

had of the King his Father for 4000 Crowns. The Duke of Holslein remains still here, not having taken any notice of the King of Denmark during the whole time of his being in this Neighborhood; which it's said that King takes ill, and that therefore he has not yet restored him his Counties.

Strasburg, Nov. 10. The French have lately changed their Garisons in Lutzelslein, Lichtenberg, and Dachsburg; and it's said they intend to quit and raze the two latter; While they work every day harder and harder on the Fortifications of Hunwigen, Schlestadt, Bitsch, and Homburg, and receive great Sums of Money from France for the encouragement of that Work. Several persons of quality have lately passed through this City on their way from France to the Court of Bavaria, where the Marriage between the Dauphin and that Electors Sister is treating, and as every body believes is as good as concluded. The French that pass through here say, the Dauphin will come as far as Nancy to meet his Brother, and that he will reside there, the King giving him the Government of Lorraine, Alsace and Burgundy.

Brussels, Nov. 14. The States of Brabant cannot hitherto be prevailed with to grant the 1200 thousand Florins which his Excellency has demanded of them, and it's said they defer taking a final Resolution therein till they see whether any supplies come from Spain, without which, they think the Monies these Provinces can raise will signify little. The Letters from Liege give a large description of the misery of that Country, that many Villages are wholly deserted of Inhabitants, and that more will be, in case the French winter there, as according to all appearance their intention is; at the same time the Elector of Cologne has sent some of his Guards to quarter in the District of Franchimont, to oblige those Inhabitants to pay the Arrears of Contributions due to the Imperialists, which his Electoral Highness was forced to make good to them before they quitted Bonne. From Cologne they write, that the French are so far from leaving that Diocess, that they have summoned the Inhabitants to bring in to their several Garisons, which they augment daily, great quantities of Forage and Wood. Monsieur Colbert the French Ambassador is arrived at the Court of Bavaria, whither the Emperor has likewise sent Count Lobcowitz; we shall quickly see which of the two will be the most successful, though people here generally believe the French Interests will prevail, and that the Marriage between the Dauphin and the Princess of Bavaria will be concluded.

Hague, Nov. 17. The States of Holland are now summoned to meet on the 22<sup>d</sup> instant, against which time the Prince of Orange is expected here. The Duke of Monmouth has spent several days with his Highness at Dierich and at Soestdike, and when his Highness comes hither, his Grace goes back to Utrecht. The Actions of the East India Company, which within these few days fell from 350 to 330, are now come up again to 335. The French give out that at the meeting of the States of Holland an Alliance between this State and France will be proposed, which a few days will show.

Plymouth, Nov. 7th Yesterday His Majesties Ship the Swallow, Captain Fowler Commander, came into this Port with the rest of the Merchant Ships bound for the Canaries and other parts, who are now expecting a fair wind to pursue their several Voyages.

Plymouth, Nov. 9. This evening the Fleet of Merchant Ships that was here, consisting in above 100 sail, put to Sea with their Couvoy, the Wind being very fair.

Tork, Nov. 8. On Thursday in the evening their Royal Highnesses came hither, having been received at their entering into this County by the High-Sheriff, and many of the Nobility and other persons of quality, and met by several others on the Road. Four miles from hence our Sheriffs met their Royal Highnesses, and waited upon them hither. Upon their arrival they were saluted with 21 great Guns from the Castle; the Trained Bands were in Arms to pay their respects to them; and our Lord Mayor was to wait upon their Royal Highnesses at their Lodging. This day our Archbishop has invited his Royal Highness to Dinner, (his House being three miles from hence) whither a great many persons of quality are preparing to attend him. On Monday their Royal Highnesses part hence again; will lie that night at Rippon, on Tuesday at Richmond, and on Wednesday at Durham.

London, Nov. 10. There are Letters from the Canaries dated the 28 of September, which wholly contradict the Report of the Matter of a Vessel put lately into Fa-mouth, concerning the plentiful Vintage he said they had there; and on the contrary assure us, that the Vintage would in all probability be very late, and not begun till the latter end of October, and that it was the general belief there would not be so much Wine made this year by a fourth part as was the last.

Whitehall, Nov. 10. The last week the Marquis d'Aranches Ambassador Extraordinary from the Crown of Portugal, had Audience of their Majesties, whom his Excellency acquainted in the name of the Prince Regent and Queen of Portugal with the Marriage concluded between the Duke of Savoy and the Infanta of Portugal.
