

ard Monsieur Vaux to be his Commissioners for the adjusting the Limits betwixt the Spanish and French Territories, and that they shall part hence the 4th of the next Month, to meet the French Commissioners at Courtray. Three days since the Dutchess of Modena arriv'd here from Holland, she will make but a short stay, intending very suddenly for Italy.

Hague, Octob. 31. The Most Christian King, to gratifie these people has taken off the extraordinary imposition which lay upon their Trade in France, reducing it to what it was in former times. The Sieur d' Amerongen is still at Wrecht, where he is taking his leave of the States of that Province, in order to his journey to the Elector of Brandenburg's Court. The Prince continues still at Soesdike, where there is a great confluence of people that resort thither about business. This Evening Mr. Sidney goes thither to take his leave of their Highnesses, and will Embark for England about the latter end of this Week. We were in hopes here that the French would have quitt'd Wesel, but instead of that, the Marquis de Sourdis, the Governor, has Orders to prepare winter quarters for a greater number of Forces, so that there will be no less than 10000 men in those parts all this Winter, which people here do not like, believing the Design of it is to awe this State.

Hague, Nov. 3. There being no very urgent affairs here at present, and the Prince of Orange being willing to continue his Divertisements in the Country, the meeting of the States of Holland is put off from the 14 to the 21 instant. The French are not only making preparations at Wesel for the quartering a great number of Soldiers there this Winter, but are likewise providing great Magazines at Liege. The Duke of Monmouth is gone from Enckuyfen for Frizeland. The arrival of all our East-India Ships has made the Actions of that Company rise from 400 to 450. A great Fleet of Merchant Ships is likewise arriv'd in the Texel from the Streights. The Letters from Germany say, that there had happened a great Fire at Venna, which had destroyed the Emperors Palace and half the Town.

Paris, Octob. 28. Great preparations are making at the Louvre for the entertainment of the Court, which it's said will part of the Winner here, on the occasion of the Dauphins Marriage, which every body believes to be concluded. On Wednesday last Monsieur le Grand and the Duke of Gramont were by the Kings Order, sent Prisoners to the Basilic, upon a quarrel they had, but it appearing to have been wholly accidental, without any premeditation, and that there had not passed any Challenge between them, they were releas'd again the next day, which was so ordered, that as they pass'd the Greue, they saw two men hang there, for having sought a Duel. Our Letters from the North say, that the King of Denmark had accepted our Kings Mediation, and that there was great hopes that matters would be agreed.

Paris, Nov. 3. The 18th past the Queen of Spain part'd from Bordeaux, having pass'd some days there, and lodg'd at Castres. The next day her Majesty arriv'd at Bazas; the 20th at Roquefort, where she received Letters from the Dutchess of Terra-Nova, her Camerara Mayor, and from the Duke of Offuna, Master of her Horse, who expected her Majesty, with her whole Household, at Lyon, on the Frontiers. The 22 her Majesty lodg'd at Mount de Marsan; the 23 at Tarias, and the 24th at Dax, from whence she intended to part the next day for Bayonne.

Plymouth, Octob. 24. Yesterday the Diamond, the Ruby and the Dartmouth Brigats sail'd from hence to Cruise to the Westward.

Whitehall, October 24. Complaint having been made to His Majesty in Council of great disturbances that have happen'd in the Burrough of Saith, and since the Election of their late Mayor Mr. Stephens, by a Rabble of unsworn Inhabitants of the said Burrough, having no Right of Election, who being stirr'd up and encouraged by some Gentlemen of that Country, did in a Riotous and Mutinous manner proceed to the choice of one Skelton to be Mayor, a person incapable thereof, being discharged from the Office of Alderman for not taking the Oaths prescribed in the Act for Regulating Corporations; to whom, to colour his Usurpation, they without any Authority Administred the said Oaths, by means whereof His Majesties Peace was disturb'd, and the Government of the said Town in great Confusion. And several Affidavits having been read, making good what was alledged by the Complainants, His Majesty was pleas'd to order that the said Gentlemen should be summon'd to appear at the Board on Wednesday the third of December next, and that several of the Inhabitants who have been notorious Promoters of and Actors in the foresaid Tumults and Riots, be taken into Custody, to Answer the Premises; His Majesty declaring that He was well satisfied and doth take in good part the care which the said Mr. Stephens, Mr. Kellway, Mr. Tyacke, and other Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the said Burrough have shew'd to preserve the publick Peace in this great disorder.

Whitehall, Oct. 29. On Monday about Noon, their Royal Highnesses, accompanied by the Lady Ann, and attended by a great many of the Nobility and other Persons of Quality parted from hence, being followed with a numerous Train of Coaches with 6 horses apiece, many of which went to Hatfield, where their Royal Highnesses lodg'd at the Earl of Salisbury's. The next day their Royal Highnesses continued their journey, and went to Biggleswade. And the Lady Ann return'd hither. This night their Royal Highnesses lay at Huntington.

London, Oct. 29. This day Sir Robert Clayton Kt. Lord Mayor of this City, was according to custom sworn before the Barons of the Exchequer, at Westminster, whether he went by water, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, the Aldermen and Sheriffs, and attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges, their Majesties being pleas'd to do them the Honour to be upon the Leads at Whitehall when they pass'd by. Being come back, they pass'd with the usual Solemnity to the Guild Hall, where a most noble and splendid Dinner was provided, at which were the Lords of His Majesties Privy Council, many others of the Nobility, the Judges, and other Persons of Quality.

Advertisement.

Stolen or strayed from Widow Johnson of Paddington the 21 of this instant October, a white gray (♂) dog, 15 hands, with a shorn mane half way bob tail'd, and a bare spot on the near hip upon the Sticking place. Whoever gives notice at Mr. John Birds Suttler at the Horse-guard, shall be well Rewarded.