

Oldenburg. The Elector of Saxony is perfectly recovered, and on the 26th Instant gave Audience to Monsieur Ruffeau the French Minister. Count Berka is on his way from Prague to the Court of Denmark, and Prince Herman of Baden is likewise coming from thence to several Princes of our Neighborhood.

Brussels, May 3. Yesterday arrived our Spanish Ordinary, and brought an account of the Kings having made seven new Counsellors of State, of which our Governor, the Duke de Villa Hermosa is one: The other six are the Marquis de los Veles, Viceroy of Naples, the Inquisitor General, Don Melchior de Navarra (who was disgraced in Don Juans time) the Duke of Albuquerque, the Conde d'Oropesa, and the Marquis of Mancera; and that several of those that had been most in Don Juans Interests were removed from Court, and among them the President of Castile.

Brussels, May 7. The King of Spain has finally declared his resolution of conferring the Government of these Countreys upon the Duke of Fuliers, which that Prince has accepted of, and sent the King his Letters of thanks, to the great satisfaction of all people here, because of the union and good correspondence this will beget between these Provinces and the Princes of Germany.

Hague, May 7. The States of Holland have not as yet been able to come to a Resolution in the matter of the Moneys, The Prince of Orange intends suddenly for Breda, to see how the new Fortifications that are making there advance.

Paris, May 8. On Monday last the Dauphiness appeared in this City for the first time, the Queen brought her hither, and shewed her what was most worthy to be seen, and in the Evening they walked in the Tuilleries, which drew thither a great Concourse of Persons of quality. It is said that the Chamber of Poysons is now going to take in hand the affair of the Duke of Luxemburg, and that when that is finished the said Chamber will be dissolved.

Exeter, April 22. These Parts are in great Peace and Quiet: The Papiſts are strictly enquired after in order to their being Proceeded against according to Law; and there is so great an Union amongst the Gentry of this County, that they have unanimously declared, They are resolved to live and dye in the Defence of His Majesty and his Lawful Heirs and Successors, and the Religion Established in the Church of England, against all Opposers whatsoever.

Whitehall, April 30. His Majesty has thought fit to constitute Sir Job Charleton Kt. one of the Judges of the Common-Pleas (from whence Mr. Justice Raymond is gone up to the Kings-Bench) by whose removal the place of Chief Justice, and one of His Majesties Council at Ludlow, for the Marches of Wales, being become void, the King has conferred the same upon Sir George Jeffreys Kt. Recorder of the City of London.

The two persons that were apprehended the 28 Instant in Westminster-hall upon suspicion of their being concerned in the attempt made upon Mr. Arnold, having been seen by him, he declared that he did not suspect them of the Fact, and no Proof coming in against them, they had been discharged; but appearing to be Papiſts who have presumed to stay in Town contrary to His Majesties late Proclamations, they are to continue in Prison till they have satisfied the Law.

Whitehall, May 1. Yesterday the King and the Duke returned hither from Newmarket. In the Afternoon Colonel Mansel and several other persons were examined before His Majesty in Council. And His Majesty was pleased to direct, That the Committee of Examinations should in his absence proceed in the farther Examination of them as they shall see cause.

At night the King and the Duke, attended with several of the Nobility, went into the City to Skinner-Hall, where they did Sir Jonathan Raymond, one of the Sheriffs, the honour to Sup with him, and returned hither extremely satisfied with their Entertainment, which was very noble and in all particulars suitable to the occasion. And this morning His Majesty went to Windsor.

MR. Tho. Warren of London, Apothecary, living at the Hart and Anchor in St. Lawrence-Lane, having after many years Trial, with great Cost, found out a most curious and excellent way of preserving Dead Bodies from Putrefaction, change of Colour, or Complexion, without Disboweling, Scar-cloathing, Mangling or cutting any part thereof, to the great approbation of several of His Majesties Physicians and others of the Colledge; and having presented an Experiment to His Majesty of a Body so preserved, His Majesty was very much satisfied therewith, and that so useful an Invention may prove serviceable to such as have occasion to use it, and likewise beneficial to the Undertaker, who for five Pounds will secure any dead Body above ground for several years: This Notice is given thereof.

Advertisements.

Geography Rectified, or a Description of the World, in all its Kingdoms, Provinces, Countries, &c. As also their Commodities, Coins, Weights, and Measures, compared with those of London. Illustrated with above 60 new Maps. By Robert Morden, and are to be sold at the Atlas in Cornhill, and at the three Legs in the Poultry, overagainst the Stocks-Market.

ISOCRATIS Orationes Duæ: 1. Ad Demonicum, 2. Ad Nicoclem. Nova Methodo & apprime utili, quoad verbum & sensum Latine reddita. &c. Editio tertia aucta & emendata. Studio & opera G. Sylvani Pannonii, Med. Sold by John Baker at the three Pidgeons in Str Pauls Church-yard.

Whereas Dr. Nehemiah Crew hath lately made a Proposal for the Printing a Catalogue and Description of the Natural and Artificial Rarities belonging to the Royal Society, by Subscriptions, and hath already an account of above a thousand Subscribers: yet because there are some who desire more time for Subscriptions, and many who might be desirous to subscribe, but have not heard of the Proposal, Notice therefore is hereby given, That Copies of the Proposal may be had at his house near Waywick-Court in Warwick-Lane, London, and that he further allows for the sending in Subscriptions, till the first of June, still intending the Impression shall be finished within Michaelmas-Term next. Note, that the Subscribers are not required to pay any money before the delivery of the Books.