There are now 18 places vatant in the Colledge of Cardinals.

Madrid, December 14. The 30 paft their Majeties arrived at Guadalajara; and the next day came O Torrejon, the Queen Mother, who arrived there ome time before, went from her Apartment, to meet them; the King no fooner faw her, but he ran to her, embrac d her, and killed her hand, the Queen dvancing at the fame time likewise to kifsher hand, which the Queen Mother would not permit, and embraced her with great tendernefs, treating her with the Stile of Majelly. Being come into the Palace, the Queen took the Queen-Mothers hand by force, and killed it feveral tim s, praying her to treat her as her Daughter. Then the Queen-Mother porc iving that the Queen was withont a Muff, the gave her hers, on which was a Knot of Diamonds, and then tyed about her Wrift a Bracelet worth 2000 Piftols, inflead of a Ribon fhe took thence. The next day their Majefties came to the Buen Retiro (one of the Royal Palaces at the end of this Town) amidif the acclamations of the people, who flocked thither to fee them. The Preparali-ons for her Majefties publick Entry into this place, are ordered to be finished against the 22 instan, and if they cannot, that Solemnity will be deferred till after Chriftmafs. The Queen will not make her Entry on Horfeback, as was at first intended, because it is believed the is with Child. Don Emanuel de Lyra, has taken possession of his Place of Secretary of State for Italy.

Genoua, Dec. 20. The Senate has refolved to fend an Envoy to France, to reprefent to that Court the reasons which obliged them to deny the French Gall'es a room in their Arfendl. It is much feared that Ca/al will at last fall into the hands of the French, no body now doubting but that the Duke of Mantoua has fold it to them; for we have feen here a Copy of the Infrument made between them on that occasion. In the mean time the flate of Venice, and that of Milan, are Arming, being refolved, as is faid, to hinder the French from being Masters of that important place.

Marfeilles, Dec. 19. The Chevalier de Nodičes is returned hither with the 8 French Gallies under his command from Genoua, that Senate having not thought fit to permit them to winter in their Arfenal. The Sicur d'Opede will fail in few days with 8 other Gallies to try the Senate once more in this matter. The Corfairs of Tripoli have taken a French Merchant Ship laden with Merchandifes to the valug of roo thouland Crowns.

Prague, Dec. 23. This place, God be thanked, continues in very good health. The Emperor has refolved to raife this Winter leveral Reguments of Horfe and Foot; and Count Starenberg is lent with 50000 Gilders to Philipsburg, to fee that place put into a perfect condition of defence.

Copenhagen, Dec. 19. The King of Sueden we hear has granted feveral great Privileges to the City of Landferoon, making it a free Staple, and cxempting the Inhabitants from paying Excife, and other laxes, and from Quartering of Soldiers, Gec. That King has caufed a Placaet to be published, promising Pardon to fuch of his Subjects that deferted his fervice during the War, as shall now return into it. Our King is going to reduce his Forces.

Strasburg, Dec. 26. The French make great Levies in thele parts, as if they were entring into fome great War. And at the fame time they work hard on the Fortifications of Hunningen. And Monficur Vaubun the great Ingineer is arrived at Homburg, to add new Fortifications to that place.

Francfort, Dec. 31. The French are raising meri here, and the Commilfaries that are employed therein tell us, that they expect Orders to go on more vigoroully with these Levies then yet they have done. From Augsburg we have Letters, giving an account, that the Duke of Hanotter, who arrived there in his way to Italy, died very fuddenly on the 28 past.

denly on the 28 pail. Liege, Jan. 2. The French have quite quitted Verniers, Huy, Vifet, and feveral other places in this Country.

Bruffels, Fans 3. Some days fince his Excellen⁵ cy fent feveral Troops to quarter in Chicure, 4 place belonging to this Government, to prevent the French quartering there, of which Monffeur Calvd having notice, he fent to the Spanish Commander to r quire him to retire with his Troops, which he did accordingly, and the French entred into the place. We are told that his Excellency has received affurances from Spain of his continuing in this Government for fome time longer. Yefferday the young Prince of Ofnabrug paffed, through this place on his way to Paris. From Alface we have an ac-count, that the French bave finithed the Canal between Kastenboltz and Seble (tadt, which will be of greatule to them; and that the fuccels of this Work has put them upon a delign of turning a Branch of the Rhine by Brifae; that Monlieur Fauban the Frey ch Ingineer is by the Kings command gone to Hombulg to begin the Fortifications there, and from thence he is to go and visit all the places on the Saar, to fee if any are fit so be fortified. That the French Ling
