

War-Office, Dublin Castle, February 26, 1798.

CAMDEN.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Order, that all Officers belonging to Regiments of the Line, Militia and Fencibles in this Kingdom, do join their respective Corps, on or before the 25th Day of March next, notwithstanding any Leave of Absence, except those that shall be employed on the Recruiting Service.

By his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Command,

T. PELHAM.

Whitehall, March 14, 1798.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Three Hay Stacks, the Property of the Miss Proctors, of Doncaster, in the County of York, were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, and entirely consumed, by some Person or Persons unknown; and that a Cow belonging to the same Ladies was afterwards cut and maimed in a barbarous Manner.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the atrocious Felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Hay Stacks, or cut and maimed the said Cow) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

J. Dunhill,
Mayor of Doncaster.

East India House, March 15, 1798.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Thursday next, the 22d Instant, from Eleven in the Forenoon, until Six in the Evening, for the Determination, by Ballot, of the following Question, viz.

“Whereas, in the Course of this Day's Debate, certain Observations have been made respecting the Connection and Interest which David Scott, Esq; late Chairman of the East India Company, has been supposed to have in a House of Agency, as tending to render him ineligible to the Direction:”

Resolved, therefore, that it doth appear to this Court, that the “said David Scott, Esq; is disqualified from every Interest in an House of Agency which can preclude him from being elected a Director, nor can he be considered in any Way as precluded by the By-Law in the 20th Section of By-Laws, as to the Duty of Directors relative to this Subject.”

William Ramsay, Secretary.
