

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From ~~Monday~~ September 1. to Thursday September 4. 1679.

Naples, Aug. 15.

Yesterday arrived here a Courier from Madrid, bringing an account of the Kings Marriage with Mademoiselle d'Orleans being concluded, and that there had been great rejoicings for three days together on this occasion. The Marquis de los Velez our Viceroy, has resolved to assemble again the Quarters of this City, of whom he formerly demanded that they would make the King a Present on his Marriage, to see what they will now do in it. The affairs of Sicily are in some disorder; the Messines complain of the severe treatment they receive from their Viceroy, and there has been, as we are informed, some disturbances on that account among the common people.

Vienna, Aug. 26. The 24 instant the Emperor and the whole Court parted from hence for Prague. Count Montecuculi at the same time is gone for Raab, to give Audience to a Turkish Chiaus arrived there. The Moscovite Ambassadors are gone home, having hastened their departure, because of the Plague, which encreases daily; and to morrow the Polish Ambassador Prince Radzevil likewise leaves this place. From Hungary we hear, that an accommodation is made with the Malecontents, who are restored to their Estates, and left to the free exercise of their Religion.

Hamburg, Sept. 5. We have Letters from Sweden, which say, that the Peace was as good as concluded, and that the Troops which were to take possession of Stein, were already on their way thither. And this is confirmed by a Letter from Monsieur de Feuquieres the French Ambassador in Sweden to the Sieur Rabenac, who says, that all the Articles of the Treaty were adjusted, and that they only expected the return of a Courier he had sent to Paris, when they would proceed to sign it.

Strasbourg, Sept. 1. We are assured that a detachment of the Marechal de Crequi's Army is on its march towards these parts, which, with the Advices we have from several hands of the designs of the French upon this City, puts us into great apprehensions, and the more when we consider with what earnestness the French pressed the Imperial Troops that were in Garison here, to leave this place, which we now begin to imagine was done with design, that we might be deprived of all assistance. The French work very hard on the Fortifications of Pfalsburg, and intend, as it seems, to lay up a great Magazine there, for they send daily thither vast quantities of Provisions, and all sorts of Ammunition. Our Magistrates are in the mean time so sensible of the danger that threatens them, that they have resolved to send three Deputies to France, to endeavor to discover the intentions of the Court with relation to us.

Wesel, Sept. 1. Yesterday the Marechal de Crequi being pretty well recovered of his indisposition, parted hence on his way for France; and we hope the French Troops, which as yet remain in these Countries will not stay long after him. The Brandenburg Troops have again taken possession of Rees, Emmericke, and Cleves.

Antwerp, Sept. 4. On Saturday last arrived here two English Yachts, on board of which were the Lady Ann and the Lady Isabelle, with their Attendants; they came altho' privately, and went on for Brussels, where it's believed they arrived the next day. From Germany they write, that the City of Strasburg is in great apprehension of the French.

Brussels, Sept. 5. On Sunday last the Lady Ann and the Lady Isabelle arrived here, in very good health from England. His Royal Highness has appointed Mr. Tufon to go for Spain, to compliment the King and Queen upon their Marriage. It is believed that the Princess of Orange, who finds much good by drinking the Waters at Aix, will take this place in her return home, to visit their Royal Highnesses. Our Governor the Duke de Villa Hermosa, is at present at Namur, from whence he is expected here about the end of this week. From the Rhine they write, that the Marechal de Crequi was past by Zons and Nuiz, towards Aix la Chapelle, in his return for Paris; that he was carried in a Litter, being still very much indisposed. That the Prince of Neuburg, with the Archduchess his Wife, was arrived at Dusseldorp, and had been received there with great solemnity.

Brussels, Sept. 8. Yesterday, by Letters from England, we had an account of His Majesties indisposition, and this morning early his Royal Highness, attended by the Earl of Peterborough, and Colonel Churchill, parted hence for England. The Dutchesse de Villa Hermosa returned hither two days since, and to morrow his Excellency is expected. On Sunday next Te Deum will be sung, and that will be followed by Bonfires and other publick demonstrations of joy, on occasion of our Kings marriage, which was solemnized the 31 past at Fontainebleau. From Liege of the 6th instant they write, that the Marechal de Crequi arrived there on Sunday last in his return for France. Our Letters from the Upper Rhine say, that the French are going to attack Strasbourg, pretending to restore the Bishops Jurisdiction there as it was in former times; that in order thereunto their Troops are marching thither from Lorraine and Burgundy, and that the Marechal d'Humieres is to command them. The Letters add, that the Most Christian King has demanded the Homage of those of Alsace.

Hague, Sept. 8. Yesterday the States of Holland were assembled for the first time since their late recess; and in a day or two the Prince of Orange is expected here. Our Northern Letters say that the Peace between the two Crowns was concluded at Lunden in Schonen; and at the same time our French Letters tell us, that a Treaty of Peace was has likewise signed at Paris the third instant by Monheir de Pom. ore, and the Danish Envoy. The Elector of Brandenburg has written a second Letter to the States in answer to their reply to his first, of which we do not as yet know the contents. There came a report two days since from Amsterdam, that the Spanish Galeons were arrived at Cadiz, which since proves a mistake. The Count de Solmes, Colonel of the Princes Regiment of Guards, is returned hither from Germany, and came very opportunely to Reprive a poor Soldier, who was condemned yesterday by the Council of War to be shot to death, for having been out of his Lodging after Ten a Clock at night, contrary to his Highnesses orders.

Fontainebleau, Sept. 7. After the solemnization of the Marriage on the 31 past, the Queen of Spain saw a very fine Firework, and then supped with the King and Queen, being seated between them on the Kings right Hand. The next morning the Queen of Spain went to visit the Queen, and in the afternoon she received the Visits of Madamoiselle d'Orleans, the Great Dutchess of Tusca- ny, and Madam de Guise (who had Elbow Chairs set for them) and returned them. That evening there was a great Ball at Court, and the King danced with the Queen of Spain the first Courant. The 2d instant she received the Compliments of all the Foreign Ministers, and was visited by the King, the Queen, and the Dauphin; and in the evening went with the King and Madam in his Calèche to Hunt a Hare. The 3d the Prince de Conti, the Prince de la Roche-sur-Yon, the Cardinal de Bouil- lon, and the Cardinal de Bonzi, were to visit her, and had Stools with Backs set for them. And the 4th, being accompanied by the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, and attended by 100 of the Kings Guards du Corps, her Majesty went to Paris, where she will pass some days.

Paris, Sept. 9. The 4th instant the Queen of Spain came hither from Fontainebleau, and lighted at the Palace Royal, where several Companies of the Regiment of Guards were drawn up. The next day her Majesty received the Visits of the Prince of Cande, and the Duke d' Engbien, who had Stools with Backs given them. The 5th she was complimented by the Provost des Marchands, and received the Presents made her by this City; after which she went to the Opera, and in the evening gave Audience to the Duke de Pastrana, who presented to her the King's Picture, set round with Diamonds of very great value. The 6th her Majesty received the Compliments of our Archbishop at the head of his Chapter. The 7th, she gave Audience to the Parliament, the Chamber of Accounts, &c. and at night was entertained very magnificently by the Marquis de los Balbases.

Paris, Sept. 9. The Queen of Spain having past four or five days here, went yesterday with her Father the Duke of Orleans to St. Cloud, from whence her Majesty will return hither on Monday next; and then go back to Fontainebleau, in order to her beginning her journey for Spain. In our last we gave you an account that the Peace between this Crown, Sueden, and Denmark, was signed on Sunday last; we are told that by it the King of Denmark obliges himself to restore all he has taken during this War, as well in Schonen, as elsewhere; That the Duke of Holstein Gotorp is to be re-established in his Countries, and acknowledged Sovereign of the Country of Slewick, according to the Treaty concluded at Copenhagen, 1661. And that the King of Sueden, even before the Exchange of the Ratifications of this Treaty, may transport his Troops to Germany, to Garrison the places in Pomerania and Bremen, that are to be restored to him by the Elector of Branden- burg, and the Princes of Lunenburg. Some days since was verified in the Parliament a very severe Edict of the Kings, not only against those that Fight Duels, or send Challenges, but likewise against such as give any provocation by Blows, or by giving the Lye, or other Language unfit for a Gentleman to take.

Bridlington, Aug. 28. On Monday last came into this Harbor a Dutch Ship, being a Hospital to their Herring Busses, which are now Fishing to the Number of 400. Yesterday the said Vessel sailed again.

Plimouth, Aug. 29. The 26th instant arrived here the Richard of London, Thomas Fowles Master, from New England; and the William and John of Tarmouth, from the Canaries; and the next day came in His Majesties Ships the St. David and the Greenwich, with a great many Merchant Ships under their Convoy, bound for the Streights.

Stockton, Aug. 29. On Tuesday last Mr. Bowes and Captain Kenderson, were chose Knights of the Shire for the County of Durham.

Portsmouth, Aug. 31. Yesterday came into this Harbor the Bristol, and the Kings Fisher from Spit- head, to be laid up, and will be paid off to morrow. Our Governor Colonel Legg, and Colonel Norton, are Elected Burgeses for this Town.

Chester, Sept. 1. This day William Williams Esq; and Sir Thomas Grosvenor Baronet, were Elected Members to serve for this City in the ensuing Parliament.

Bambury in Suffex, Sept. 1. The 24th past, Hen- ry Sydney Esq; and Henry Goring Esq; were chosen Burgeses for this Borough.

Windsor, Sept. 2. The King continues, thanks be to God, so well, that He has been this morning to see the Queen, and walks up and down the House; so that in all appearance His Majesty is out of danger of the return of His Distemper.

This morning his Royal Highness the Duke of York arrived here, contrary to expectation, and told His Majesty, that hearing of His indisposition, he thought he could do no less, than come to wait upon Him, and see how He did; adding, that he was ready, as soon as His Majesty pleased, to return to Flanders, or any other part of the World His Majesty should command him to go to.

Advertisements.

These are to certify all persons it may concern, that there will be at Stafford this next Fair, being at Matthews Fair, this year kept the day following, upon the 22 of this instant, several Tuns of new Hops of the best manner, brought to be sold there at reasonable Rates, for the making of it a good Hop Fair for the future, for all the adjacent Parts and Man-kets, and elsewhere, to the Buyers great ease and benefit.

Stolen from Mrs. Anne Curtis of West Deanham in the County of Norfolk, eight Miles from Lin Regis, a brown bay stone Horse, 15 hands high, a small star in his forehead, 3 or 4 hairs under the Saddle, a little white spot on one of his thighs, a black main and tail, 7 years old; he was stolen by one who went by the name of Peter about 22 years of age, brown hair, tall and slender. Whoever gives notice of Husb or Man to Mr. Rickard Lyon at his Coffee house, or against Deacons Common, London. or to the said Mrs. Anne Curtis at Deanham aforesaid, shall be well rewarded.