

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday December 4. to Monday December 8. 1679.

Venice, Nov. 24.

Bolonia and other Cities of Italy begin to be so apprehensive of the Plague, which has already infected the Frontiers, that they permit no persons to come thither without a Certificate of Health; and that the same may be the better executed, they keep all their Gates except two or three shut, and at those that are open very strict Guards are placed.

Prague, Nov. 25. Two Houses in this City being infected with the Plague, and three persons being dead in one of them, it is said the Emperor has resolved to remove from this place to a House he has 12 Leagues from hence. Our last Letters from Bavaria told us, that the Elector persisted in his Resolution not to accept of the Proposals made by the French concerning his Marriage with Mademoiselle de Valois; and that for this reason there was still some doubt whether the Marriage between the Dauphin and the Electors Sister would be gone on with.

Copenhagen, Dec. 2. The Sieur Guldensterne is arrived here in quality of Ambassador Extraordinary from Sueden, to demand the Princess of Denmarke, as is said, in Marriage for that King. Count Anthony of Oldenburg will be sent by our King with the same Character to Sueden, and Monsieur Heugh to France, from whence an Ambassador is likewise expected here. We have an account that all the places in Pomeran, except Stetin, have been restored to the Suedes.

Hamburg, Dec. 5. The Commissioners of the King of Sueden and the Princes of Lunenburgh have determined the matters in difference in such manner that very little alteration is made in the Treaty concluded by Monsieur Rabenac at Zell, so that now it's believed the places in Bremen will be very suddenly restored to that Crown, provided the 300000 Crowns, that are to be paid to the Duke of Zell, upon his evacuating Stade, Boexboede, and Carelstait, are ready. Etienne Wangelin is come hither to raise men for the King of Sueden. The Duke and Dutchess of Holstein are returned hither, and how long they will continue here is uncertain.

Hamburg, Dec. 8. Our Letters from Pomeran give us not as yet any account when Stetin is to be restored to the Suedes, but on the contrary say, that some difficulties which have arisen concerning the Cannon, may hinder the restitution of that place yet for some time. Those of Stralsund make great complaint of the hard usage of the Suedes, who do now, by their own Officers receive all the Imposts and Duties, which was formerly done by the Magistrates and those appointed by them, and have likewise lessened their Authority in some other things. And the Inhabitants are afraid that yet greater hardships will be put upon them when the Citadel which the Suedes intend to make is finished.

Strasburg, Dec. 1. The French are now demolishing the Castle of Dacksburg, as it's believed they will do with several other small places, which they do not think worth the keeping. They have removed the Records and publick Papers which were kept at Croon-Weissenburg, to Mess, where they are setting up a new Chamber.

Strasburg, Dec. 4. The Suisse Cantons are extremely concerned that the French, notwithstanding their several representations still go on with the fortifying of Hunningen; It is said they have resolved to hold a general Dyet, to take a fitting Resolution in this affair, and in the mean time to send other Deputies to the French Court, to let the Ministers there know, that they can by no means suffer this bride to be put upon them.

Francfort, Dec. 6. From Munick, the Residence of the Elector of Bavaria, we have advice, that Monsieur Colbert the French Ambassador had had his first Audience of the Elector, and that much notice had been taken of the Compliment he made to his Electoral Highness on that occasion, which he begun with this Expression, The Greatest Monarch of the Universe Salutes you. The Letters add, that according to all appearance that Prince will prefer the Marriage proposed between him and the Archdutchess of Austria, before that with the Duke of Otleance's Daughter; though he be content to give his Sister to the Dauphin. It is said that in case Monsieur Colbert succeed not in both those Negotiations, he has orders to go to Prague to make an Overture of a Marriage between the Dauphin and the Emperors Daughter.

Brussels, Decemb. 8. The Governor of Bravo having lately seized 6000 Gilders, in the ordinary passage Boat of Meurs, designed for the Payment of the Garrison at Maastricht, alledging the same to be Contrebande, the States General have sent orders to their Resident here, to demand the restitution of the said Moneys, declaring that they shall be otherwise obliged to do themselves justice by way of Reprizal. From Liege of the 6th instant they write, that the French Troops which were quartered in the Archbishoprick of Cologne and the Dutchy of Fuliers, were marching thither; and that they intended to pass the Muse at Chimay, where they had ordered a Bridge to be made; but that in the mean time Monsieur Calvo had written to the Chancellor of Liege, to let him know, that he would stop the march of the said Troops, and would quarter them in the Suburbs of that City, if they did not speedily satisfy the Arréars of Contributions; which had extremely allarmied those Magistrates, who were endeavouring to raise Monies for the complying with Monsieur Calvo's demand, though