

General having writ to the several Provinces to communicate to them the advice of the Council of State concerning the building 36 Men of War, and the demand they made of Money for that service; the States of Holland have approved the same, and have resolved forthwith to raise their Proportion of the Sum required. The States of Holland have likewise agreed to the State of the War for this present year, as it has been formed by the Prince of Orange and the Council of State, without making any alteration therein. Notwithstanding all the instances of the Cologne Minister, the States are resolved not to part with Maftrycke and Hasselt, till they have satisfaction from that Elector, which is a matter that may occasion some difference between them, and the rather for that the Prince of Orange has sent orders to the Garrisons in those places, to summon in the neighbouring Country to pay their Arrears of Contributions, and in default thereof to proceed to Military execution. And on the other side the Elector of Cologne, to whom those places belong, as Bishop of Liege, has commanded his Subjects not to pay the said Contributions; and that in case Force be employed against them, they do resist the same with Force. The Lord Bodmyn, the King of England's Envoy Extraordinary to Denmark, has since his arrival here waited upon the Prince, and received the Visits of most of the Foreign Ministers; and it's believed his Lordship will in a day or two pursue his journey to Copenhagen. The Princess of Orange has been very ill of the Chollick, but her Highness is at present much better, and in a fair way of recovery. Lieutenant-General Spaen continues still here to solicit the payment of the Arrears of Subsidies, which the Elector of Brandenburg his Master, pretends to be due to him from this State.

Pennennis, March 22. On Saturday last a small Vessel bound for France, sailed from hence, but is since come again into Port, having, as the Master reports, been chased by three great Ships, which he supposes to be Algerines.

Falmouth, March 22. Yesterday arrived in this Port a Ketch, who came from Dublin, the Master reports, that on Saturday last, off of the Lizard, he was chased by three Turks Men of War, but that by keeping close to the shoar, he escaped them, and that afterwards meeting with some English Vessels, he gave them notice thereof, who thereupon put into the first Port they could make. But this day came in a small Vessel from Wales, the Master says, that several Vessels came out in his company, and that they were beating it two days between the Lands-end and the Lizard, the Wind at East, before they could get into this Port, and that they neither saw nor heard of any Turks Men of War. Yesterday past by this place a great Fleet of Merchant Ships to the Westward.

Plymouth, March 23. This day His Majesties Ship the Ruby, put into this Port, to take such Merchant Ships, as were here, under her Convoy; but came not to an Anchor, making the best of her way. The Leopard and Forefight are hourly expected.

Deale, March 25. This day arrived in the Downes from the River of Thames, the Williamson, Captain Basse Commander, the Foanna Captain Bendal, and the Lancaster Captain Goodland, all three bound for Suratte.

Deale, March 27. Yesterday the three East India Ships sailed out of the Downes, the Wind at N. N. E.

Whitehall, March 27. George Speke Esq; Mr. Jofias Anstis, Mr. Richard Johnson, Mr. Samuel Key, and Mr. Henry Key, of Somerfetshire, attending the Council this day upon an Accusation of dangerous and seditious Words, by them spoken, tending to the disturbance of the Peace and Quiet of His Majesties Government; and being heard as to their defence thereunto, it was ordered that Mr. Speke and the other persons abovementioned do give in good security to appear and answer to such information as shall be exhibited against them for the said Offences by His Majesties Attorney-General, who is ordered to prosecute them.

Mr. Rog and Mr. Tily of Bristol, who were some time since sent for up by order of the Board for seditious Words, and dismissed upon their giving security for their good behaviour, upon a fresh Information that has been given in against them for words by them spoken since their discharge, are again sent for up.

Advertisements.

Atlas Cælestis: Containing the Systems

and Theories of the Planets, the Constellations of the Stars, and other Phenomena's of the Heavens, with necessary Tables relating thereto. Collected by John Seller, and are Sold at his Shop in Popes-head-Alley in Lincoln.

Whereas several Notices have been given, That Articles of Agreement, are settled by Learned Council, between Mr. J. Staley and his Creditors; to which the major part of the said Creditors have already Sealed, and the said Mr. Staley is ready to perform his part of the said Articles. These are to give farther notice, that there will be a general Meeting of the said Creditors, on Thursday the 8th of April next, at two of the clock in the afternoon, at the Rose Tavern without Temple-Bar, where all his Creditors that have not yet Sealed the Articles, may by themselves or others Authorized by Letters of Attorney from them, Seal the same.

Upon Tuesday the 23 of this instant March, about 4 of the clock in the afternoon, four Rogues set upon a Gentleman and his man upon Broad-way Hill, and Robbed them of one large bay Gelding, with a star in his forehead, and his hind-feet white; And also a Mare about 4 years old, above 14 hands, of a yellowish colour, her main half thorn, and the hair off of her heels. The Rogues were marked as followeth, One of them a tall man with a flaxen Perriwig, and two blew spots on one hand, made with Gunpowder (and it is supposed the like spots may be on the other hand.) Another of them was a grim lookt fellow, disfigured with the Small-pox, brown hair, and a flat mouth: The third wore a Perriwig, with and whiskers on his lips. The fourth a man of a low stature, a grey hat, and a short perriwig; one of them is shot in the thigh. Whoever gives notice of the said Persons or Horses to Mr. Philip Hodges of Broad-way at the Sign of the White Hart, or to Mr. Henry Fryer at his house in Round Court in the Strand, shall have Five pounds for their Reward.

The Cibartique and Dreuxetique Pills, invented by Doctor William Sermon, whereby his Grace the late Duke of Albemarle was cured of the Dropick, 1669. are since the decease of the said Doctor, prepared only by his Widow Mrs. Editha Sermon, (with whom only he left the Receipt and Secret thereof) and may be had at her house, where the Doctor lived and died, being the Two Black Pests in East-barding-Street, between Shore-Lane and Fetter-Lane; and from Mr. Edward Thomas Bookseller at the Adam and Eve in Little Britain, London.

William Neale, aged about 24 years, middle stature, thin faced, langk brown hair, having been scalded on one side of his throat, in a close brown Suit, and girt with a russet-leather Girdle, and being a little light-headed, went away from his Fathers house at Shrenbam near Highbornth in the Valle of White-horse in the County of Berks, on Sunday the 21 instant in the evening, as is supposed towards London. Whoever can give notice where he is to Mrs. Bryan at the George at Holborn-bridge, or to his Father at Shrenbam aforesaid, shall be well rewarded.