Naples, September 25, 1798.

His Majesty's Ships the Culloden, Captain Trowbridge, the Alexander, Captain Ball, and the Frigate Bonne Citoyenne, came into this Port on the 18th Instant in the Evening. His Sicilian Majesty went out in his Boat into the Bay to meet them, as did numerous English and Neapolitan Boats. The Ships gave the Royal Salute to His Majesty.—Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, in the Vanguard, accompanied by the Thalia Frigate, did not make his Appearance in this Bay until Saturday last the 22d Instant, having been becalmed off Sicily.

The King of Naples not only went off to meet the Admiral, but instantly went on board the Vanguard, and staid on board until that Vessel was at Anchor in the Port. The Royal Salute was given by all the King's Ships, both on His Sicilian Majesty's Arrival on board the Vanguard, and on his leaving the Ship. The Day being remarkably fine, numerous Boats with Colours and Music attended the Vanguard, and all the Shores and Wharfs of Naples were crowded with a Multitude of rejoicing People; and when the Admiral came on Shore, the Reception the Neapolitans gave him was expressive of the utmost Kindness and Gratitude.

Naples, September 28, 1798.

Every Assistance has been given to the Vanguard, the Culloden, and Alexander, so that these Ships will be fit to go again to Sea in a few Days. Yesterday His Majesty's Ship Colossus, Captain Murray, with Four Victuallers, from Gibraltar, came to an Anchor in this Port.

This Morning Sir Horatio Nelson has received a Letter from Sir James Saumarez, dated from the Port of Augusta in Sicily, the 17th Instant, reporting all well in the Squadron under his Command, and that he hoped, having got Water and fresh Provisions, to sail from thence for Gibraltar the Wednesday following.

September 29, 1798.

Captain Gage, in the Terpichore, arrived here this Morning. He left Malta the 26th Instant, when Sir James Saumarez with his Squadron, in Conjunction with the Portuguese Squadron under the Command of Marquis Nizza, had summoned the French to surrender and evacuate Malta, which was refused by M. Vaubois, the Commander in Chief of the Valetta; and that Sir James Saumarez was proceeding with his Squadron and French Prizes to Gibrat-tar, having left the Portuguese to block Malta, and having, at the Request of the Maltese Insurgents, supplied them with a large Quantity of Ammunition, and Twelve Hundred Stand of Arms from his French Prizes. The Maltese say, that the French are in the greatest Want at Valetta.

Vienna, October 27, 1798.

Intelligence was received on Thursday Afternoon, from General Bellegarde, of the Austrians having,
at the formal Request of the Grisons' Government, taken Possession of Coire and the important Post of Richenau, and of Detachments being on their March to occupy the Rest of the Country.

St. James's, November 7, 1798.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns of Portsmouth, Portsea, and Neighbourhood, embrace the earliest Opportunity, humbly to address your Majesty with the most sincere Congratulations, that it has pleased the Almighty so eminently to bless and distinguish the Arms of these Realms in the late glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson.

It is with inexpressible Joy and Exultation that we, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, reflect on the Importance of this Victory, which will, in its Effects, while it adds additional Lustre to your Majesty's Arms, be an irreparable Blow to the Naval Power of France, and completely defeat her ambitious Views, which were to destroy the Commerce and Independence of these Kingdoms.

Permit us, Most Gracious Sovereign, to avail ourselves of this Occasion, to assure you that we, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of these
