

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday July 31. to Monday August 4. 1679.

Genova, July 26.

THE 20th instant failed hence Sir William Poole in the Happy Return, with five Merchant Ships under his Convoy for Legborne, from whence the French Gallies, under the command of the Duke de Vivonne, parted the 23 for Cagliari, where they are to join their Men of War, and that done, stand over for Tripoli. Monsieur Gaumont, the French Ministers continuing at the Court of Mantoua, where, it's believed he has some secret Negotiation in hand, gives great ombrage to this State; which has not yet agreed in the Election of their new Doge. The 24th instant arrived here the Elizabeth Pink, John Fletcher Master, from Amsterdam. A Majorkin bound from hence for Lisbon has fought five Algerines off of Cape St. Vincent, and at last disengaged her self of them.

Madrid, July 27. You have been already told of the arrival here, on the 33th instant, of a Gentleman sent Exprels by the Marquis de los Balbaces, with an account of the Marriage being declared between this King and Madamoiselle d'Orleans. On the 20th another Exprels arrived from Paris, with the Capitulations of the said Marriage; whereupon the King was the next day complimented by all the Grandees, Nobility, and principal Ministers of this Court, and the Luminaries and Rejoycings of the People were repeated the three nights following. The King has appointed the Duke of Pastrana, to go his Ambassador Extraordinary to France, to carry to the new Queen, his Picture set with Diamonds, valued at 100 thousand Pieces of Eight; his Excellency will begin his journey from hence on Saturday next, and in order thereunto went yesterday to Toledo, to receive the commands of the Queen-Mother. It is said that the Marquis d'Astorga Mayordomo Mayor to the new Queen, with the other principal Officers of her Household, will begin their journey on the first of September, to meet her Majesty on the Frontiers. Letters from Cadiz of the 16 instant advise, that Sir John Berry in the Dreadnought, with the several Merchantmen under his Convoy, homewards bound, were still detained in that Port by contrary Winds; and that a Squadron of French Men of War was Cruising between Lisbon and Cape St. Vincent, not without putting the Spaniards into some care, lest they might have a design upon their Galeons and New Spain Fleet, now daily expected. From Lisbon of the 11th they write, that orders were given for the fitting out 12 Men of War, against the next Spring, which it's believed, are to go and fetch the Duke of Savoy, who is to marry the Infanta; and that the differences between that Court and the Pope, with relation to the Proceedings of the Inquisition, lye dormant, till the Nuncio receive farther orders from Rome.

Vienna, July 27. The 23 instant Prince Radzivil

Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown of Poland, made his publick Entry into this place, which was one of the stateliest and most magnificent, that has been seen, he having with him a Train of above 400 persons. The Count de Preuner, Marschal of the Court, was to receive him at a place called Tabót-Preuke, from whence the Ambassador was brought hither in the Emperers Coach, followed by above 60 others with six Horses apiece. The manner of the Entry was thus: First marched a Company of Fanissaries, very richly Cloathed, then followed six Camels with the Ambassadors Bagage; then a Troop of fifty Persons, cloathed with Scarlet Cloaks, with the King of Poland's Arms embroidered upon them, being of his Life-guard; next a Company of Spahis, and a Company of Cossacks; then a great number of Polish Gentlemen, very Rich, as well in their own Apparel, as the Furniture of their Horses; these immediately preceded the Emperers Coach, about which went a great many Footmen and Pages, and 30 persons with Partisans; then followed the Ambassadors Coaches and the rest. The 24th his Excellency had his publick Audience of the Emperor, to whom he made only the usual Compliments, desiring Commisioners may be appointed to receive the Propositions he comes to make, and to treat with him thereupon. His Excellency will not stay here above a fortnight or three weeks, and then will proceed on his way to Rome, as Ambassador to the Pope. The Plague encreasing here, it is said that the Emperor will remove to Prague, or as others say, to Rathborne or Nuremberg. We have an account that a Turkish Ambassador is coming hither with a Train of 300 persons, and that he is already arrived on our Frontiers. It is said that an Ambassador is likewise coming hither from the King of Perfia.

Copenhagen, July 29. The Conferences at Lundun in Schonen are quite separated. The Suedes are at present posted with a Body of 12000 men between Landskroon and Helsenburg, and give out that they will besiege the latter. Our Fleet has been before Calmar, but not being able to attempt any thing upon the Suedes there, is gone off to Sea.

Hamburg, Aug. 4. The King of Denmark continues in our Neighborhood; and our Magistrates have presented his Majesty as well as the Queen with a Present of Plate, which they accepted; and yesterday the King accompanied with his Brother Prince George, passed near this City, and was saluted from our Walls with the discharge of 24 Pieces of Cannon; but after all we cannot well comprehend the meaning of the Danish Troops remaining in these parts, especially if what they give out be true, that they expect more forces to join them; and that which surprizes us no less is, that our Letters from Berlin give us an account, that preparations are making there and in other places, as if the Elector were going to enter into a new War.

Lubecke,