Venice, March. 23.

Prince Radzeville the Polish Ambassador has not as yet performed his Quarantine. But as we are informed his Excellency reports that the Poles and Moscovites have resolved to joyn their Arms against the Turks. The Sieur Sarotti Resident for this State in England having very earnestly desired leave to returne home, the State hath granted him his request, and a Pension to his Son, but upon condition he continue in his Employment till the arrivall of his Successor.

Prague, March 27. Count Lamberg, the Emperors Envoye to the Elector of Brandenburg, began his journey two days since; and the Prince of Baden is appointed by the Emperor to go to the Elector of Saxony, and from thence to the Princes of Lunenburg, and in his return, to call upon the Electors of Cologne, Trier, Ments, Palatine, and Bavaria, to know their sentiments, upon the present conjunction of affairs.

Frankfort, April. 4. The Marquis de Bareith of the House of Brandenburg having formerly raised a Regiment of Horse for the Emperor, and being since disbanded though he had kept it at his own charge, has taken to great dissatisfaction thereat, that he has accepted of a Commission of Colonell of Horse in the French service, which Monsieur Verjus the French Minister at Ratisbonne lately delivered to him.

Straßburg, April, 5. The Sieur Vauban, the French Engineer, is come again into these parts to visit the new Fortifications, which are carried on with all the diligence possible. The French are preparing to quit Lutzelstein. They Fortifie Nancy, which they say will be made one of the strongest places in Europe.

Copenhagen, March 27. The Treaty concerning the evacuation of Wismar is not yet concluded; however, it is believed the Marriage will be consummated about the middle of the next Month.

Hamburg, March 31. It is strongly reported here, that the Northern Crowns have accepted the Alliance proposed by France, which most people do not however give credit to, especially as for Denmark. The Queen of Sweden leaves Copenhagen the 5th or 6th of May, and will be received at Helmsstadt by the King of Sweden on the 9th. The King of Denmark is coming into Holstein, which gives this City new Umbrage. On Saturday last arrived here Sir Robert Southwell, Envoye Extraordinary from the King of England to the Elector of Brandenburg, he was received by Sir Peter Wyche, His Majesty's Minister here, and by Samuel Missenden Esq; the Deputy and the rest of the Company of Merchant-Adventurers residing here, with great Civilities and Respects, and is this day entertained by them at the English House. The Senate has Complimented him by their Deputies, and made him the usual Present of Wines, and on Thursday he continues his journey to Berlin.

Cologne, April 5. The House of the Dean of this Cathedral is preparing for the reception of Prince William of Furstemberg, who is expected here in few days from Paris. People discourse variously concerning his coming hither. Both French and Spanish Officers are making Levies in these parts. There are Letters from Liege which say, that the French pretend to the Lands lying between the Sambre and the Meuse, which belong to the Chapter of Liege, as being a dependance on Charlemont.

Cologne, April. 9. The Dutchess Dowager of Honour arrived here two days since; the report that was spread abroad of her being with Child, proves a mistake, as her own Servants declare. The Prince of Furstemberg is expected at Liege before he comes hither, where he will it is said endeavor to dispose that Chapter to leave Dinant in the hands of the French, who in consideration thereof will assist them to recover Hasselt and Maseycke from the Dutch. From Prague we have an account of new disturbances among the Boors in Bohemia, who they say have got several reformed Officers among them, and that the Emperor had ordered a Regiment of Horse to march to quell them.

Hague, April, 11. The States of Holland have agreed to the raising of 1045000 Gülders, to build the 18 Men of War which are designed to be finished this year, but as for the way of doing it, they are not yet come to any Resolution, and according to all probability it will take up much of their time the next week, when they are to separate till the latter end of the next Month. The West-India Company have made their report to the States General concerning the improving the Island of Tobago into a Plantation. The Envoy of the Elector Palatine, is to have an Audience to morrow of the States General, whom it is said he has orders to press very earnestly to pay the arrears of Subsidies they owe to the Emperor, upon which the Elector His Master has an Assignment. The Minister of this State at Stockholm writes that he had not yet been able to exchange the Rati-fications of the Treaty of Peace and Compromise between that Crown and this care. The Prince of Orange is now so well recovered that he begins to go abroad.

Salop, March 25. The Grand Inquest for this County, at the Assizes held here, presented to the Judges the following Declaration, subscribed by them,

WE whose Names are hereunto subscribed, His Majesty's most Loyal and most Dutiful Subjects, being sworn upon the Grand Inquest, at the Assizes held for the said County of Salop, upon the 24th day of March 1679. do in this juncture of Affairs, and out of
