

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 12. to Monday June 16. 1679.

Madrid, May 31.

ON the 24th and 25th instant, the King and the whole Court were entertained with a Bull Feast at Buen Retiro, in which some Horses were killed, and some Persons wounded. We have an account from Majorca, that 10 French Men of War arrived there the 6th or 7th instant from Tboulon, and having demanded the restitution of several Vessels taken by the Privateers of that Island, the Governor refused it; whereupon the French, who had before surprized some Saetia's that were in that Port, sent out their long Boats to take two Petacha's that were likewise there, but they met with so great resistance from the said Petacha's, who were assailed by the Cannon of the Town, that the French having lost 40 or 50 men, were forced to retire. Our Letters from Lisbon of the 23d instant advise, that two or three days before the Count d'Estree arrived with 18 Sail in Cascay Bay; that he had been privately at Court to wait upon the Prince, who had made him a Present of a rich Jewel, and of fresh Provisions for his Ships, and that the Marriage between the Infanta and the Duke of Savoy, was in a fair way to be concluded.

Genova, May 31. Not any Ships have arrived here this week, save two Genoueses from Alicant. From Majorca we have advice, that several French Men of War arriving there from Tboulon, had demanded a Million and half of pieces of Eight, in consideration of the Prizes which they pretend the Majorjkins have taken from the Kings Subjects, since the Publication of the Peace; and that not being granted, they had made an attempt upon some Vessels in the Port of Majorca, in which they were repulsed; that thereupon the French were gone over for Argiers, to demand the liberty of several French, who have been taken and made Slaves by those Pyrats, notwithstanding the Peace. It is reported here that the French Forces march towards Geneva.

Copenhagen, June 6. Yesterday the Sieur Zeeftadt, and the Sieur Lund, our Kings Deputies, had a meeting with Lieutenant General Sperling at Lundun, to adjust the Preliminaries concerning the meeting of the Ambassadors of the two Crowns, who are to treat the Peace.

Hamburg, June 9. The Brandenburgh Capers have taken three of our Merchant Ships which came from Portugal, and two others are missing. From Livonia our Letters inform us, that the Suedes are recruiting their Troops, in order to their returning a second time into Prussia, which they say they will do with an Army of 20000 men.

Hamburg, June 16. Count Coningsmarke is arrived with 600 men in Schonen from Pomeren, and the rest of the Suedes Soldiers that remain there, will follow very speedily. The King of Denmark has appointed the Rendezvous of his Army to be on the 26th instant near Gottorp; and in the mean time great care is taken to provide Corn and other Provisions for its subsistence. This City is not yet freed of the jealousy it has of the designs of some of its Neighbors, and therefore our Senate is sending Deputies to France, to recommend this City and its Interests to the kindness and protection of that King.

Strasburg, June 5. The French Cavalry quartered in Alsace, is expecting Orders every hour to march towards the Saar, where they are to join some Infantry, in order, as is said; to the attacking two small places which the Duke of Lorrain is possessed of. Monsieur de Louvoy is expected the 11th instant at Brisac.

Wesel, June 9. Yesterday in the afternoon the Marschal de Crequi arrived here, and was saluted with a treble discharge of all the Cannon round the place; this evening he will part hence again for Sooft in the Country of Marke, where Monsieur Calvo has at present his Head-quarter, a considerable Body of Horse and Foot follows him with a Train of Artillery, and when they are joined with those that are now with Monsieur Calvo, they will make an Army of between 30 and 40000 men. The Borders of this Country, and of that of Marke, destroy a great many of the French Soldiers, which they meet stragling, and here is a report that they lately fell upon a great many French Officers who were going to a place called Altena, and killed most of them. Lieutenant General Spaen was, according to our last Advice, encamped with the Troops under his command near Bylevelt.

Cologne, June 13. The Marschal de Crequi, who arrived at Nuis on Wednesday last with a Guard of 400 Horse, parted thence the same day for Wesel, being followed by the rest of his Troops, and his Artillery.

Cologne, June 16. On Tuesday last the Marschal de Crequi, and Lieutenant General Calvo, passed the Lippe at Lipstadt, with a considerable Body of Horse and Foot, and encamped about a League on the other side of it, on a Heath. The rest of the French Troops, that were in the Countrey of Marke, were to pass the Lippe the next day, and to join the Marschal, who was resolved to detamp with the whole Army as yesterday, and to march towards Minden, under the Cannon of which Monsieur Spaen is posted with his Troops. Several thousand French are within these two or three dayes come from the Meuse, that so they may march together towards Wesel, to pass the Rhine there. Monsieur Louvoy arrived the 10th instant at Brisac, and from thence went to Friburg.

Trier, June 14. We have advice that Monsieur de Buffs, who commands the French Troops on the Saar, has sent to Monsieur Chavignac, to let him know, that if he do not retire with the Imperial Troops from those Parts, he shall be obliged to treat them as Enemies, in miles. It is believed that the French intend to attack the Castle of Hombourg and Bruch, which yet remain in the possession of the Duke of Lorraine.

Buff. 15, June 20. The States of Holland are extra-ordinarily assembled to take a resolution upon the Memorial of Don Emanuel de Lyra, concerning Maastricht, which we here persuade our selves will be by the States delivered up, according to the obligation they are under. Though the Letters we receive from Maastricht of the 17th, give ground to believe the contrary, for they say great quantities of Ammunition arrive daily there from Holland, and that they were going to add to the Fortifications of the place two new Ballions, one at the Brusfels, the other at the Tongres Gate, which it's probable they would not do, had they any intention to part with it.

Hague, June 16. A Treaty having been lately concluded by the Commissioners of this State with the Government of Argiers, the same has been sent to the several Provinces for their approbation. The States, as we are informed, have ordered that directions be sent to their Ambassadors in France, to expostulate with the Ministers at that Court, upon what has happened at Orange, where a Cross has lately in a solemn manner been set up in some part of the Town, by order of the most Christian King, and the Magistrates obliged to assist it, to the prejudice of the Right of the Prince of Orange, who is absolute Sovereign of the place; and contrary to the late Treaty by which his Highness is re-established in the Sovereignty thereof, and all the Rights appertaining to it.

Hague, June 20. The States of Holland met on Saturday, but came not to any resolution upon the Points before them, concerning the giving up Maastricht to the Spaniards, and the restoring the Jurisdiction of the Prince of Liege there, which they deferred till their next meeting, which will be on the 6th of the next month. The Letters from Hamburg say, that the Treaty in Skonen was to begin the 25th instant; that the Ambassadors were to meet in Tents near Lunden; and from Berlin we are told, that Count Carelson, natural Son of the last King of Sueden, who was taken prisoner in Prussia, had received his liberty from the Elector, who after he had dined with him, took his own Sword from his side, and presented him with it, and besides charged him with Letters for the King of Sueden. The Heir Brederode the last of that Family is dead.

Amsterdam, June 20. From Hamburg we have advice, that an Express was arrived there in five days from Paris, and that without making any stay, he continued his Journey to Berlin, being charged with Letters from the Brandenburg Minister at the French Court to his Electoral Highness, so that we may now in few days expect to know what resolution the Elector has taken upon them, and consequently know, whether there will be Peace or War. In the mean time the French Army, under the command of the Marschal de Crequi, has passed the Lippe, and is marching towards Minden, to besiege that place, which we hear is provided with a very good Garrison, and all things necessary for its defence. There are great hopes that the Conferences which are going to be held in Schoonen, will prove successful; the Ambassadors are to meet in the Field near Lundum, where for their Accommodation Tents will be set up.

Paris, June 21. On Friday or Saturday next the Courier which the Seigneur Meinders Envoy of the Elector of Brandenburg, sent to inform his Master of the resolutions of this Court with relation to the Peace of the North, is expected back, and will it's not doubted bring instructions to the said Envoy how to proceed in the Negotiation, he is entred upon here. On Monday last happened a great disorder upon Pont-neuf, begun by a quarrel between some idle people, in which 70 or 80 persons were at last engaged, and that with so much heat, that it lasted several hours, and 4 or 5 persons were killed, and 15 or 16 wounded.

Falmouth, June 9. There are now in this Port the Mary, and Dragon of London, and the Peace of Middleburg, all three from Guinea; and the Cesar of London, from the East Indies.

London, June 14. Yesterday Thomas White, alias Whitebread, Provincial of the Jesuites in England, William Harcourt pretended Rector of London, John Fenwicke Procurator for the Jesuites in England, John Gaven, alias Gawen, and Anthony Turner, all Jesuites and Priests, were brought to their Tryal at the Old Baily, by virtue of a Commission of Oyer and Terminer, being Indicted of High-Treason, for Conspiring the Death of His Majesty, and the Subversion of the Government, and Protestant Religion, and upon full Evidence, were found Guilty. And this day Richard Langborne, Counsellor at Law, who was Indicted for the same Crimes, was, after a long Tryal, likewise found Guilty: And then Sentence passed upon them all Six, to be Drawn, Hanged, and Quartered.

Advertisements.

Herodoti Halicarnassæi Historiarum libri, ix. Ejusdem Narratio de Vita Homeri Excerpta e Cæsaribus libris de rebus Persicis & Indicis græcæ & H. Stephani Apologia. Accesserunt hæc Editioni Chæronologia Historiæ, & Tabula Geographica Herodotæ; necnon variantes Lectiones & notæ ex pluribus M. SS. Codd. & antiquis Scriptoribus collectæ; unacum Indice Græco & Latino Folio. Sold by J. Durnmore at the Angel and Crown, R. Chiswell at the Rose and Crown, and B. Took at the Ship in St. Pauls Church yard, and T. Sawbridge at the Three Flower-de-luces in Little Britain. All Subscribers to the said Book, are desired to send for their Books to the places abovementioned.

The Doctrine of Interest, both Simple and Compound: Explained in a more exact and satisfactory Method than has hitherto been Published. Discovering the Errors of the Ordinary Tables of Rebate for Annuities at Simple Interest, &c. Humbly presented to His Most Sacred Majesty, Charles II. by Sir S. Morland, Knight and Baronet. Sold by Robert Boulter at the Turk-Head over against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill.

Lost of His Majesties, from Whitehall, a black and white Spaniel Dog, mottled legs and nose, tanned about the face, a little tanned behind. Whoever gives notice of the said Dog to William Vissins Esq; or to the Kings Backstairs, shall be well rewarded.

Lost or strayed the 3d instant, out of the Grounds of Sir Benjamin Titchbourne at Rickmansworth near Mare Park in the County of Hertford, a dark brown Coach Mare, a star in her forehead, big-headed, lop-eared, large knots on one of her hind-legs. Whosoever gives notice of the said Mare to the said Sir Benjamin Titchbourne at Rickmansworth, or to John Hardwick Innkeeper at the Sword and Buckler in Hulborn, shall have twenty shillings Reward.

Lost from Mr. Head's Grounds at Layborn in Kent, a large brown Stone-horse, above 15 hands, hollow eyed, having but one eye, eight years old, a few Horse, and a star very remarkable in his forehead. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. John Head at Mr. Daw's house in Little Tower-street, shall have Thirty shillings Reward.