

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 16. to Thursday June 19. 1679.

Edenburgh, June 10.

WE have good reason to hope, that by the extraordinary Care and Diligence of His Majesties Privy Council here, the Forces will, in a very short time, be ready to march against the Rebels; whose Number is still uncertain, increasing one day, and decreasing the other, according to the humour of the Rabble. Just now a Post is come from the Master of Rolle (the eldest Son of the Lord Rolle) with an account of a Rencontre he had this morning early with a Party of about 200 Horse and Foot of the Rebels, which he totally defeated (although he had with him onely 40 Horse, and a Company of Dragoons) leaving 66 dead upon the place, and taking ten Prisoners, the rest being scattered.

Edenburgh, June 17. This day the Earl of Morray received a Letter from his Deputy Steward in Downe, advsing, that upon an alarm he had that about 100 of the Rebels were coming on Horseback from Fyffe to join with their main Body in the West, he presently assembled the Passals and Tenants of that his Lordships Stewardry, and with them pursued the Rebels 16 Miles through the Mountains, that at last coming up to them, he killed several of them, took forty Prisoners (amongst which was one Henderson, one of the Murderers of the late Archbishop of St. Andrews) and forced them to scatter, and to fly into the adjacent Woods and Moors; whereof the Lord Elphinstoun having notice, he with some Gentlemen under his command pursued them, killed some, and took above 30 more prisoners, and amongst these two of the name of Balfour, and one Hamilton of Kinkell, three more of the Murderers of the said late Archbishop; so that of that Party of the Rebels, hardly one escaped being killed or taken. We have also News of the Gentlemen of Stratherne having fallen upon another Party of the Rebels coming from Fyffe, of which they killed some, and took about 40 who are now Prisoners in Pearth.

The Militia and Trained Bands of this City to the number of 4000, have chearfully taken an Oath to be faithful to His Majesty, and to venture their Lives and Fortunes, for the suppressing this Rebellion.

The Kings Standing Forces, with the Heritors and Militia of some Shires, are to Rendezvous to morrow near this City (being about 6000 Foot, and above 2000 Horse, from whence they are to march on Sunday or Monday very early, with a Train of Artillery to fight the Rebels. In the mean time the Forces from the Northern Shires come daily in great numbers to Stirling (the place appointed for their Rendezvous) where will be a considerable Body of an Army in a very short time, although we hope there will be no occasion for their coming farther.

Lubon, May 16. The Marriage of the Infanta with the Duke of Savoy, is lookt upon by every body to be concluded; and five of the best Ships of this Crown are now fitting out, which are, as it's believed by all people, to go fetch the Duke. The Count d'Estree is still here with his Squadron, but will sail very suddenly, whither is not known.

Vienna, June 11. The Conferences are continued with several of the chief of the Nobility of Hungary, for the finding out a way to compose the Affairs of that Kingdom. This Week arrived here an Extraordinary Courier from Constantinople, with Letters from the Emperor's Resident at the Port, which give an account, that he had received fresh assurances from the Grand Visier, that the Grand Signior would not shew the least favor or countenance to the Rebels of Hungary, provided the Emperor did not concern himself in the present Quarrel between the Port and the Czar of Moscovy. The Elector of Saxony has writ to the Emperor, to pray him to withdraw his Troops out of the Empire, seeing the French make that their pretence to continue in it. The Ambassador of the Czar of Moscovy that is coming hither is arrivd on the Frontiers of Silesia, and will be here in seven or eight days.

Strasburg, June 16. Monsieur de Louvoy having been at Brisac and Friburg, came two days since to Schlestadt, where he was complimented by the Deputies of this City. Yesterday in the evening he came to Molsheim three League from hence, where he held a Muster of the Troops quartered in the Lower Alsace, and after having had a Conference with the Prince de Vandemont, parted thence for Saverne, where he lodged the last night, intending to pass from thence for Lorrain. The Prince de Vandemont arrived here last night, and parted again this morning early on his way to Gunsbourg on the Rhine where the Duke of Lorrain has at present his Court.

Cologne, June 19. On Friday last arrived in the Neighborhood of Nuis, 37 Regiments of Horse, which encamped on the River Erue, except 7 Regiments, who without making any halt continued their march towards Wesel. The same day 400 Horse, and 200 Foot more arrived at Gleken, who the next day, together with the Regiment of the Kings Guards, which was at Nuis, continued their march towards Wesel. The 17, four Regiments of Foot arrived with 45 pieces of Cannon at Sidberg, about a League from Nuis, and yesterday marched again, with the Horse that was encamped on the Erue towards Wesel. These marches do utterly ruine this Diocesis as well as the Dutchy of Juliers. Letters from Lipsstadt of the 17 say, that the 16 the Marschal de Crequi quitted his Camp, which was about half a League from that City, and marched four Leagues to Maticirke in the County of Rithberg, and from thence decamped again the 17, and marched towards Bylevel where Lieutenant-General Spaen still remained with the Brandenburg Troops under his command.

Brussels, June 23. The Duke de Villa Hermosa is expected back here to morrow. The Prince d'Assensien Governor of Gelderland, who came hither to her Mother before she died, is fallen very ill. Letters from Nimeguen of the 20 instant say, that Monsieur Blaspeil, the Brandenburg Ambassador there, had desired Monsieur Coibert to write to the Marechal de Crequi, to stop his farther march, and to prevent his attacking any of the Electors Towns, seeing he could assure him, that his Electoral Highness had sent such orders to Monsieur Meinders his Minister at Paris, as would certainly produce a Peace; that the French Ambassador had answered, that he could not undertake to stop the march of the French Army, but that upon the assurance he received from him, Monsieur Blaspeil, that such Orders were sent Monsieur Meinders at Paris, he would write to the Marechal de Crequi, and to Monsieur Catvo, to give them an account thereof, leaving it to them to take such Resolutions thereupon, as to their acting with the Kings Forces, as they shall judge fit. The Letter is added, that the said French Ambassador was preparing for his leaving Nimeguen, in order to his return home. We have an account from Ipres, that a quarrel lately happening between some French Officers there, they fought seven against seven; that some of them were killed, and the rest taken, who were punished with death, according to the Law against Duels.

Nimeguen, June 22. Monsieur Blaspeil, the Brandenburg Ambassador here, has received Letters from his Majesty, advising him; that his Electoral Highness had, in consideration of the present posture of affairs, and the inequality of his Force to that of France, resolved to comply with the Conditions proposed by the Crown, and had accordingly sent such orders to Monsieur Meinders his Envoy at Paris, as would without all doubt put a speedy end to his Negotiation there, by a conclusion of the Peace, of which Monsieur Blaspeil has given Monsieur Coibert the French Ambassador, an account, with a desire, that he would make use of the power he has, to send directions to the Marechal de Crequi not to proceed on his march; which Monsieur Coibert, as we are informed, so far gratified him in, as to promise him to write to the Marechal, to acquaint him with the state this Negotiation is in, and the prospect there is of a sudden Peace, leaving it to him to govern himself thereby as he should think fit.

Hague, June 23. The States of Holland upon their late debate concerning the restitution of Maestricht to the Spaniards, ordered, that the several Admiralties should at their next meeting, bring in an account of the Vojages which remain due to them from the Crown of Spain, for the Equipage that was made here for the service of that Crown in Sicily, which it's probable the States will expect satisfaction in, before they part with Maestricht. The States have resolved to restore to the Jesuits that part of their Colledge at Maestricht, which they were formerly possessed of, and in the matter of the Jurisdiction of the Prince of Liege, they have answered the French Ambassador, that they are ready to appoint Deputies to meet with such persons, as shall be appointed by the Elector of Cologne, who is Prince of Liege, to adjust this matter. The City of Cologne having claim a new Imposition of a Crown per Tun, on all Wines that pass in Boats by that City, the States have written to those Magistrates about it, and have let them know, that in case it be not redressed by them, they will carry their complaint to the Duke of Rainonne. The Province of Friseland has freely given in its approbation of the Treaty concluded with those of Argiers. The Letters from Nimeguen give great hopes again of a speedy conclusion of the Peace in the North.

Paris, June 24. The 4th instant 28 Gallies sailed from Marseilles under the command of the Duke de Vivonne, and arrived the 6th at Thoulon, and parted from thence again the 10th for Civita Vecchia, whither they carry the Duke and Dutchess of Nevers, and the Dutchess Sforza. We have advice, that the Governor of Majorca has received orders from the Court at Madrid to restore all the Veils taken by the Privateers of that Island, since the conclusion of the Peace between the two Crowns. The King has appointed the Count de la Vaugion to go and condole on his part with the Elector of Bavaria upon the death of his Father. The Marquis de la Seignelay, who was by the Kings order to visit Haute de Grace, and other Ports on that Coast, is returned.

Plimouth, June 13. On Wednesday came into this Port His Majesty's Ship the Mary, Captain Killigrew Commander, from the Streights, with seven or eight Merchant ships under his Convoy, which are put up the Channel.

Portsmouth, June 15. Last night set sail from Spithead for the Downes the Admiral, the Phoenix, the Kings Fisher, the Turkish Orange Tree, &c. There are in the Offing about 20 Sail of Ships with two Men of War; which at they are we as yet know not; the Wind at N. W.

Advertisements.

☞ Diana Dutchess of Mantua: Or the Perfect and Exact Relation in the Press, of the Tryals of Thomas Whitbread, William Harcourt, John Fenwicke, John Cavan, Anthony Turner, and Richard Langhorne, who were Condemned for High-Treason, the 13 and 14 instant at the Old Bailey. Printed by Henry Hills, Thomas Parkhurst, John Starkey, Dorman Newman, Thomas Cockrill, and Thomas Symonds, who are appointed by Authority to publish the same: which is done, to prevent all False and Imperfect Copies.

☞ A New Map of Scotland, in a Large Sheet of Imperial Paper, where are set the Counties are Geographically divided, with the principal Roads; A full Geographical Description of every County, with their Laws, Customs, Measures, Weights, and Coins, the exact as yet was ever one The Map is set with Descriptions in 6d. upon Cloth Coloured and Rolled 5s. Sold by Robert Greene at the Rising-Crown in Brudge-row and by William Berry at the Globe between Chartwell and Whitehall.

☞ These are to give Notice, That there is a Perfect and Exact Relation in the Press, of the Tryals of Thomas Whitbread, William Harcourt, John Fenwicke, John Cavan, Anthony Turner, and Richard Langhorne, who were Condemned for High-Treason, the 13 and 14 instant at the Old Bailey. Printed by Henry Hills, Thomas Parkhurst, John Starkey, Dorman Newman, Thomas Cockrill, and Thomas Symonds, who are appointed by Authority to publish the same: which is done, to prevent all False and Imperfect Copies.

Lost or Stolen by the Grounds of Robert Symonds: of Castle Eaton in the County of Wiltshire, a Burgundy Mare of about 15 hands, a Star in her forehead, a cut tail, about 8 years old. If any one can give notice of the said Mare to Mr. Nicolo Barrow & Brasier a Goldsmiths in Spittle, or else to Robert Symonds aforesaid, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward.

Stolen or Strayed from the Orchard of Captain Christy in the Parish of St. Giles in the County of Wiltshire, the 9th instant, a Red Horse named Green 12 and 13 hand, all his pace, black face, with 11 eyed three white legs, a short tail. Also an old Greyhound bitch of a light brown. Likewise a Silver Spoon, and a small Pocket Bible with silver clasps a Dutch ring, to a considerable value. Whoever gives notice of any of the things beforementioned to Mr. Peter Apothecary at the Green Dragon in Orford the 1st 2, London, or to the said Captain Christy, shall be well rewarded.