or Three Leagues to the Northward of the Casket's Lights, I came up with and captured her. She is called La Sophie French Cutter Privateer, of 4 Guns and 20 Men, belonging to St. Maloes; had been from that Place Two Days, and had taken nothing. I am happy to say that she was prevented from taking Three English Brigs that were very near her when I gave Chace. At Half past Seven His Majesty's Brig Sea Gull joined in the Chace, and was in Sight when I captured her.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

THO. NEWTON.

Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Bart.

War-Office, Dublin Castle, February 26, 1798.

CAMDEN.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Order, that all Officers belonging to Regiments of the Line, Militia and Fencibles in this Kingdom, do join their respective Corps, on or before the 25th Day of March next, notwithstanding any Leave of Absence, except those that shall be employed on the Recruiting Service.

By his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Command,

T. PELHAM.

Whitehall, March 14, 1798.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Three Hay Stacks, the Property of the Miss Proctors, of Doncaster, in the County of York, were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, and entirely consumed, by some Person or Persons unknown; and that a Cow belonging to the same Ladies was afterwards cut and maimed in a barbarous Manner.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the atrocious Felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Hay Stacks, or cut and maimed the said Cow) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

J. Dunhill,
Mayor of Doncaster.

East India House, March 15, 1798.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Thursday next, the 22d Instant, from Eleven in the Forenoon, until Six in the Evening, for the Determination, by Ballot, of the following Question, viz.

“Whereas, in the Course of this Day's Debate, certain Observations have been made respecting the Connection and Interest which David Scott, Esq; late Chairman of the East India Company, has been supposed to have in a House of Agency, as tending to render him ineligible to the Direction:”

Resolved, therefore, that it doth appear to this Court, that the “said David Scott, Esq; is disqualified from every Interest in an House of Agency which can preclude him from being elected a Director, nor can he be considered in any Way as precluded by the By-Law in the 20th Section of By-Laws, as to the Duty of Directors relative to this Subject.”

William Ramsay, Secretary.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be clearly documented, including the date, amount, and purpose of the transaction. This ensures transparency and allows for easy reconciliation of accounts.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. These methods include direct observation, interviews, and the use of specialized software tools. Each method is described in detail, highlighting its strengths and potential limitations.

The third section focuses on the results of the data collection process. It presents a series of tables and graphs that illustrate the trends and patterns observed in the data. The author provides a thorough analysis of these results, discussing their implications for the study and offering recommendations for future research.

Finally, the document concludes with a summary of the key findings and a discussion of the overall significance of the research. The author expresses confidence in the reliability of the data and the validity of the conclusions drawn from the analysis.
