

Chapter of this See to chose the Bishop of Strasburg Conduitor.

Brussels, Aug. 11. Here happened a Tumult the last night among the Burghers, which was like to have had very ill effects; it was occasioned by the imprisonment of a Burgher for a Riot, to release whom, some thousands of the Rabble got together, and forced the burgher-masters to set him at liberty, threatening otherwise to pull down their Houses. Letters from Liege the 9th instant tell us, that Prince William of Furstenberg arrived there that morning, and was received very solemnly by the Burghers in Arms, and saluted with a treble discharge of the Cannon round the Walls: The Letters add, that the Bridge which the French are making over the Meuse at Chinay for the passage of their Troops was almost finished. From Strasburg they write, that the Imperialists are leaving that place, and that thereupon greatest part of the French Troops are retired out of Alsace.

Amsterdam, July 11. The French Army has repass'd the Rhine at Wesel, part of it takes its march directly towards the Meuse, while another part will remain in the Diocess of Cologne, and the Countries of Fuliers and Bergs, to raise (if they have no other design) the Arrears of Contributions they require from those Countries.

Hague, Aug. 11. Don Emanuel de Lyra, the Spanish Minister having received a final Answer in the matter concerning Maestricht, will part hence in few days on his return for Spain. We have had several reports here, as if the Peace between the two Northern Crowns was upon the point of being concluded, but they are without any ground, and the last Letters from Copenhagen said, that there was little reason to expect any thing from the Conferences at Schonen, though at the same time the Swedes would not endure the Treaty should be removed from thence to Paris, which the Danes design.

Paris, Aug. 16. On Sunday the Count de Morsheim Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown of Poland, made his publick Entry into this City, being attended by a very rich and numerous Train. Very great preparations are making here for the solemnizing the Marriage of the King of Spain with Mademoiselle, which will be done on the 30 instant, the Prince de Conti being that Kings Proxy for this Ceremony. We hear nothing more of the Peace of the North, the Sieur Meyereroon the Danish Minister here, expecting orders from his Master, how to proceed, upon what has been signified to him on the part of this King, of which you had an account in our last.

Plimouth, Aug. 5. The second instant came into this Port the Nightingal of Hull, Adam Sherwill Master, from the Balticks. The third the Dorothy of London, Francis Eltbird Master, bound for Tangier and Malaga. The Dart of Yarmouth, Thomas Poynt Master, from Bristol, for the Streights. The Arn of Hamburg, Foskin Fooks Master for Cadiz. The Marshias of Amsterdam, Harman Bronnes Master for the Streights. The Elizabeth of Hamburg, John Coes Master, for St. Lucar. The Young Teoman of Middleburg, bound for Tangier. The same day sailed from hence the Antelope and Dover Frigats, for Newfoundland. The 4th arrived here the Mathew and Sarah of Bristol, John Cadner Master. The Prudence of Bristol, William Fisher, and the Dove of Bristol, Giles Strapely, all three bound for Cadiz; and this day the Ann and the Hopewell of this place, the first bound home from Bayonne, and the other from Guernzey for Ireland.

Lime, Aug. 5. A Vessel is put in here, who was chased off of Portland by a Turks man of War, Yesterday was publicly burnt here by the Officers of the Custom-house, a great quantity of French Linnens, and at the same time several Hogsheads of French Wine were staved, pursuant to the Act of Parliament.

Windsor, Aug. 6. This day the Count de Mayan, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had his first Audience of their Majesties, to which he was conducted in the usual manner by Sir Charles Costerel Master of the Ceremonies.

London, Aug. 11. The Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, taking notice that the City and Liberties thereof, and especially the Street of Cornhill, and Passages to the Royal Exchange, are much pestered with a sort of loose and idle Persons, called Hawkers, who do daily Publish and Sell Seditious Books, Scurrilous Pamphlets, and scandalous Printed Papers, contrary to Law, and to the great Scandal of the Government of this City (for the suppressing of whom divers Orders and Provisions have been formerly made by that Court) have thought fit, for the regulation thereof, and for the more effectual putting in execution the Laws against such Offenders, to appoint and command the Marshall of the City, as well as the Constables, to take care that no persons whatsoever do from henceforth Sell, Cry, Publish, or Disperse any Books, Pamphlets, or other Printed Papers in any place within this City or the Liberties thereof, and to apprehend all such Hawkers and Offenders, and to bring them before the Lord Mayor, or some other of His Majesties Justices of the Peace, to be set at hard Labour at Bridewell, or otherwise to be dealt with according to Law.

Advertisements.

✠ ΧΡΙΣΤΟΛΟΓΙΑ, Or, A Declaration of the Glorious Mystery of the Person of Christ, God and Man, with the Infinite Wisdom, Love and Power of God in the Contrivance and Constitution thereof, &c. By John Owen D. D.

✠ The Church of Rome no safe Guide, &c. By the same Author.

✠ A Sermon of Antichrist, Preached at Christ Church, Dublin, Novemb. 12. 1676. By the Right Reverend Father in God Henry, Lord Bishop of Mash. All sold by Nath. Ponder at the Pracek in the Postroy.

✠ The Princess of Cleves. The most famous Romance. Written in French by the greatest Wits of France. Rendered into English by a Person of Quality. Sold by R. B. niley and M. Magnes in Russel Street in Court-garden.

Lost in a Hackney Coach on Tuesday last, about ten of the Clock, being the 5th of this instant, a bloom colored Sattin Pocket, wherein was a Purse, with 7 Guineas, 3 half Guineas, and about 20s. in loose Silver, and a Bunch of Keyes. If any one has taken up his Pocket, and will give notice of it to the Master of the Quens bad Tavern in Great Queen Street, shall have two Guineas for his pains.

One Thomas Mills, aged about 14 years, in a short close bodied Coat and Breeches, of a sandy gray colour, with a gray Hat, of a fair complexion, gray eyed, lank hair, Went away from his Fathers house on Thursday the 23 of July last, from Mortimer in the County of Bucks. Whoever gives notice of the said person, either to his Father John Mills at Mortymar aforesaid, or to Mr Samuel Aldred in Bride Lane, near Fleet-street, shall be very well rewarded.

One John Lullucks, thin visag'd, lank brown hair, thin of body, middle stature, and about 20 years old, with a mixt stuff Suit, being an Apprentice to Richard Neals Gardiner in St. Albans. Run away from his said Master about six weeks since. Whoever gives notice of him to his said Master at St. Albans, or to Mr Weldare at Bur's Stables, near Exeter Lane, shall be well rewarded.