November 12, 1798.

THE Names of those who were nominated for Sheriffs by the Council of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, at His Royal Highness's Council Chamber and Duchy Office, Somerset-Place, on Monday the Twelfth Day of November, in the Thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the Year of our Lord, 1798:

Admiralty-Office, November 16, 1798.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Columbine, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Hastings, November 13, 1798.

I AM to acquaint you, that this Morning a French Privateer having appeared off this Place, and Mr. Wenham having offered himself and Cutter, the Lion, to go after her, I put on board her as many of the Sea Fencibles as I thought necessary, chased, and after a little Firing, in which One Frenchman was killed, we took and brought her into this Road. She is the Success of Cherbourg, Nicholas Dubois, Master, with Four Guns and Twenty-four Men: Had been out Four Days without making any Capture. I beg Leave to add, that the Hastings Men came forward on the Occasion with the greatest Zeal and Readiness.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

St. James's, November 14, 1798.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, most respectfully approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations on a most glorious and important Victory obtained over a superior French Fleet by your Majesty's Forces under the Command of Admiral Lord Nelson of the Nile, and of Burnham Thorpe, in Norfolk; a Victory perhaps unparalleled in the History of the World; a Victory obtained after an Action planned with consummate Wisdom, executed with extraordinary Skill and Intrepidity, and which may be expected to produce the most important Consequences, not only to these Kingdoms, but to the general Interests of Europe. To this splendid Atchievement, in conjunction with other signal Successes of your Majesty's Navy, and aided by the loyal and gallant Spirit displayed by your People, we ascribe the Enjoyment of our internal Security and the Preservation of our inestimable Constitution: And we join in Thanksgiving to Almighty God, who, we trust, has thereby defeated the hostile and ruinous Designs of the Enemy against your Majesty's Territories both at Home and Abroad, Sealed with the Common Seal of the said City, the 24th Day of October, 1798.

[Presented by the Right Honorable William Wyndham, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common-Councilmen of Liverpool, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to present our most ardent Congratulations on the stupendous Victory with which Almighty God has blessed your Majesty's Squadron under the Command of Admiral Lord Nelson; The Advantages resulting from it we pretend not to calculate, but to some of them we cannot be insensible. Animated by so signal a Triumph, Foreign Nations will promote the Designs and court the Alliance of an Empire, the Nurse of such illustrious Heroes; Commerce, sheltering herself under the Wing of the British Navy, will enlarge her Boundaries; existing Sources of Wealth will be extended, and new ones explored: But, whilst we exult in the Heroism of the Exploit, and rejoice in the Benefits which it will confer upon your Majesty's favored Realms, and upon the World, our Gratitude rises still higher, when we reflect that the disciplined Valour of your Majesty's gallant Seamen has been the chosen Instrument of Providence for checking the proud Career of an Enemy, who aimed at universal Despotism; fortified by the same Almighty Protection, we doubt not that the Energy of your Majesty's Arms will at last extort from conscious Imbecility, what imaginary Power has hitherto withheld, the Prosperity and the Glory of a Peace which will provide for the Security of our united Interests, and the Vindication of the National Honor.

Given under our Common Seal at Liverpool, the 7th Day of November, 1798.

[Presented by ——— Hargrave, Esq; Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaster, in the County of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaster, in the County of Laneaster, in Common-Council assembled, humbly present our sincere Congratulation on the great and important Victory obtained by your Majesty's Naval Forces under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, and on the Defeat and Capture of the French Armament destined for the Invasion of Ireland, by your Majesty's Squadron under the Command of Sir John Borlase Warren.

We acknowledge with Joy and Gratitude your Majesty's Care and Wisdom in the Measures adopted for the public Welfare and Security, which, under the Protection of the Almighty, have enabled the British Navy thus gloriously to distinguish their Conduct and Valour. The unexampled Successes of your Majesty's Fleets, and the Destruction of those of the Enemy, encourage us to look forward with increasing Expectation for the Arrival of that Period, when the Disturbers of the Happiness of the Human Race, humbled and defeated in their wild Projects of Anarchy and Conquest, may discover their own Interest in putting a Stop to the Ravages of War, and in acceding to such Terms of Pacification as shall be equitable and permanent.

May your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of your People, and continue to enjoy the highest Gratification of your paternal Feelings in the Consciousness of having promoted, extended, and secured the Prosperity, Happiness, and Safety of those over whom you are appointed to reign, and in receiving their grateful and well-merited Applause.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 2d Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1798.

[Presented by John Dent, Esq; and the Honorable Richard Penn, Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Principal Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, in Common-Council assembled, beg your Majesty's Permission to approach the Throne, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, to congratulate your Majesty on the important and decisive Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of our gallant Countryman Sir Horatio Nelson. May this brilliant Event (perpetuating to your Majesty the Sovereignty of the Seas) abate the Pride and check the wild exterminating Progress of an inveterate Enemy: And may it, under the Divine Providence, tend effectually to the Security of your Majesty's Dominions, and the Happiness of those who are submitted to your Sovereign Protection; and speedily to produce the greatest of all Blessings and the best Object of all Conflicts, a just and honorable Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, this 30th Day of October, 1798.

James Mingay, Mayor.

[Presented by James Mingay, Esq; Mayor of Thetford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the signal Success which, by Favor of Divine Providence, hath been vouchsafed to your Majesty's Arms, and particularly on the very brilliant Victory obtained by Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson; a Victory more decisive in itself, and more important in its Consequences, than is recorded in the Annals of this or any other Nation.

Convinced, as we are, of the Importance of the Contest in which we are engaged, and that a successful Termination of it can only be attained by the most vigorous Exertions, we beg to assure your Majesty, that we shall most cheerfully and readily concur, to the utmost of our Power, in giving Effect to those Measures which, by manifesting the Spirit and Resources of this Country, may promote the Restoration of Peace on such secure and honorable Terms as will be consistent with the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the permanent Security and Independence of the British Empire.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington, Speaker of the House of Commons, Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Devizes, in the County of Wilts, humbly approach your Majesty with our heartfelt Congratulations on the late Successes with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless the Efforts of your Majesty's Arms, and particularly on the decisive Victory obtained by Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson; an Event unparalleled in the History of this or of any other Nation.

Deeply impressed with a Sense of the Importance of the Contest in which your Majesty is engaged, and fully convinced that a successful Termination of it can only be accomplished by the Exertions which the Crisis demands, we shall cheerfully concur, to the utmost of our Power, in giving Effect to those Measures which, by manifesting the Vigour and Firmness of this Country, may promote the Restoration of Peace on such a Foundation as will be consistent with the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, and the permanent Security of the British Empire.

Given under our Common Seal, the 7th Day of November, in the Thirty-ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

By Order of Council,

Stephen Powell, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington, Speaker of the House of Commons, Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, animated by every Sentiment of Gratitude for the many Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, beg Leave humbly to address and warmly to congratulate your Majesty on the late brilliant and decisive Victories obtained by your Majesty's Arms under the Command of Admiral Lord Nelson and Sir John Borlase Warren.

The former has extended the Fame of the British Arms in Asia and Africa, and has been the happy Instrument of saving whole Countries from the Miseries which the System of our Enemies would have introduced among them.

The latter has happily frustrated their Designs in our Sister Island.

Next to the devout Acknowledgments of the Mercies of the Almighty, which, we conceive, have been in some Measure drawn down on this Country by that National Spirit of religious Gratitude for past Favors, of which your Majesty has given so august an Example, we cannot sufficiently express our Admiration of the Skill, Energy, and Valor of our Commanders, and of the Discipline, Zeal, and Intrepidity of our gallant Seamen and Marines.

With the most heartfelt Satisfaction we perceive the Unanimity that pervades all Ranks of People in Defence of your Majesty, and of our happy Constitution; and we trust, that by Means of this patriotic Ardor in the Nation, and of Wisdom and Firmness in your Majesty's Councils, under the Protection of Providence, the Cause of social Order, good Government, and true Religion, will at last be successful.

That the Blessings of a secure, honorable, and lasting Peace may soon be granted to your Majesty's Dominions, and that your Majesty may long reign over a united and happy People, is the fervent Wish of your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Char. Poulton, Mayor, Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Addington, Speaker of the House of Commons, and Recorder of Reading, accompanied by Francis Annesley and John Simeon, Esquires, Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Borough of Huntingdon, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the glorious and decisive Victory gained near the Port of Alexandria by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson; a Victory so important in its Consequences, not only to your Majesty's Kingdoms, but to all the other Estates of Europe, whose Safety and even Existence are endangered by the restless Ambition and overbearing Power of France.

We feel our Joy on this happy Occasion renewed by the recent Defeat of the French Armament, off the Coast of Ireland, by Sir John Borlase Warren, who has thus, by his gallant Exertion, again baffled the Attempts of our inveterate Enemies against our Sister Kingdom, crushed the Hopes of those who have been seduced into Rebellion against their King and Country, and given Confidence and Security to your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

That it may please the Almighty to bless your Majesty's Arms with a Continuance of similar Successes, so long as the Necessity of maintaining this unhappy Contest shall last; that every Attempt of your Enemies against your Crown and Government may be frustrated, and that you may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, prosperous, and happy People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under the Common Seal of this Corporation, the 13th Day of November, 1798.

[Presented by the Earl of Sandwich, Recorder.]

St. James's, November 17, 1798.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Plymouth, beg Leave to offer your Majesty our warmest Congratulations on the Victory with which Divine Providence has been pleased to bless your Majesty's Arms, in the tremendous Conflict of the British Fleet under the gallant Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, with the Fleet of France, off the Mouth of the Nile; a Victory almost without Example, decisive, glorious, and important, conferring immortal Honor on the brave and faithful Executors of your Majesty's wife and vigorous Councils, and, we trust, pregnant with the Tranquillity of Europe.

With equal thankfulness to our Divine Protector, who hath prospered your Majesty's paternal Vigilance for the Security of our Sister Kingdom from Invasion, by the late signal Defeat and almost total Capture of the hostile Squadron off the Irish Coast, happily accomplished by the Squadron under your Majesty's gallant Commodore Sir John Borlase Warren, and other Ships of your Majesty's Navy; permit us, Sire, to express with equal Zeal our Congratulations on this Event, so critically, so immediately, and even sensibly interesting to our internal Tranquillity, at the present awful Moment of scarcely extinguished Rebellion in that unhappy Country.

In reflecting on these Events, it is, we trust, an honest Exultation which we indulge in the triumphant Energies of the British Navy, persuaded as we are that the Principles of Republican France are hostile to the best Interests of Society; and that, from the wild Projects of her turbulent Ambition, the Security of your Majesty's Throne, and of all the Happiness that we enjoy under a political Constitution of distinguished Excellence, has its firmest Basis in the Naval Superiority of Britain.

Barth. Dunsterville, Mayor,
At the Request, and on the Behalf of the public Meeting.

[Transmitted by Bartholomew Dunsterville, Esq; Mayor of Plymouth.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the States of the Island of Alderney assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the States of the Island of Alderney assembled, beg Leave, with the greatest Respect to offer to your Majesty our sincere and warmest Congratulations on the late splendid and decisive Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet, commanded by Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, near the Nile, over a most daring, blasphemous, and unprincipled Foe.

We also greatly rejoice at the recent brilliant Exploit of the British Navy under the Command of Sir John Borlase Warren, in the Capture of the Enemy's Ships off the Coast of Ireland, and in the total Discomfiture of their insidious Projects on that Kingdom: We devoutly pray the Almighty God of Battles, to continue His most gracious Favour to your Majesty's Arms for the Honor and Glory of His Holy Name, and of the Christian Religion.

We further request your Majesty's Acceptance of our most sincere and humble Thanks for the effective Protection which this Island enjoys from your Majesty's Ships, and for the several skilful, brave, and attentive Officers, selected from Time to Time, by your Majesty's Orders, to the Command of the respective Squadrons that have been, and now are on this Station; we pledge ourselves that no Exertion of ours shall be wanting to repel the Attacks of our implacable Neighbours; who daily threaten to wrest this Island from your Majesty's mild and paternal Government.

[Transmitted by Governor Le Mesurier.]

Whitehall, November 12, 1798

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Half past Six o'Clock in the Evening of Tuesday the 6th Instant, George Edmund Shuttleworth, Son of John Shuttleworth, of Sun-Tavern Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Esq; was forcibly seized by Two or more Men in Back-Lane, near the Turnpike-Gate, in the Parish of St. George in the East, who, after having blindfolded and gagged him, dragged him to a Place called Botany-Bay, near the New Road, where with the most horrid Imprecations they forced him into a Hackney-Coach, threatening to blow out his Brains if he made the least Noise or Resistance; that One of the Men got into the Coach with him the said George Edmund Shuttleworth, and that the other, as he imagines, rode upon the Box with the Coachman: that after having gone on a considerable Time, the Coach stopt, as it is supposed, in or near Chick-Lane, now called West-Street, West Smithfield, from whence the said George Edmund Shuttleworth was conducted through some Alleys or Passages, and put into a private Room, set upon a Chair, and informed, that if he stirred, made the least Noise, or attempted to take the Bandage from his Eyes, or the Gag from his Mouth, he would be done for; that after keeping him in this Situation for Forty-eight Hours without any Sustainment, except a small Piece of Bread, and taking from him all his Money, (except Three Shillings,) they conveyed him through several Windings into West-Smithfield aforesaid, where they disengaged him the said George Edmund Shuttleworth, saying "he might go and be damned, for he was not the Person they wanted:"
