

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday February 5. to Monday February 9. 1679

Tangier, Dec. 18.

THE Alcaide of Alcazar is gone to Fez, to make the King a great Present; it is given out, that he intends to visit us again, which makes Vice Admiral Herbert continue ashore with his 400 men, who work on the new Fortifications that are making, to the great relief and encouragement of the Garrison.

Tangier, Jan. 6. We have had very bad weather for a week past, the Seas battering the Mole with great violence, but God be thanked, though that work be yet imperfect, in respect of what is designed for its further security, we find no cause to fear the least Damage, the great Chells standing like so many Rocks. The Enemy hath given us little or no Trouble since we beat them off in November. Some single shot now and then they make out of our old Line at stragling Soldiers, but without effect. Vice Admiral Herbert is still ashore with his men.

Madrid, Jan. 18. The 13th instant the Queen made her publick Entry, which she did on Horseback. About 11 a Clock her Majesty came from the Buen Retiro. The Trumpets and Timbals lead the way, then followed the Alcaides of the Court, and other Officers, the Knights of several Orders, then the Gentlemen of the Kings Household and other Persons of Quality, then the Grandees, having all very rich Equipages, then the Queens Squires on Foot, then came the Queen, who had on her right hand the Count de Villamoina, Master of her Horse, and about her, her Pages of Honor; Then followed the Dutchess of Terranova, her Camerara Mayor, and Dona Laura d'Alagon, Governess of the Majds of Honour, both on Horses, and in the dress of Widows then the Majds of Honour, each between two of their nearest Relations on Horse-back, the whole being cloied by the Kings Guards. As her Majesties coming into the Town she was received by the Corrigidor, and the other Magistrates, being habited after the manner of the old Castilians, who presented her Majesty with the keys, and from thence to the Palace carried a canopy over her. In her way thither her Majesty passed under several Triumphal Arches, was entertained with Musick and a short Commedy, which she stopt to see. The Streets were richly adorned with Tapestry, &c, and the King (who with the Queen Mother had stood in a Balconie to see the whole Procession) received her at her arrival at the Pallace, her Majesty having been first at St. Maries Church, where she heard Te Deum, and was received by the Cardinal de Porto Carero.

Venice, Jan. 20. The apprehensions this Senate as well as other Princes of Italy has, that there are Designs on Foot which may disturb its Peace, has put them upon adding several new Fortifications to Crema, which is one of the Frontier places of this State towards the Milanese. Signieur Ciurano our new Ambassador to the Grand Signior, arrived at Constantinople the 23 of November last, from whence we are expecting the return of Signior Morofini. The 17th Instant the Duke of Mantoua parted hence on his return for Mantoua.

Genoua, Jan. 24. The 20th Instant arrived here the Centurion and Nonsuch Frigats, which have been so long expected, in 19 days from Allicant; in their way hither they stopt at Majorca and Mimorca, but have not been at Oran, as was said. It is now again very warmly reported that Casal will very suddenly be put into the hands of the French, and that the French Galleys which were lately here had part of the moneys on Board that are to be paid the Duke of Mantoua on that account.

Munick, Jan. 27. Yesterday the Duke de Croqui arrived here, and some hours after had Audience of Prince Maximilian, Administrator of the Electorate, of the Elector, and of the Princess his Sister, to whom he delivered the Nuptial Presents on the part of the King and Dauphin. To morrow the Marriage will be solemnized, and the Elector will perform the Ceremony in the Name of the Dauphin.

Hamburg, February 2. The French, it's said, are like to effect their purpose, of making a strict Alliance with the two Northern Crowns, in which the Ambassador of that Crown at Copenhagen labors very earnestly. The Sieur Hough the Danish Ambassador is now here; he goes first for Holland, and from thence for France, where he is to Reside. Count Conningsmarke is in a day or two expected back from Bremen. The City of Straelsund hath sent Deputies to him hither, to pray his Interposition with the King of Sweden in their behalf. From Boxhoeede we have advice, that the Lunenburg Troops in those quarters have received Orders to put themselves into a readines to March; which we cannot learn the occasion of.

Paris, Feb. 7. On Wednesday arrived here a Gentleman from Munick, who brought the Contract of the Marriage between the Dauphin and the Princess of Bavaria, and an account that the Ceremony of the said Marriage was performed there the 28th past, the young Elector being the Dauphins Proxy, that Monsieur Colbert intended to part thence the day following, and that the Princess would begin her journey the 5th instant, would be at Strasburg the 20th and the next day at Sleesbats. The 21th instant Signior Foscarini, Ambassador from the Republick of Venice, made his publick entry here, being accompanied by the Marechal de Grancey and Sieur de Bonneil; the sixth he had his publick Audience, to which he was conducted by the Marechal d'Estrades, and the Sieur de Bonneil. The Duke of Luxemburg continues a Prisoner at Vincennes, where it's said he has been confronted with some persons who accuse him.