Marsailles, Sept. 12.

THE 10th instant came into this Port seven Malta Gallies; they have been these three or four Months at Sea cruising; they will Wash and Tallow, and then take their course to the Westward, to look after the Algierins that are abroad. The French Gallies are expected here about the end of this Month, when three or four new Gallies will be launched; the King resolves to make their number up to 40. From Tripoli we have an exact list of the Naval Force at present belonging to that City and Kingdom.

A Ship on the Stocks having 14 Ports on a side on her Lower-Deck, and will carry 46 Guns.

Tangier, Aug 15. We have Letters from Vice-Admiral Herbert, dated on board the Rupert, the 10th instant, off of Cape Frafalgar, in which he advises, That he had given chase to two Algerine Prizes, the one a Dutch Ship laden with Wine, and the other an English Barbadoes Man, laden with Cotton, Ginger, and Sugar; the first run aboard under Arzilia, and was there lost; the other finding she had no other way to escape, was set on Fire in the night, two Leagues to the Westward of Cape Sparta, by the Turks themselves, who saved themselves in their Boat. The Moors continue still in the Field, though at a greater distance from this place then they were when we gave you our last account.

Stetin, Sept. 11. All our Cannon and Ammunition is removed from hence to Castrin; and we now expect very suddenly to return into the hands of the Suedes. We have within these three months been forced to raise 18000 Crowns, and are afraid the Brandenburg Soldiers will require yet more of us, before they leave us. The other day happened here a sad accident; a poor Soldier being thought dead, was buried, but making a hideous noise in the Grave where he lay, a Priest heard it, and caused him to be taken up; he was found to have yet life in him, but died some hours after, having beaten himself almost to piteés, and his Coffin being full of blood.

From the French Camp before Homburg, Sept. 17. The 14th instant the Marschal d'Humiers came, with the Forces under his Command, before this place; he immediatly summoned the Governor, who, after seeing the Trenches opened, and the Batteries raised, surrendered.

Strasburg, Sept. 15. We have at the same time the account of the French having besieged the Castles of Homburg and Bisch, belonging to the Duke of Lorraine, and that they are surrendered to them.

Strasburg, Sept. 16. All the Towns of the Upper and Lower Alsace have been obliged to take an oath of Allegiance to the Most Christian King; the City of Schlestadt did it on Saturday last; and the City of Calmar on Sunday: the latter made at first difficulty, but being threatened that if they refused, 5000 men should be sent to Quarter upon them, they thought it best to comply; and thus all Alsace is become subject to France.

Hague, Sept. 26. On Thursday last the Prince of Orange went hence for Breda, to meet the Princess there, in her return from Aix la Chapelle, as well as to see what forwardness the new Fortifications, that are making there, are in, and to take a review of the Troops in those parts. On Saturday their Highnesses came to Honslaerdike, and from thence they intended in few days to Soestdike, to pass most of the next Month thence. The States of Holland adjourned last Saturday till this day. It is said that the Deputies of some of the Towns have proposed the sending of a Minister to the Elector of Brandenburg, to endeavour to accomodate matters with him, but that those of Amsterdam oppose it, they thinking the States have greater pretensions on the Elector then he upon them, and that to Secure themselves, against the Menaces as well of Spain as of his Electoral Highness, they ought to lay hold on the opportunity which now offers, to make an advantageous Alliance with France; but the rest of the Towns seem of another mind.
