

Brussels, Nov. 28. Don Pedro de Renquillo, Envoy Extraordinary to His Majesty of Great Britain, will not be able to begin his Journey yet in some weeks, and Orders are sent, to the Marquis de Bourgome to remain at that Court in the mean time. From Liege they now write again, that the French are preparing to leave those parts.

Amsterdam, Nov. 28. The French Consul here having in the name of his Master demanded that a certain person, now an Inhabitant of this City, should be put into his hands, in order to his being sent to France, to be there punished for the Crimes he is charged with; our Magistrates have put the said person into Prison, resolving not to deliver him up to the French Consul, without a particular Command from the States, but that Justice shall be done upon him here; he is accused of having poisoned several people. The States, to secure the Peace lately made with Argiers, have ordered the several Admiralties to consider of some effectual way to hinder foreign Ships from passing for Hollanders.

Hague, Nov. 25. Yesterday the States of Holland met, all they have yet done has been to nominate several persons, to wit, three for each place that is vacant, of which the Prince of Orange is to choose him that is to have it. The Danish Envoy has given in a Memorial to the States General, wherein he acquaints them with the reconciliation between his Master and the City of Hamburg, and says, That that City had as a Mark of their submission, given his Master such a Sum of Money; which expression the Hamburg Resident here takes exception at. The Sieur Meinders the Elector of Brandenburgs late Minister at Paris, passed through this place the last week, he was with the Pensioner to solicit the payment of the Arrears of Subsidies due to his Master. Their Highnesses returned hither last Wednesday; and yesterday a great deputation from the States of Holland, was with the Prince of Orange, from 10 to 11, who afterwards went to the Assembly of the said States.

Hague, Nov. 28. The States of Holland have not yet entred upon any matter of moment; it is thought they will fall upon the Militia, which they are desirous to reduce to a smaller number, but many are of opinion that their standing Force, which is at present 35000 men, ought by no means to be lessened. The Minister of the Elector of Cologne presses the States very earnestly to quit Maseycke and Hasselt; but it's believed the States will first expect some reparation for those Contributions which his Electoral Highness exacted from their Subjects, without any pretence, during the War. The States seem resolved to pay the Princes of Lunenburg the Arrears of Subsidies due to them. But the Emperors Resident has not yet been able to obtain a satisfactory Answer to his last Memorial concerning the Arrears due to his Master, which we are told amount to about a Million Sterling. The Duke of Monmouth came hither on Sunday last, intending to go and pass some days at Cologne. It is said his Grace means after his return, to reside for the most part in this Town. The French have quitted Aix la Chapelle.

Swansey, Nov. 13. By a Vessel arrived here from Rochelle we have an account, that at Rochford they are fitting-out with all expedition 15 or 20 Sail of Ships, mounted from 70 to 40 Guns each.

Falmouth, Nov. 17. The 14 inst. came in here the young Jacob of Wiffing, laden with Figs from Vilhanoua; the Master says, that it is a very plentiful year in those parts of all sorts of Fruits. The great Fleet of Merchant Ships that came out of Plimouth bound to the Southward, was seen on Friday morning off of this place, the Wind at E. S. E. The 16th came into this Port the Peter of New York, laden with Tobacco and Furs; they report that Colony to be in a very peaceable and thriving condition, and that they have had a very good Crop of Tobacco this Season. The same day arrived here the Merchants Adventure of Topsham from Lisbon; the Master gives an account, that before he sailed from thence, a Boat came in there with 14 English Seamen in her, who had left their Vessel, called the Level of Topsham, and their Master and Boatswain in her, being chased by two Sally Men of War. The said Vessel was laden with Fish from Newfoundland.

Plimouth, Nov. 18. This evening arrived here the Portland Frigate from the Sveights, the Merchant Ships under her Convoy being gone by, for the Downes. In the Latitude of 38 the Portland took up a small Pink of 60 Tuns laden with Fish from Newfoundland, having all her Sails abroad, but not one man in her, having, as is believed, been abandoned by her Company, in the apprehension they may have had of some Turks Man of War.

Deale, Nov. 21. Last night arrived in the Downes seven Merchant Ships from Smirna and Scandaroon with several others from the Sveights. The Malaga Ships, did not stop in the Downes, but went directly on for the River.
