A PROCLAMATION,
For a General Thanksgiving.
GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the indispensable Duty which We owe to Almighty God for the recent and signal Interposition of His good Providence, in Addition to the manifold and inestimable Benefits which these Kingdoms had already received at His Hands; manifested by the Blessing bestowed on Our Arms in the late memorable Battle, fought in distant Seas; as well as by the Deliverance of Our Dominions from Invasion and from intestine Commotions, through the Energy and Valour of Our Naval and Military Forces, and the Loyalty and Courage of Our faithful Subjects, which, exerted in a righteous Cause, it has pleased the Divine Goodness to crown with Success, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Thursday the Twenty-ninth Day of November next: And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to the Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as we may justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fourth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in the Thirty-eighth Year of Our Reign.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of October, 1798.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered, by His Majesty in Council, that the Embargo laid, by Order of His Majesty at this Board, of the Twenty-seventh of July, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, be taken off as far as the same relates to Ships and Vessels which are or may be bound to any of the Ports in the Territories of the Grand Duke of Tuscany: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's the 24th October, 1798.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by his Order in Council of the 28th of last Month, to direct, that all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, then arrived, or that should thereafter arrive, in any Port of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from Philadelphia, or any Port within the State of Pennsylvania, should make their Quarantine for Fourteen Days, to commence and be computed from the Day each Ship or Vessel should come to Anchor in the Place appointed for the Performance of Quarantine, and not before; and should strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations thereby required to be observed: And whereas His Majesty has received Information, that the malignant and infectious Disorder, of the Nature of the Plague, which exists in the City of Philadelphia, hath extended itself to the Port of Boston and New York; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth thereupon order, That the Quarantine, at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from Philadelphia, be extended to all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes coming from Boston and New York, or from any of the Ports within the Provinces of Massachusetts Bay and New York: And His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby further order, require, and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever coming from Boston or New York, or from any of the Ports within the Provinces of Massachusetts Bay and New York, and all Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, on board the same, that are already arrived, or shall hereafter arrive, in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, do make their Quarantine for Fourteen Days, and do strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force, and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General, and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of October, 1798,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant October; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and

Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for the Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant October to the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,
WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-fifth Day of April last, prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom of any Sort of Rock Salt, will expire upon the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or load or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of His Majesty in Council respecting the Exportation of Rock Salt, for preventing Suits in consequence of the same, for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Rock Salt, and for making further Provisions relative thereto:" His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, that nothing herein contained shall prevent Rock Salt being carried Coastwise, under the usual Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, nor the Exportation of the same to Ireland, or to any other of His Majesty's Dominions, under the usual Conditions and Regulations, and upon Security being given by the Exporter, and two other Persons, (of whom the Master of the Vessel shall be one,) by Bond, in such Penalty as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the said Rock Salt shall be exported to some Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, and none other, and that a Certificate shall be produced, within Six Months from the Date of the Bond, if such Rock Salt shall be entered out for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in Europe; and within Twelve Months, if for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in America or the West Indies; and within Eighteen Months, if for any of the British Settlements or Factories in Asia or Africa, under the Hand of the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where such Rock Salt shall be so landed; and if there shall be no Officer of the Customs, then under the Hand of the Chief Magistrate of the Place, testifying that the said Rock Salt has been duly landed at the Port or Place for which the same was entered out.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Durham, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Anson, to Ewan Nepean, Esq; dated in Plymouth Sound.

I Beg Leave to inclose you Copy of a Letter, sent by this Post, to the Right Honorable Admiral Lord Bridport.

*Anson, in Plymouth Sound,
 October 27, 1798.*

My Lord,

FROM the disabled State of His Majesty's Ship under my Command in the Action of the 13th Instant, and the Wind remaining to the S. W. I was unavoidably separated from the Squadron under the Command of Sir John Borlase Warren, Bart. K. B. and drove considerably to the N. W. of Ireland.

I have great Satisfaction in informing your Lordship, that on the 18th at Daylight in the Morning, I discovered a large Ship to Leeward, fortunately for me, with the Loss of her Fore and Main-Top-Masts, (the Anson being by no Means in a Situation to chase,) her Mizzen-Mast gone, Main-Yard and Main-Crofstrees; the Bowprit and Fore-Yard (shot through in several Places.

I immediately bore up, and got alongside of her, after an Action of One Hour and Quarter, most gallantly disputed, which does the highest Honor to Citizen Joseph Andrien Segone, her Commander, she struck; proved to be La Loire, one of the largest and finest Frigates belonging to the Republic, presented by the City of Nantz, quite new and never before at Sea, pierced for Fifty Guns, mounting Forty-Six, (Eighteen-Pounders,) having on board Six Hundred and Sixty-four Men, (Troops included,) among whom are a Number of Artillery, Etat-Major for Three Regiments. La Loire had Forty-eight Men killed and Seventy-five wounded, was One of the Four Frigates which the Anson engaged the 13th, and was making her Escape from the Coast.

I beg Leave particularly to acknowledge the steady and good Behaviour of my Officers and Petty Officers; cannot avoid recommending to your Lordship's Notice my First Lieutenant Mr. John Hinton, whose Conduct not only upon this Occasion but many others, has met with my fullest Approbation; not derogating from the Behaviour of Lieutenants Meager, Manderfon, and Mr. William Christoph, the Master.

I have also to acknowledge the Services of Lieutenants Bell and Derring, of the Marines, who commanded the Carrouades; as to my Ship's Company, they have been my faithful Companions during Four Years in pretty active Service, and whose Conduct upon all Occasions merit my warm Approbation.

Having fallen, in the Night before the Action, with His Majesty's Brig Kangaroo, I ordered Captain Brace, from the Anson's disabled State, to continue in Company, and am much indebted to him for the Services he has rendered me in taking Possession of La Loire.

Herewith I send a List of the Killed and Wounded.

Killed.—Alexander Duncan, Quarter-Master; Matthew Birch, Seaman.

Wounded.—Mr. W. Abell, First Lieutenant of Marines; Mr. William Robilliard, Mr. Francis R. Payler, Midshipmen; Henry Wilson, James Davis, John Adams, John Houston; William Shaw, Peter Willman, William Thomas (Second), Patrick Kelly, Seamen; James Cummings, Robert Dillon, Marines.

Inclosed is a List of the Stores, &c. found on board La Loire Republican Frigate.

- Cloathing complete for 3000 Men.
- 1020 Muskets in Cases.
- 200 Sabres.
- 360 Pouches.
- 25 Cases of Musket Ball Cartridges.
- 1 Brass Field Piece, with a great Quantity of Ammunition of different Kinds.
- Intrenching Tools, &c. &c. &c.

I have the Honor, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Peyton, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Downes to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated 29th October 1798.

SIR,

I Herewith inclose, for their Lordships' Information, a Letter I have received from Captain Cheshyre of His Majesty's Sloop Plover, stating his having captured a French Schooner Privateer of Ten Carriage Guns and Eight Swivels, that left Calais on Saturday last in the Forenoon, but had not taken any Thing.

I am, &c. &c.

JOS. PEYTON.

SIR, Plover, at Sea, October 28, 1798.

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on Sunday Morning the 28th Instant, I observed a suspicious Schooner between Three and Four Leagues S. W. of Fairleigh, to which I gave Chase; at Ten, after firing Five or Six Chase Guns, she struck; on boarding found her to be Le Corfair L'Eringobrah, of Ten Carriage Guns and Eight Swivels, viz. Eight Three Pounders, and Two Four Pounders, Part of which she threw overboard; she had between Forty and Fifty Men; she sailed from Calais on Saturday Forenoon, had taken nothing.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c.

JOHN CHESHYRE.

Joseph Peyton, Esq.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Peyton, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships in the Downes, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated 29th October 1798.

HIS Majesty's Sloop Ragoon is just arrived in the Downes, and I herewith enclose a Letter I have received from her Commander, stating his having chased Three French Lugger Privateers and captured One of them; Le Vigilant, of Twelve Four Pounders, and Two Long Sixes (Fifty-five Men) which soon after sunk.

His Majesty's Ship Ragoon, Downes, Oct. 20, 1798.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to acquaint you, that at Six A. M. on this Morning, Blackness bearing S. E. by E. Distance Three Leagues, I discovered Three large Luggers a-head; immediately made all Sail and gave Chase; after a running Fire of Two Hours, had the Pleasure to come up with and capture One of them, Le Vigilant Lugger, mounting Twelve Four-pounders and Two Long Sixes, carrying Fifty-five Men, (Six or Seven of which were left on Shore at Boulogne,) commanded by Citizen Muirbaffe. On sending my Boats on board, I found that in consequence of her being hull'd in several Places she was sinking very fast, which detained me a considerable Time, (in endeavouring to stop the Leak,) otherwise I must inevitably have taken another before they could possibly have reached the Coast of France. I have the Pleasure to say that all the Prisoners got safe on board except those killed by my firing, and every Exertion was used to save the Vessel, but to no Effect; at Nine A. M. she sunk; she was entirely new, had been out Two Cruises only, and taken nothing. One of the Luggers in Company had captured a Brig, which I observed His Majesty's Sloop the Plover to take Possession of, off Folkestone, at Eleven A. M.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROB. LLOYD.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Community of the City of Edinburgh, humbly offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the late most signal and important Victory, with which the Almighty has blessed your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of your illustrious Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson.

While so many other States have yielded to the destructive and insulting Ambition of France, we look up with Respect and Gratitude to our Sovereign, who, in Times the most alarming, has stood firm to preserve the Independence, the Freedom, the Happiness, and the Honour of Britain; and we rejoice with your faithful Subjects in this new and glorious Encouragement which your Majesty has received, to persevere in so great and so good a Cause.

In this Cause we cordially pledge our Lives and Fortunes for your Majesty's Support; and we shall be happy to shew that we are not unworthy to be the Fellow Citizens and Brothers of those brave Men, who, upon this and upon former Occasions have exerted themselves so nobly for their King and their Country.

We entreat your Majesty to accept our most sincere Professions of Loyalty to your Person and Government, and our earnest Wishes that your Reign may be long and prosperous.

Signed by our Appointment and in our Presence, and the Seal of the City affixed thereto, this 12th Day of October, in the Year, 1798.

James Stirling, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air, embrace, with heartfelt Joy, the Opportunity of this our Meeting, to approach your Throne with sincere Congratulations on the late brilliant Success of your Majesty's Fleet, under the Command of Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson.

With Gratitude to the God of Battles, we contemplate this great and splendid Victory as an additional Security for the Enjoyment of our inestimable Privileges: We rejoice as Britons in the Honors and Triumphs of our Country; and we gladly anticipate the happy Day when, by the Blessing of Almighty God on the Wisdom of your Councils, on the Vigour of your Government, and on the Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, your Majesty shall be enabled to terminate, by an honorable Peace, the important Contest in which the British Empire is engaged.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe, who determines the Issues of War, may continue to bless your Majesty's Arms with Success, to prosper the Measures of your Government, and to maintain our Religion, our Liberty, and our Laws; and that your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy, and affectionate People, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

George M'Latchie, Moderator.

Glasgow, Oct. 9, 1798.

[Transmitted by Mr. M'Dowall.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of this Provincial Synod, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations upon the late signal and important Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson.

In the just and necessary War in which the Obstinacy of our Foes obliges your Majesty to persist, we regard, with peculiar Satisfaction, every Event which weakens the Strength of the Enemy, and increases the Naval Superiority of our Country; because it contributes to put it in your Majesty's Power to effectuate that Peace for which your Majesty has repeatedly instituted a Negotiation.

In this Light we regard the late Victory which hath manifested so decided a Superiority of Skill and Courage on the Part of your Majesty's Officers and Seamen, and given so severe a Blow to the Naval Power of the Enemy: We rejoice with your Majesty on the Occasion—We give Thanks to the Lord of Hosts—And we pray that He may continue to bless your Majesty's Councils, and crown with Success your Majesty's Arms, till your Majesty shall be able to accomplish the benevolent Purpose of your Heart, and the Object of every just and lawful War like the present, a secure and honorable Peace.

Signed in the Name; Presence, and by Appointment of the Provincial Synod of Perth and Stirling, by

Perth, October 17, 1798.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Mr. Bannerman.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal, dutiful, and affectionate Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Landholders of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in our Michaelmas Head Court assembled, embrace, with peculiar Satisfaction, this early Opportunity of approaching your Majesty's Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the late brilliant and glorious Victory obtained over the obstinate and inveterate Enemy of your Majesty's Kingdoms, by that Division of your Majesty's Navy under the Command of the brave and gallant Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson.

Whilst we look up with Gratitude to Almighty God for this signal and gracious Interposition of his Favour, we anticipate with high Expectation the great and permanent Advantages which will result to these Kingdoms from a Victory so important and decisive; and we trust that a Nation, so highly favoured of Divine Providence, and so firmly attached to the Principles of Liberty and good Order, will in due Time, under the Continuance of the same gracious Protection, be able to restore the Blessings of Peace and Tranquillity to Europe.

That your Majesty may live long as the sacred Guardian of our Civil and Religious Liberties, is our sincere and earnest Prayer.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting.

Pat. Heron, Preses.

Kirkcudbright, Oct. 9, 1798.

[Transmitted by Mr. Heron.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant Venturers of the City of Bristol, humbly entreat your Majesty's Acceptance of our unfeigned Congratulations on the great and important Success with which it has pleased the Almighty to prosper your Majesty's Fleet in the Mediterranean, under the Command of Admiral, now Lord Nelson.

Animated with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty, and grateful for that paternal Regard and Attention to the Welfare of your People, for which your Majesty's Reign is so eminently distinguished, we sincerely rejoice in a Victory which adds to the Greatness of the British Name, and promises to be as decisive in its Consequences as it is glorious for the good Conduct, Valour, and Intrepidity exhibited by your Majesty's Officers, Seamen, and Marines.

That similar Success may ever attend your Majesty's Arms, and that your Majesty's Enemies may in all their Attempts against your Crown and Government meet with Disappointment and Confusion, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

PERSONAL LEGACY DUTY.

Stamp-Office, Sept. 7, 1798.

WHEREAS by an Act passed on the 26th Day of April, in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is Enacted, "That upon every Legacy, Specific or Pecuniary, of the Value of 20l. or more, given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Person who shall die after the passing of the said Act, out of the Personal Estate of the Person so dying, and also upon the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of every Person who shall so die, whether Testate or Intestate, and leave Personal Estate of the clear Value of 100l. after deducting Debts, Funeral Expences, and other Charges; there shall be raised, levied, and collected, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Duties, after the Rates, and in Manner therein particularly mentioned."

AND WHEREAS HIS MAJESTY'S COMMISSIONERS FOR MANAGING THE STAMP DUTIES have Reason to believe that the Duties which have become payable under the said Act upon Legacies bequeathed, as well as upon the Residue of the Personal Estate and Effects of many Persons who have died since the said 26th Day of April, the Day of passing the said Act, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper Receipts or Discharges given for such Legacies and Personal Estate, according to the said Act; and the said Commissioners have also Reason to believe that the Duties imposed by several other Acts on Legacies, and the Residue of Personal Estate, not subject to the Duties imposed by the said Act of the 36th Year of His Majesty's Reign, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper Receipts or Discharges given for such Legacies and Personal Estate, according to the said former Acts, and also according to the said Act of the 36th Year of His Majesty's Reign: THE COMMISSIONERS THEREFORE DO HEREBY GIVE NOTICE, That Proceedings will be had against all Persons who shall appear to have offended against the said Acts, to recover the Amount of the Duties payable under the said Acts respectively, together with the Penalties incurred by such Persons as shall appear not to have complied with the Terms of the said Acts. AND THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That by the said Act of the 36th Year of His Majesty's Reign, all Persons paying and receiving Legacies or Personal Estate, subject to the said Duties, without receiving and allowing thereout respectively the Duties payable thereon, are chargeable with the said Duties as Debts due to His Majesty, and both Parties are respectively liable to Penalties, in case of Payment of such Legacies, without such Receipt or Discharge as required by the Act.

THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That by an Act passed in the 37th Year of His Majesty's Reign, It is Enacted, "That every “ Person who shall Administer the Personal Estate of any Person dying after the passing of the said Act, or any Part thereof, without proving the Will of the Deceased, or taking out Letters of Administration of such Personal Estate within Six Calendar Months after the Death of the Person so dying, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, to be recovered as therein is mentioned, One Moiety thereof to His Majesty, and the other to the Person who shall sue for the same.”

By Order of the Commissioners,
J. Brettell, Secretary.
