As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

Dublin-Castle, May 22, 1798.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Castlereagh acquainted the House of Commons, that he had a Message from His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant to that House, signed by His Excellency; and he presented the same to the House, which was read by Mr. Speaker, and is as follows:

C A M D E N,

I AM to acquaint the House of Commons that in Consequence of the Disorders which have taken Place in the neighbouring Counties and of the Preparations which appeared to be making by the Disaffected in this Metropolis and its Vicinity, the Magistrates thought it proper to apply to the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council to place the City under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, more effectually to suppress Insurrections and prevent the Disturbance of the public Peace: This application has been complied with, and I am now, with the utmost Concern, to inform the House of Commons, that I have received Information that the Disaffected have been daring enough to form a Plan for the Purpose of possessing themselves, in the Course of the present Week, of the Metropolis, of seizing the Seat of Government, and those in Authority within the City. In consequence of this Information, I have directed every Military Precaution to be taken, which seemed expedient. I have made full Communication to the Magistracy for the Direction of their Efforts, and I have no Doubt, that by the Measure which will be pursued, the Designs of the Rebellious will be effectually and entirely crushed.

I have taken the earliest Opportunity of making this Communication, and have the fullest Confidence that I shall be supported by the Commons, in such Measures as shall be necessary finally to suppress the Rebellious Conspiracy which exists in this Kingdom.

C.

In consequence of which the following Resolutions were unanimously agreed to by the House of Commons, who immediately, with their Speaker, proceeded on Foot to the Castle, and presented them to His Excellency.

Resolved.

That an humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to return His Excellency our sincere Thanks for the Message he has sent this Day to the House.

The Intelligence it communicates fills us with Indignation and Horror, whilst it rouses in us a Spirit of determined Resolution and Energy.

We

We rely upon the Vigilance and Vigour of His Excellency's Government, which, we trust, will continue unabated, till the Conspiracy, which so fatally exists, be utterly dissolved. Sensible of the Danger which surrounds us, we are fully prepared to meet it under His Excellency's Auspices; and we feel assured that his successful Efforts in the Cause of our Sovereign and the Constitution will soon be crowned with universal Gratitude, not only from the Loyal, who have stood their Ground with Firmness, but from the Deluded, who have been traitorously seduced.

To which the Lord Lieutenant returned the following Answer:

The Manner in which the House of Commons has expressed it's Approbation of my Conduct calls for Expressions, on my Part, to which no Language I can use is equal. The Wisdom, the Firmness, and the Spirit which have been manifested, during the whole of the eventful Period, by the House of Commons, and the peculiar Promptitude, Alacrity, and Unanimity, which have been evinced, must tend, in the most effectual Manner, to crush Rebellion, and to save the State.

A Message to the same Effect having been sent by the Lord Lieutenant to the House of Lords, their Lordships voted the following Address, with similar Demonstrations of Unanimity and Zeal, and presented it to His Excellency in the same Manner.

We cannot repress our indignant Emotions at those desperate Designs which have been communicated to us, nor sufficiently applaud the Vigilance and Vigour which are exerted to defeat them. With firm and collected Resolution we express a full Confidence that His Excellency will proceed in His Measures with unrelaxed Effort; we engage to him our full Support, strengthened by the increased Activity of the Loyal, and the Repentance of the Deluded. The well-directed Force of Government, cannot fail to extinguish the Conspiracy which disgraces the Kingdom; and His Excellency will soon reap the Fruits of his unremitting Attention to public Safety in the Approbation of His Sovereign, and in the Gratitude of the People.

To which His Excellency returned the following Answer:

Your Approbation of the Measures I have taken, so ardently, immediately, and unanimously conveyed, afford me the highest Gratification: You cannot doubt of my vigorous Perseverance in what you have approved; nor can I hesitate as to the speedy Success of those Efforts, which are so warmly seconded by the Energy of the Legislature, and by the loyal Spirit which is so conspicuously and generally displayed.
