AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th of May, 1798,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 6th Day of December last, for prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, or Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 7th Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer: His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, (except the Master General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the 7th Day of June next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder or Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties, inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition."—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th of May, 1798,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 6th Day of December last, prohibiting the Transportation into any Parts out of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum-Vitæ, will expire upon the 10th Day of June next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command; that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 10th Day of June next, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum-Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed, in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and settlements or

on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum-Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum-Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum-Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum-Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sir Richard John Strachan, Bart. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Diamond, off Havre, June 2, 1798.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inclose a Letter from Sir Francis Laforey, Captain of His Majesty's Ship Hydra, detailing the Particulars of a very gallant Action in the Ship he commands, with the French Frigate La Constance, and Vefuve, a Corvette, both of which were forced on Shore, together with a Cutter that accompanied them. I must add, that the whole of this Affair reflects the highest Honor upon Sir Francis Laforey, the Officers, and Ship's Company of the Hydra.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

R. J. STRACHAN.

SIR, Hydra, off Havre, June 1, 1798.

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that on the Morning of the 30th Ult. His Majesty's Ship under my Command being off Havre, with the Vefuvius Bomb and Trial Cutter, carrying into Execution the Orders I had the Honor to receive from you on the 28th. at Break of Day Three Sail were discovered to Windward, which, upon the Hydra drawing up within Gun-Shot, hoisted French Colours, and proved to be a Frigate, a Corvette, and a Cutter.

The Corvette being the Leewardmost, commenced the Action as the two Ships passed on different Tacks. Upon the Hydra being put about, she pitched up in a Position nearly equal Distance between the two, when the Frigate opened the Fire. In about a Quarter of an Hour the Cutter bore away, and run ashore under a Prés of Sail near a small Battery off the Entrance of Dieu River; floating with the rising Tide, she attempted to proceed further down towards Caen, but, upon the Approach of the Ve-svivius and Trial, was compelled again to run on Shore.

The Frigate endeavoured to regain the Port of Havre, but, after engaging His Majesty's Ship Three Quarters of an Hour, she likewise ran on Shore, at the Time of high Water, a little to the Eastward of Dieu, where she sustained the Fire of His Majesty's Ship, with little Return on her Part, till the falling of the Tide rendered it necessary for our own Safety that we should haul off Shore. A Number of Troops having formed on the Beach and adjoining Heights, I could not attempt to board her that Evening with any Prospect of Success; but on the Morning of the 31st, perceiving that a great Part of her Crew had left her, I sent the Boats of His Majesty's Ship, under Cover of the Trial Cutter, whilst the Tide was sufficiently high to enable the Hydra to approach within Gun-Shot for Protection, to haul down her Colours and burn her; which I have the Pleasure to state was completely achieved without any Loss on our Part, such as remained on board having abandoned her upon the Approach of the Trial and the Boats, and which was the more satisfactory, as it was effected in the Face of a Party of Cavalry drawn up on the Beach, and amidst a small, though ineffectual, Fire of Musketry from the Military on the commanding Heights. The Corvette having grounded very high upon the Beach, and being within the Range of a Battery of Two Twenty four Pounders, nothing could be attempted towards destroying her; during the Night she was hauled into the River of Dieu; the Cutter ran on Shore on the Action commencing: These Ships had sailed from Havre on the Night of the 29th; the Frigate was named La Constance, mounted 36 Guns, Twelve-Pounders, was full of Stores, and had Ordnance in her Hold; she was commanded by Monsr. Leorier, and by a Note D'Equippage found on board, appears to have been manned with 300 Men; the Number of slain left on board, and the State of the Decks, leads me to suppose her Loss in killed and wounded was severe. The Corvette was named Le Vefuve, mounted 20 Nine-Pounders, and was commanded by a Monsieur L'Eutier. I am truly happy at having it in my Power to inform you, that the Hydra escaped without Loss; her Rigging was much cut, and her Mainmast wounded, but not badly. It is with peculiar Satisfaction I report the steady Conduct of the Officers and Crew of His Majesty's Ship I have the Honor to command; from Lieutenant Jones and Mr. Pickering, the Master, I experienced Co-operation; the Judgment and active Gallantry exhibited by Lieutenants Acklom and Simonds, and Lieutenant Blanch, of the Marines, who commanded the boarding Party, reflects the highest Credit upon them; and I beg Leave to express my perfect Approbation of the Exertions displayed by Captain Fitzgerald, of the Vefuvius, and Lieutenant Garrett, of the Trial, to support the Hydra.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

FRA. LAFOREY.

THE Letter and Attestation, of which the following are Translations, having been humbly submitted to His Majesty by the undermentioned Officers

Officers, who served in the Detachment of His Majesty's 15th Regiment of Light Dragoons at the Action near Cambray on the 24th of April, 1794, His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant to each of them His Majesty's Royal Permission to wear the Medals conferred on them by the Emperor of Germany, in Testimony of the high Sense entertained by His Imperial Majesty of their distinguished Conduct upon that Occasion.

TRANSLATION of a Letter from Baron Thugut to Lieutenant-Colonel Aylett.

S I R, Vienna, March 5, 1798.
THE Emperor remembers, with Satisfaction, the distinguished Proofs of Valour that you, Sir, and Seven other Officers of the 15th Light Dragoons manifested on the 24th of April, 1794, near Cambray. His Majesty regrets that the Statutes of the Order of Maria Therefe, confirmed by constant Custom, do not allow the Crofs of this Order, strictly National, to be conferred on Officers so worthy of being decorated with it; but wishing at the fame Time to give you and your honorable Companions in Arms, a publick Mark of his particular Esteem, His Majesty has ordered a Medal to be struck to perpetuate the Remembrance of this brilliant Action, and has commanded me to offer them, in His Name, the only Impressions which have been struck, except that which is placed in the Imperial Cabinet of Vienna. In fulfilling the Intention of His Imperial Majesty, I beg you to accept for yourself, Sir, and to distribute to the other Officers who, in the important Affair of the 24th of April, 1794, fought under your Command, these Medals, which for that Purpose I have delivered to Captain Ryan. I have the Honor to add the Assurances of the Consideration with which I have the Honor to be,

S I R,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

Le Bn Thugut.

To Lieut. Col. Aylett.

ATTESTATION of Major-General Count Merfeld.

Vienna, Dec. 20, 1797.

THE 15th Light Dragoons charged the Enemy on the 24th of April, 1794, who were in great Force at Villers en Couché, routed, and sabred a great many; and by this Conduct rescued His Imperial Majesty from the Danger that menaced his Person, who being on the Road from Valenciennes to Catillon, was cut off by the Patroles of the Enemy, as His Majesty on that Day was returning from Bruffels to the Army, and the Enemy's Patroles had already passed the River Selle.

The courageous Conduct of this Regiment, animated by it's brave Officers, is so much the more meritorious, as the main Column of the Allied Army did not arrive to it's Support; but this gallant Regiment, abandoned to itself, relied on it's own Valour, attacked the Enemy, so much stronger, and whose Bravery alone prevented the melancholy Consequences above stated; and, not content with that, they took from the Enemy, who were so much more numerous, Three Pieces of Cannon.

(Signed)

Major-General.

A Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, has been received from His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland by his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Dublin Castle, June 4, 1798.

My Lord,

Yesterday a Dispatch was received from Major-General Loftus, conveying Information from Lieutenant Elliott, of the Antrim Militia, that the Troops in Gorey, consisting of Thirty of the Antrim Militia, a subaltern Detachment of the North Cork, the Gorey Yeomen Cavalry, Ballykeer, and Part of the Camolin Cavalry, attacked the Rebels at Ballycanoe about Three o'Clock on the 1st Instant, defeated them, and killed above One Hundred of them.

I have the Satisfaction to inform your Grace that, the City remains tranquil. The Patience, the Spirit and continued Exertions of the Yeomanry are unequalled, and I cannot sufficiently applaud the indefatigable Zeal of Major-General Myers, who has undertaken the Arrangement of them with a Promptitude and Ability, which has been of the most essential Advantage.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

CAMDEN.

His Grace the Duke of Portland,
&c. &c. &c.

Dublin Castle, 5th June, 1798,
Five o'Clock, P. M.

MAJOR Marley is just arrived from Major-General Loftus, and brings an Account that the Major-General, finding that Colonel Walpole's Detachment had received a Check, thought it prudent to move to Carnew, which he effected without the Loss of a Man.

It appears that Colonel Walpole had met with the main Body of the Rebels in a strong Post near Slievebuy Mountain, and having attacked them, he was unfortunately killed by a Shot in the Head in the Beginning of the Action, when his Corps, being in a Situation where it could not act with Advantage, was forced to retire to Arklow. The Loss was Fifty-four Men killed and missing, and Two Six-Pounders. Captain Stark, Captain Armstrong, Captain Duncan were wounded, but not dangerously, and Sir Watkins William Wynne received a Contusion in the Hand.

DUCHY OF CORNWALL.

May 10, 1798.

THE Prince of Wales has been graciously pleased to signify his Commands to the Council of His Royal Highness, that Renewals of the Leasehold and Copyhold Estates of the Duchy of Cornwall shall pass, WITHOUT FINE, for replacing any Life or Lives that may happen to be lost thereon, in the Defence of the Country, in case of an Invasion.

GRAY and BIRCH, Clerks of the Council.

Whitehall, June 9, 1798.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of approaching your Throne, in order to express the Sentiments which we feel on Occasion of the arduous Contest in which this Nation is engaged with a neighbouring hostile Power.

During former Times of Tranquillity and Peace, the Ministers of this Church had always studied to confirm the People under their Charge in Principles of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to inspire them with Veneration for that happy Constitution, civil and sacred, with which we have long been blessed. Now, when the Day of Trial is come, it is with the utmost Satisfaction we behold the happy Effects of those Sentiments, which we have long endeavoured to instill. We behold the great Body of the People in this Country, united in zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Government; and in resolute Endeavours to defend their Antient Rights against every Invader. We have the Happiness of expressing to your Majesty our firm Persuasion that the Spirit of the Country is now fully roused among all Ranks of Men. They are sensible, that all that is sacred to them, as Christians, and dear to them as Men, is at Stake; and that in resisting their impious and outrageous Foes, they are not only defending a Sovereign whom they love and revere, and supporting a Constitution under which they have long been happy, but defending at the same Time their own Families, their Persons, and Property. We can assure your Majesty, that, on our Part, nothing shall be wanting to cherish these patriotic Dispositions, to stimulate the general Ardour in the Public Cause, and to promote every Measure, which the Wisdom of your Counsels shall deem necessary for the Security of the Realm.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the brilliant Successes with which it has pleased the Almighty already to bless your Arms in various Quarters. Trusting to that gracious Aid of Heaven, which has so often signally supported the British Throne, and defeated the Attempts of unjust and violent Enemies, we entertain the firmest Hopes that the insolent Menaces of our present Foes shall be completely baffled, and that an honourable and lasting Peace shall terminate the Contest in which your Majesty and the Nation are now engaged.

That the God of Battles may continue to bless your Majesty's Fleets and Armies; that he may speedily give a check to the Ambition and Anarchy of those tyrannical Rulers who have disturbed the Peace of so many surrounding Nations; that he may long preserve your Majesty's precious and important Life, and still encrease the Lustre and Prosperity of your Reign over a loyal and grateful People, shall ever be the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appoinment, by

William Taylor, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 22, 1798.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Leven.]

May it please Your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's most gracious Letter, to this Meeting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, was received with the highest Respect.

The full Confidence which Your Majesty is pleased to repose in the Wisdom of our Proceedings, and the renewed Assurances of your paternal Affection, are most endearing Testimonies of your Royal Favour, and fill our Minds with the warmest Gratitude to our beloved Sovereign.

The Persuasion your Majesty has condescended to express of the great Advantages which will result to your entire Kingdom, from the Deliberations of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, is a most powerful Incitement to us, in all our Proceedings, to conduct ourselves with that Gravity and Calmness, and that loyal Attachment to your sacred Person, and to cultivate that Love for the People committed to our Charge, and that Spirit of Christian Charity one towards another, which will best secure the Dignity of our Order, and give Authority to our Decisions.

Feeling as we do, the utmost Abhorrence of those loose Notions, both in Faith and Morality, which are the Disgrace of these Times; and animated by an ardent Zeal to counteract their pernicious Influence, we listen, with profound Reverence, to your Royal Recommendation; and shall steadily persevere in our Exertions for the Preservation of sound Doctrine, and for the Advancement of genuine Piety, and Practice of all Christian Duties, both Moral and Positive, in the humble Hope that we may thus prove the Means of averting the Displeasure of Almighty God, and of promoting the Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects, by contributing to the Maintenance of pure Religion, of good Government, and of social Order.

Your Majesty's Knowledge of the ardent Zeal of the Earl of Leven and Melvill, in the great Cause of Religion, and of his steady Regard for the Peace and Prosperity of the Church of Scotland, and the long and pleasing Experience we have had of his Fidelity in the Discharge of the Duties of that high and important Trust with which he is now invested, render the Re-Appointment of him to represent your Royal Person peculiarly acceptable to this Assembly.

Your Royal Donation for propagating Christian Knowledge in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, we receive as a continued Proof of your Majesty's paternal Concern for the spiritual as well as temporal Interests of your Subjects; and we shall study, by a wise and faithful Application of it, to promote the pious and benevolent Purpose for which it is granted.

We rely, with perfect Confidence, on the fresh Assurance of your Majesty's Determination to maintain and preserve the Church of Scotland in the complete Enjoyment of all its just Rights and Privileges. Deeply affected with the impressive Charge of our Sovereign, who, with paternal Affection, solemnly adjures us to reflect upon our sacred Obligations, we pledge ourselves to your Majesty that, through the help of God, we will, both conjointly and individually, fulfill all those various Duties, which the Well-being of the Establishment and the Interests of Civil Society and Religion, do, at this awful Moment, so forcibly demand.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may long preserve your sacred Person, direct your Councils, and crown your Undertakings with abundant Success; that he may bless our most gracious Queen; the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that there may never be wanting One of your Royal House to sit on the Throne of these Kingdoms to latest Ages; and that, after a long, useful, and happy Reign, you may exchange an Earthly, for a Heavenly Crown, are and shall be the sincere Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our presence, and at our Appointment, by

William Taylor, Moderator.
