

St. James's, August 13, 1798.

The King has been graciously pleased to give and grant unto Richard Eaton, Clerk, Bachelor of Arts, Rector of Elsing, in the County of Norfolk, His Royal Licence and Authority that he may assume and take the Surname of Browne only, and also use and bear the Arms of Browne, in Compliance with the last Will and Testament of his Kinswoman Mary Greene, of Elsing aforesaid, Widow, deceased, Relict of Thomas Greene, of the said Place, Esquire, and Daughter and Heir of Thomas Browne, Esquire, formerly Lord of the Manor of Elsing aforesaid; such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office; and also to order His Majesty's Concession and Declaration to be registered in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 18, 1798.

Whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on Monday the 30th Ultimo, the Blenheim, Greenland Ship, belonging to the Port of Kingston-upon-Hull, William Mitchenon, Master, on her Arrival in Whitebooth Roads, refused to bring to on the Signal of His Majesty's Ship Nonsuch, and persisted in such Refusal notwithstanding several Shot were fired for the Purpose of enforcing Obedience; that being afterwards surrounded, on her Arrival at the Entrance of the Haven of the said Port, by several Boats from His Majesty's Ships Nonsuch, Nautilus, and Redoubt, (sent for the Purpose of boarding her,) the Crew of the said Greenland Ship, on One of the Boats coming alongside, fired several Shot into her, and violently threw several Spears, Capstern Bars, Handspikes, and other offensive Weapons, and also several large Iron Shot, at and among the Crew of the said Boat; in consequence whereof Richard Bell, Master's Mate, and William Burnock and John Sykes, Seamen, belonging to His Majesty's said Ship Nonsuch, were dangerously wounded, and others much bruised; and the Boats being by this outrageous Conduct repulsed, the Crew of the said Greenland Ship got on Shore and absconded; since which the said William Burnock and John Sykes, have died of the Wounds they received, and the Coroners Inquests have returned Verdicts of Wilful Murder against Persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of the atrocious Murders above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the Offenders (except such as actually gave the Mortal Strokes to the said Burnock and Sykes) who shall discover his or their Accomplices therein, so that they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except such as were actually concerned in the said Murders) who shall apprehend or cause to be apprehended any of the said Offenders, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of them by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.
