THE Dispatches, of which the following are Copies, were received on the 17th Instant by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-Generals Coote and Burrard; no Opportunity to transmit them having occurred until the Return of Mr. Jobernes, by whom they were forwarded.

S I R,

Offend, June 23, 1798.

NOT having had it in my Power to send my Dispatches by my Aid-de-Camp, Captain Williamson, I take the Opportunity by Mr. Jobernes, the Staff-Surgeon, who was ordered to Ostend by His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

Esq. &c. &c.

*On a Ridge of Sand-Hills, three Miles to the East of Ostend,
May 19, 1798.*

SIR,

I Have the most sincere Satisfaction to acquaint you of the complete and brilliant Success attending the Expedition entrusted by His Majesty to the Care of Captain Popham, of the Royal Navy, and myself. The Squadron reached Ostend about One o'Clock this Morning.

The able and judicious Arrangements of Captain Popham, and great Exertions of himself, the Officers and Seamen under his Command, enabled us to disembark the Troops at the Place from which I have the Honor of dating this Dispatch; and from Captain Popham's local Knowledge, I gained such Information as very much removed the Difficulties we had to encounter on Shore, and contributed greatly to the Success of the Enterprize.

General Sir Charles Grey sent you, Sir, an Outline of the Disposition of the Troops, and of the Plans, previous to our sailing from Margate; these were carried into Execution, with a little Alteration, which I was obliged to make, in consequence of the whole of the Troops not having landed.

Soon after we disembarked, I detached Major-General Burrard, with Four Companies of Light Infantry of the Guards, the 23d and 49th Grenadiers, and Two Six-Pounders, to take Possession of the different Posts and Passes that it was necessary to occupy to enable us to carry our Plans into Execution. In effecting this he met with strong Opposition from a considerable Body of Sharp Shooters, who were gallantly repulsed with some Loss, and by a rapid March cut off from the Town of Ostend.

During the Time Lieutenant Brownrigg, of the Engineers, was employed in bringing up the Powder and other Materials to effect the Destruction of the Sluices of the Bruges Canal, the Troops were posted as follows: The Grenadiers of the 11th and 23d Regiments with Cannon, &c. at the Lower Ferry, to prevent the Enemy crossing from Ostend. A Detachment of Colonel Campbell's Company of the Guards, under the Command of Captain Duff, and the Grenadiers of the 49th Regiment, under the Command of Captain Lord Aylmer, at the Upper Ferry for the same Purpose. The Remainder of Colonel Campbell's, with three other Companies of the Guards, under the Command of Colonel Calcraft, at the Sluices and Country around, to cover the Operation.

The 11th Regiment on the South East Front, to secure a safe Retreat for the Troops, if pressed.

The Light Infantry Companies of the 11th and 23d Regiments, under Major Donkin, to cover the Village of Bredin, and extend to the Blankenburg Road near the Sea, as well as to co-operate with the 11th Regiment.

The greater Part of the 23d Regiment remained on board the Ships of War, stationed to the Westward of the Town, as well to divert the Enemy's Attention to that Point, as to land and spike the Cannon, should an Opportunity offer.

By the Time the Troops were properly posted, the necessary Materials were brought up to the Sluices, by the indefatigable Exertions and extraordinary good Conduct of Captains Winthrop, Bradby, and McKellar, and Lieutenant Bradby, of the Royal Navy, whose Services on Shore cannot be too highly praised.

Lieutenant Brownrigg, of the Royal Engineers, in about Four Hours made all his Arrangements, and completely destroyed the Sluices; his Mines having in every Particular the desired Effect; and the Object of the Expedition thereby attained; and which, I have the Satisfaction to add, was accomplished with the trifling Loss of only Five Men killed and wounded. Several Vessels of considerable Burthen were also destroyed in the Canal near the Sluices.

No Danger even for an Instant abated the Ardor of the Seamen and Soldiers.—To their Unanimity His Majesty and the Country are indebted for our Success.

No Language of mine can do Justice to the Forces employed upon this Occasion; and, as it is impossible to name each Individual, I beg Leave to state the great Exertions of a few.

To that excellent Officer, Major-General Burrard, I shall feel everlasting Obligation: To his Council, Exertions, and Ability, I am in a great Measure to attribute the Success of the Enterprize.

His Majesty's Guards, conspicuous upon all Occasions, on this Service have added to their former Laurels. To Colonel Calcraft, who commanded them; Colonels Cunningham and Campbell, of the same Corps; Major Skinner, of the 23d Regiment, commanding the Grenadiers; Major Donkin, of the 44th Regiment, commanding the Light Infantry; and Captain Walker, commanding the Royal Artillery; I feel myself much indebted for their good Conduct in the various Services in which I employed them.

In Lieutenant Brownrigg, of the Royal Engineers, I found infinite Ability and Resource. His Zeal and Attention were eminently conspicuous; and in my opinion this Gentleman bids fair to be of great future Service to his Country.

I should not do Justice to the Zeal and Spirit of Lieutenant Gilham, of the Suffex Militia, if I did not state to you that, anxious to be employed in the Service of his Country, and to learn his Profession, he applied to his Commanding Officer at Dover, the Night before we sailed, for Permission to join our Force. He left Dover in a violent Gale of Wind and came on board the Morning we got under Weigh. I attached him to Colonel Campbell's Company of the Battalion of Guards, where he acquitted himself much to his Honor.

Captain Visscher, Sir Charles Grey's Aid-de-Camp, Captain Williamson, my Aid-de-Camp, and Major of Brigade Thorley, I sent to attend the Guards, Light Infantry, and Grenadiers, in their different Positions, as well to give their Assistance to the respective Commanding Officers, as to apprise me of any Circumstance that might occur, so as to require my immediate Information, they being thoroughly acquainted with the Nature of the Expedition. They conducted themselves to my most perfect Satisfaction, as did Lieutenant Clifton, of the Royal Artillery, who attended me, Captain Cumberland of the 83d Regiment, and Cornet Nixen of the 7th Light Dragoons, who acted as Aids-de-Camp to Major-General Burrard.

In my Letter of the 13th Instant, I had the Honor to inform you of my having accepted the Services of Mr. Jarvis, a Surgeon of Margate. His great Attention was unremitting, and his Conduct upon this Occasion is highly praiseworthy.

To Colonel Twiss I shall ever feel great Obligation for the able Assistance he gave me at Dover, in preparing the necessary Instruments for destroying the Sluice-Gates, as well as for the Instruction he was so kind to give Lieutenant Brownrigg for this Service.

As a Feint to cover the Operation of bringing up the Materials, and of destroying the Sluices, Captain Popham and myself sent a Summons to the Commandant of Ostend, to surrender the Town and its Dependencies to His Majesty's Forces under our Command, which had the desired Effect. I have the Honor to inclose you a Copy of the Summons, with the Commandant's Answer.

By an unavoidable Accident, the Four Light Companies of the 1st Guards, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonels Warde and Boone, were not landed in the Morning; I think it however but Justice to declare, that every Thing that brave Men then could attempt was done at the imminent Risk of their Lives to accomplish it; and I am conscious the Zeal and Courage they manifested to partake in the Dangers of their Brother Soldiers, would have made them ample Sharers in any Honor to be acquired, or Danger to be encountered on Shore; had they been able to reach it.

I have sent a Dispatch to Sir Charles Grey by his Aid-de-Camp, Captain Visscher; and Captain Williamson, my Aid-de-Camp, will have the Honor to deliver you this. Both these Gentlemen are well qualified to give you any farther Information, and I beg Leave to recommend them to your Notice and Protection.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

EYRE COOTE, Major-General.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas,
&c. &c. &c.

Copy of the Summons sent for the Town of Ostend, &c. to surrender. Dated East of the Harbour of Ostend, May 19, 1798.

SIR,

WE the Officers commanding the Sea and Land Forces of His Majesty the King of Great Britain, think it necessary to apprize you, that we shall be obliged to bombard and cannonade the Town of Ostend, unless you, as Commandant, shall immediately surrender the same, with its Dependencies, Troops, and Military Stores belonging to the Republic, to the Arms of our Sovereign.

We leave to you to take into your serious Consideration the very formidable Force now lying before the Town and Port of Ostend, as you cannot but be responsible for the Consequences of a vain and fruitless Resistance.

We are willing to grant Half an Hour for your full Consideration of the above Terms, and are convinced that your Humanity and good Sense will point out the necessary Steps to be taken to accede to our Proposals, as, in Default thereof, we shall be under the Necessity of immediately commencing Hostilities.

We have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

EYRE COOTE, Major-General.

Commandant of Ostend.

Garrison of Ostend, 30th Floreal,

Muscar, Commandant of the Garrison of Ostend, to the Commander in Chief of the Troops of His Britannic Majesty.

GENERAL,

THE Council of War was sitting when I received the Honor of your Letter; we have unanimously resolved not to surrender this Place until we shall have been buried under its Ruins.

(Signed) MUSCAR,
Commandant of the Garrison.

SIR,

Ostend, May 20, 1798.

MAJOR-General Coote, in his Dispatch Yesterday, had the Honor to inform you of the brilliant Success of the Enterprize, of which he had the Command, as far as related to the Destruction of the Gates and Sluices of the Canal of Bruges.

The General having been severely wounded this Morning, I have the painful Task of detailing our unavoidable Surrender soon after.

On our Return Yesterday to the Beach at Eleven o'Clock A.M. where we had disembarked, we found that, from an Increase of Wind and Surf, our Communication with the Fleet was nearly cut off, and that it was impossible to re-embark the troops. The General, well aware of the Risk we ran in staying in an Enemy's Country, naturally exasperated against us for the Damage we had recently done them, attempted to get off some Companies, but the Boats soon filled with Water, and it was with extreme Difficulty the Lives of the Men were saved. It then became necessary to examine carefully the Ground we were likely to fight upon; and such a Choice was made as might have insured us Success, had any thing like an equal Force presented itself.

Major-General Coote took every Precaution the Evening and the Night afforded to make our Post among the Sand Hills upon the Shore as tenable as possible, by directing Lieutenant Brownrigg, of the Royal Engineers, to make small Entrenchments where it was necessary, and, by planting the few Field Pieces and the Howitzer we had on the most favorable Spots, to annoy the Enemy in their Approach to attack us.

In momentary Expectation of them, we impatiently looked for a favourable Opportunity to get into our Boats, but unfortunately it never presented itself.

About Four o'Clock this Morning, (the Wind and Surf having increased during the Night,) we perceived plainly Two strong Columns of the Enemy advancing on our Front, and soon after we found several other Columns upon our Flanks.

The Action began by a Cannonade from their Horse Artillery, which was answered from our Field Pieces and Howitzer with great Animation. Our Artillery was served admirably; and had not the Enemy soon after turned our Flanks, which, from their very great Numbers, could not be prevented, they would have paid dear indeed for any Advantage their Superiority of Numbers gave them. The Force they employed, we have since found, was assembled from Ghent, Bruges, and Dunkirk; and General Coote and myself were very soon convinced that our Cause was desperate, and that we had no Choice left but to defend our Post, such as it was, for the Honor of His Majesty's Arms, as long as we were able. We maintained this very severe and unequal Conflict for nearly Two Hours, in which extreme hot Fire was interchanged, particularly on our Left Flank, which, as well as our Right, was now completely turned. Wishing, however, to make one strong Effort, Major-General Coote ordered Major Donkin, of the 44th Regiment, on the Left, with a Company of Light Infantry, to endeavour to turn that Flank of the Enemy which had made most Impression upon us, and Colonel Campbell, with his own Light Company of the Guards, to effect the same Purpose by a concealed and rapid March round the Sand Hills. The uncommon Exertions of these two invaluable Officers, when the Signal was made for them to advance, are above all Praise; their Companies in the Attempt were much cut down, and Colonel Campbell and Major Donkin, with One Subaltern (Captain Duff), were wounded. About this Time Major-General Coote perceived that Part of the 11th Regiment, towards our Left, had given way, and was likely to distress the other Parts of the Front nearest to it. At the Moment he was endeavouring to rally them, and had put himself at their Head to regain the lost and advantageous Ground from which they had retreated, at that most critical Period, when most conspicuous for Gallantry and Conduct, he received a very severe Wound in his Thigh; and being unable to go on, he sent for me from the Right, where I was stationed.

We both found that our Front was broken, and our Flanks completely turned, the Enemy pouring in upon us on all Sides, and several valuable Officers and many of our best Men killed and wounded. It was evident we could not hold out for Ten Minutes longer; and therefore we thought it more our Duty to preserve the Lives of the brave Men we commanded, than to sacrifice them to what, we conceived, was a mistaken Point of Honor. Had we acted differently, it is probable that in less Time than what I have just mentioned, their Fate would have been decided by the Bayonet.

Major-General Coote, by whose Bed I am Writing, has enjoined me to repeat the Praises (and I am Witness he has justly bestowed them) on the Officers and Men which he had the Honor to mention in his Dispatch of Yesterday. And we hope, that although we have not been finally successful in reembarking, our Conduct and Exertions, in having effected the Object of the Enterprize, will be deemed honorable by His Majesty and our Country; and we rely upon His gracious Acceptance of our Endeavors and Zeal in the Attempt to extricate the Troops entrusted to our Charge from Difficulties both unavoidable and insurmountable.

Major-General Coote and myself would willingly bestow Praise where it is due, but, among many Competitors, it is difficult to select without appearing to overlook others well deserving. We have, Sir, however, the Honor of mentioning to you Colonel Campbell of the Third Guards Light Infantry, and Major Donkin of the 44th, whose Conduct, if any Thing could have protracted our Fate, had been equal to the Difficulty of effecting it. Captain Walker commanding the Royal Artillery, Captains Wilson and Godfrey, and Lieutenants Simpson, Hughes, and Holcroft, all of the same distinguished Corps, after having done every Thing which Men could do, spiked their Guns, and threw them over the Banks, at the Moment the Enemy were possessing themselves of them. The latter Gentleman, Lieutenant Holcroft, when all his Men were wounded except one, remained at his Gun doing Duty with it to the best of his Ability. Captain Gibbs of the 11th, and Captain Halkett of the 23d Light Infantry, eminently distinguished themselves by their cool intrepid Conduct during the whole Time.

All the Gentlemen of the Staff conducted themselves much to the Satisfaction of Major-General Coote and myself.

To Captain Cumberland of the 83d, and Cornet Nixon of the 7th Light Dragoons, who flatteringly offered to accompany me, and who acted as my Aide-Camp, I am much indebted; their Attention and Activity I found of most material Service.

Mr. Lowen, Volunteer, attached to the 23d Light Infantry, was twice wounded, and was particularly conspicuous, and remarked as a most promising Soldier. We think it but Justice to the Enemy to say, that our wounded are treated with Humanity, many of them are in the Hospital of this Town, and are well attended by their Surgeons.

Our Numbers on Shore were about 1000 Men, of which we are afraid there are from 100 to 150 killed and wounded. The Enemy, by all Accounts, have lost about the same Number; but it is impossible to give any just Return of the Number we have lost till we hear from Bruges, where the Prisoners were sent.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

(Signed) HARRY BURRARD,
Major-General.

Whitehall, July 21, 1798.

A Dispatch, of which the following is a Copy, has been received from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, by his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

My Lord, Dublin Castle, July 15, 1798.

I Have the Honor to acquaint your Grace, that it being reported that the Mountains of Wicklow were a Receptacle for Bodies of Rebel Fugitives, I directed Lieutenant-General Lake to move different Columns, in various Directions, to clear that Part of the Country. He returned To-day to Dublin, and reports, that he was not able to find any Body whatever assembled in any Part of that District.

The Lieutenant-General gives the highest Credit to the Perseverance and Spirit of the Troops during very long and difficult Marches through a Country almost inaccessible for Troops.

On Monday last the Rebels, which had been in the Mountains, passed over to the Bog of Allen. On Wednesday they attacked, with a Body of about 1500, the Town of Clon, and where they were repulsed with the Loss of Sixty Men by Colonel Blake, who marched from Mullingar, and attacked them with about Fifty Infantry, and as many Yeomen Cavalry. This Body of Rebels, after their Defeat, proceeded towards Kilcock, and were pursued till Night by a Detachment under Brigadier-General Meyrick. The Rebel Army advanced to Dunboyne, and on Friday moved to Garristown-Hill, whither I ordered Major-General Myers, with a Detachment of the Royal Buckinghamshire Militia and Yeomanry from the Garrison of Dublin, to pursue them. The Rebels, however, went off for the Boyne, and passed it; but were checked near Stackallen by Cavalry detached from two Columns commanded by Major-General Wemyss and Brigadier-General Meyrick, who had assembled on the Road to Slane. And I have the Honour to transmit to your Grace a Copy of a Letter received by my Military Secretary, Captain Taylor, from Major-General Wemyss, giving an Account of the Action.

I have the further Satisfaction to acquaint your Grace, that last Night, about Seven o'Clock, Captain Gordon, of the Dumfries Fencibles, with a Detachment of Infantry and Cavalry, fell in with that Part of the Rebels which had returned across the Boyne near Garristown, killed Twenty of them, and took 200 Horses.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

CORNWALLIS.

*His Grace the Duke of Portland,
Sr. Sc. &c.*

SIR,

Drögbeda, July 15, 1798.

HAVING received Information from different Quarters on Friday Afternoon that a large Body of Rebels had assembled about Garristown, and were marching towards this, I went out with what Force I thought it prudent to take from the Garrison here to Duleek, where I arrived at Ten o'Clock at Night the 13th, and got Information that the Rebels were strongly posted upon a Hill Three Miles off to the Right. Not knowing the Country, I remained in Duleek till One o'Clock. When I marched to the Hill, I found the Rebels left it on our coming into Duleek the Evening before, and halted at a Village near it. I followed them to the Village. They had left it about Five Hours before towards Slane. I thought it probable, from a Note I had received from General Meyrick, that he was to march from Taragh Hill to attack the Rebels at Garristown, that I should hear of him at the Black Lion, and went on about half a Mile, when I saw General Meyrick's Division coming into the Black Lion. We immediately proceeded by two Roads towards Slane, as we were informed they were posted above Lord Boyne's House. When we came there they had left it about Three Hours, and had passed the Boyne above Slane. Finding that we did not come up with them, General Meyrick sent on Lieutenant-Colonel Ord, with the Durham Cavalry, to overtake them, and keep them in Check, which he did about Four or Five Miles from us on the North Side of the Boyne Road to Ardee, and sent back for a Reinforcement of Cavalry. I ordered Colonel Maxwell, with the Dumfries, with General Meyrick to move on, and they found the Rebels very strongly posted behind a Defile between Two Bogs, the Pass only allowing them to pass by Fours. The Cavalry drove in their advanced Post, and charged with great Spirit; but from the Position of the Enemy Colonel Maxwell thought it better to wait till the Infantry came up, which I did with the Sutherland Highlanders in a very short Time, and advanced with my Battalion Guns. Whenever the Rebels perceived us, I saw them get into Confusion, and they immediately broke in all Directions. I then ordered the Cavalry and Yeomanry to attack, and I followed with the Infantry to support them. The Rebels got into the Bogs, and the Cavalry advanced, killed all they met with, and surrounded the Bog to the Height on the opposite Side. The Highlanders got into the Bog, and killed all that were in it. Those who got out on the opposite Side were met by the Cavalry. From the Manner in which they dispersed, I cannot give an exact Account of the Killed. We took a great Quantity of Pikes, Pistols, Swords, Muskets, &c. and Two Standards. General Meyrick got One Prisoner, who gave him some Information, and promised him more. He took him with him to Navan, so that I cannot report any Thing with Accuracy about him.

The Troops behaved with great Spirit, and bore a great Deal of Fatigue, particularly General Meyrick's Division, with a Reinforcement from this of the Dumfries, and my Light Company has been out Three Nights. I am particularly indebted to the Gentlemen Yeomanry, and to Mr. Trettu Duheln, who served me as a Guide. Any Body of the Rebels left went on towards Ardee. A great many got round the Hill on our Right, and came back to Slane, where they assembled near it, crossed the Boyne, and went back towards Garristown, where I hope General Myers will fall in with them. I reported this to General Campbell last Night, being under his Command, and just now received a Note from him to inform you of it.

Citation to the HEIRS of Mrs. ANN ALGHER, of London,

KIEL Christopher Baron Bennet, Royal Swedish Chamberlain, being at that Time Possessor of the Estate held in Fee by the Family of Wielsdorf, and belonging to the Manor of Ahrenburg, in Danish Holstein, caused, on the 30th April, 1795, a Capital of 7750 Marks, Sleswic Holstein Currency, being the assumed Value of 500l. Sterling, according to the Rate of Exchange, to be secured in the aforesaid Estate in Favour of Mrs. Ann Algher, in London, and to be entered in the public Register of Mortgages of this Place: Now whereas the former, on concluding a Contract of Sale with respect to the said Estate held in Fee by the Family of Wielsdorf, did set forth, that the said Capital of 500l. Sterling, after the Demise of the said Mrs. Ann Algher, has been paid to her lawful Heirs without the said Entry being as yet vacated in the Register of Mortgages of this Place: And whereas the Vendee demands a Judicial Certificate that the said Estate is clear from all Debts: Therefore the said Chamberlain Bennet, from Want of the necessary Consent of the Heirs of the said Mrs. Algher, deceased, that the said Entry be vacated, has found himself induced to pray, that by Means of a public Citation, the Heirs of the said Mrs. Algher, of London, deceased, who are not known in this Place, be called upon in case they should still deem themselves possessed of any Claims relative to the Capital of 500l. Sterling, secured in the above Estate of Wielsdorf, situated under the Jurisdiction of this Court, to declare the same on a Day to be prefixed by the Court for that Purpose, in Default whereof they must expect that an eternal Silence be enjoined to them, and the above Entry of 500l. Sterling officially vacated by the Court. Now whereas, in Compliance with this Prayer on the Part of the Court, the 20th September of this current Year has been appointed for that Purpose, as a peremptory Term and Once for all: Therefore public Notice is hereby given of the Appointment thereof, and at the same Time it is enjoined unto such Claimants as may appear on that Day, to produce in Court the original Deeds or other Papers which they may have in their Possession, to leave attested Copies thereof in the Registry, and to appoint an Attorney under the Jurisdiction of this Court. Ahrenburg, the 7th June, 1798.
