CHE affair of Cafal begins now to be the main Sub, ect of discourse in these parts, and that with good reafon, for every body that understands any thing concludes that the Princes of Italy will never endure that so important a place, and in which they are all fo much concerned, should fall into the hands of the French, and confequently that if the French require the execution of the Treaty, they have, it is faid, made with the Duke of Mantona (who does not however as yet own it) it will inevitably bring a War into Italy. In Milan they feem to be preparing for it; the Governor has lately received a supply of money from Spain, from whence he likewile expects Soldiers, and others from Naples and Sicily; though it is to be doubted that these preparations are not answerable to those the French make. The French Ambaffador at this Court has defired leave to fend a confiderable quantity of Corn to Pignerol, for the use of that Garison, which has been granted him.

Ratubonne, Feb: 29. Monfieur Verjus the French Minister has not yet had his publick Audience of the Dyet, by reason of some dispute concerning his Credentials, which are not, it fems, in that Form or Stile that the States think they ought to bç, and on this occasion some high words have pas-fed, though to no great purpole. In the mean time the Imperial Commissioner has had private Conferences with Monfieur Verjus upon the feveral Complaints that have been made to the Dyet concerning the French Contraventions of the late Peace, who, in most of the particulars, has endeavoured to juilifie the proceedings of that Crown as jultand warrantable by the Treaties; and for the others he has promifed to reprefent them to the King his Malter: But we have little reafon to expect any great effect thereof, when every day brings in fresh Complaints of the same kind, especially from Alface, where the French let up, from time to time, new pretentions upon places which they fay depend upon that Country, whereof they are now possefied of the Dominion.

Prague, March 2. The Marquis de Grana, defigned Ambaffador from this Court to Spain, will, before he begins his journey thither, go to the Electors Palatine of Mentz and Trier, to reprefent to them the Emperor's Sentiments on the prefent poffure of Affairs in Chriftendom, and the apprehenfions the Empire may juftly have of the defigns of France, which by what it has done, and is ftill doing in Alface as well as elfewhere, may well be helieved to be preparing for a new War, and to know their thoughts thereupon, and what they judge fittelt to be done for the featuring the Peace of Germany. It is added that the faid Marquis has likewife Order's to let them know that the Emperor had very much defired a perfonal meeting with the feveral Electors and Princes of the Empire at Ratiobonne, or fome other convenient place, but that perceiving they do decline it, he does defire they will fend their Deputies who may meet and Confult together for the common good. From Hungary we have an account that General Strafoldo has granted the Malecontents a Ceffation of Arms, and has affigned them Quarters for their Troops, upon condition the Emperor does ratifie the fame. It is the wilh of most people that matters might be accommodated in that Kingdom, that fo the Imperial Troops which are now employed there might be at leafure to act elsewhere, if there shall be occasion.

Copanbagen, March 4. The Sicur Guldenstern, the Suedes Ambaffador, has, fince his being here, had feveral private Conferences with the French Ambaffador, not without giving fome Ombrage to this Court. We are informed likewife that his Excellency demands that Wifmar be evacuated by the Danes, and reflored to the King his Mafter, before the Confummation of the Marriage, which it's believed will be confented to by the King of Denmark, who, according to all appearance feems refolved to live with the King of Sueden in that perfect Friendship and good Correspondence which is reeffabilihed between them by the Peace, and so happily Confirmed by this new Alliance of Marriage. The faid Ambaffador has had a private Audience of the Queen Mother, and of the Princels, who is now treated with the Stile of Majeffy, as Queen of Sueden.

Copenhagen, March ς . The day is not yet fixed for the Queen of Suedens Journey, the has been for fome days indifpoled, but is at prefent pretty well again. Two days fince the Sieur Guldenhieu entertained the whole Court at a very noble Dinner; It is faid, he is to be General of all the Kings Forces. Here have been feveral reports of diffurbances in Sueden, which prove without any ground, though what was faid of the King of Sueden's having refumed the alienated Grown-Lands is confirmed, and that the Revenues thereof are to be applied to the maintenance of the Army which the King intends to keep conftantly on Foot.

Berlin, March 6. This Court is very well pleafed with the news of the French having quitted Wefel, which fome were almost of opinion, they would not have done; confidering how matters fland between that Crown and the States-General of the United-Provinces, who without doubt, are likewite very well fatisfied to be rid of fuch neighbors. Our Elector continues very much indifpofed with the Gost. He has, as we are informed, lately received a very kind Letter from the King of England, from whom an Envoye Extraordinary is coming hither, and its faid he will be here very fuddainly. Our Elector has a great inclination to rTrade and Shipping, and has formed a defign of making himfelf ar confiderable by Sea as he is by Land, by means of the two Ports he has. Memel, ard
