Whitehall, Novemb. 13.

HIS Majesty has been pleased to cause his Royal Proclamation to be Issued For the more effectual Discovery of Jesuits, and of all Estates belonging to them, or to any Popish Priest, Colledge, Seminary, or other Popish and Superstitious Foundation.

CHARLES R.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation dated the Twentieth day of November 1678. to promise a Reward of Twenty pounds to any Person who should Discover and Apprehend any Popish Priest or Jesuit, as in the said Proclamation is expressed; and that divers of them do still lye Lurking and Disguised within this His Majesties Realm of England, Contriving and carrying on their Traiterous Plots and Designs against His Majesties Person and Government, and the Protestant Religion by Law Established; His Majesty is therefore Graciously pleased by this His Royal Proclamation to add to the Reward formerly Promised, and doth hereby Promise to him or them who shall Discover and Apprehend, or cause to be Apprehended any Jesuit, the Sum of Eighty Pounds besides the former Twenty pounds, in all One Hundred pounds, which shall be immediately paid upon the Conviction of such Jesuit. And His Majesty doth hereby appoint the Lords Commissioners of His Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer of England to pay the same accordingly without delay or abatement: And His Majesty is further Graciously pleased to Declare, That whosoever shall Discover any Estate, Real or Personal, belonging to any Jesuit or Jesuits, or Colledge or Seminary of Jesuits, or to any Popish Priest, Colledge, Seminary, Convent, or Number of Popish and Superstitious Foundation (Except the same be issuing out, or part of the Estate and Estates of Sir Thomas Preston, Sir John Warner, Two thousand five hundred pounds Charge upon the Estate of Henry Nevil Esq; and Fifteen hundred pounds in the hands of Augustine Hungate, which are already Discovered and now under Examination before the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury) shall have one full Moiety thereof. And His Majesty doth hereby strictly Charge and Command all His Judges, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates, Officers, and other Loyal Subjects whosoever within His Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, That they use their utmost Care and Endeavours to Discover, Apprehend and Commit, or cause to be Committed to safe Custody, in order to their Trial, all Jesuits and Priests, as by His said former Proclamation is Comanded.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall the 12th day of November 1679. In the 35th year of Our Reign.

A List of the Sheriffs appointed for the Year Ensuing.
