Westminster, November 20, 1798.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Events which have taken place in the Course of the present Year, and the signal Success which, by the Blessing of Providence, has attended My Arms, have been productive of the happiest Consequences, and have essentially promoted the Prosperity and Glory of Our Country.

The unexampled Series of Our Naval Triumphs has received fresh Splendor from the memorable and decisive Action in which a Detachment of My Fleet, under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson, attacked and almost totally destroyed a superior Force of the Enemy, strengthened by every Advantage of Situation: By this great and brilliant Victory, an Enterprize of which the Injustice, Perfidy, and Extravagance, had fixed the Attention of the World, and which was peculiarly directed against some of the most valuable Interests of the British Empire, has, in the first Instance, been turned to the Confusion of its Authors; and the Blow thus given to the Power and Influence of France has afforded an Opening which, if improved by suitable Exertions on the Part of other Powers, may lead to the general Deliverance of Europe.

The Wisdom and Magnanimity so eminently displayed at this Conjunction by the Emperor of Russia, and the Decision and Vigour of the Ottoman Porte, have shewn that those Powers are impressed with a just Sense of the present Crisis; and their Example, joined to the Disposition manifested almost universally in the different Countries struggling under the Yoke of France, must be a powerful Encouragement to other States to adopt that vigorous Line of Conduct, which Experience has proved to be alone consistent with Security or Honor.

The Extent of Our Preparations at Home, and the Demonstrations of Zeal and Spirit among all Ranks of My Subjects, have deterred the Enemy from attempting to execute their vain Threat of invading the Coasts of this Kingdom.

In Ireland, the Rebellion which they had instigated has been curbed and repressed; the Troops which they landed for its Support have been compelled to surrender; and the Armaments since destined for the same Purpose have, by the Vigilance and Activity of My Squadrons, been captured or dispersed. The Views and Principles of those who, in Concert with Our inveterate Enemy, have long planned the Subversion of Our Constitution, have been fully detected and exposed, and their Treasons made manifest to the World. Those whom they had misled or seduced must now be awakened to their Duty; and a just Sense of the Miseries and Horrors which these traitorous Designs have produced, must impress on the Minds of all My faithful Subjects the Necessity of continuing to repel with Firmness every Attack on the Laws and established Government of their Country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Under the unavoidable Pressure of protracted War, it is a great Satisfaction to Me to observe, that the Produce of the Publick Revenue has proved fully adequate to the Increase of Our permanent Expenditure; that the National Credit has been maintained and improved; and that the Commerce and Industry of My Subjects have continued to flourish in a Degree hitherto unknown.

The Situation in which We are placed, unhappily renders the Continuance of heavy Expences indispensable for the Publick Safety. But the State of Our Resources, and the good Sense and Publick Spirit which prevail through every Part of My Kingdom, will, I trust, enable you to provide the necessary Supplies without essential Inconvenience to My People, and with as little Addition as possible to the permanent Burdens of the State. The Progress made towards such a System by the Measures adopted in the last Session, and the Aid given to Publick Credit by the Plan for the Redemption of the Land Tax, have been attended with the most beneficial Effects, which you will, I am persuaded, omit no Opportunity to confirm and improve.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I rely with Confidence on the Continuance of your Exertions to enable Me ultimately to conduct the great Contest in which We are engaged to a safe and honorable Conclusion.

We have surmounted many and great Difficulties. Our Perseverance in a just Cause has been rewarded with distinguished Success; and Our present Situation, compared with that of other Countries, sufficiently proves how much, in a Period of general Danger and Calamity, the Security and Happiness of the British Nation have depended (under the Blessing of Providence) on its own Constancy, its Energy, and its Virtue.

Downing-Street, Nov. 20, 1798.

A Decree having been published by the French Directory, declaring, that all Persons Natives of, or originally belonging to Neutral Countries or Countries in Alliance with France, who may form a Part of the Crews of any of the King's Ships of War, or any other British Vessels, shall be considered and treated as Pirates; His Majesty has directed it to be signified to the Commissary for the French Prisoners in Great Britain, that if this Decree shall, in any Instance, be carried into Effect against any such Persons taken in any Vessels the Property of His Majesty, or of His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated under the British Flag, it is His Majesty's Determination to exercise the most vigorous Retaliation against the Subjects of the French Republic, whom the Chance of War has now placed, or may hereafter place, at the King's Disposal.

Admiralty-Office, November 20, 1798.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Sir John Borlase Warren, K. B. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board the Canada, Plymouth-Dock, 18th November, 1798.

SIR,

I Have been waiting with great Anxiety the Arrival of the Robust and La Hoche at this Port to enable me to make a Return of the Killed and Wounded in the different Ships under my Orders upon the 12th October last; but, as I understand those Ships may be still further detained by Repairs at Lough Swilly, I send the inclosed, which it was impossible for me to obtain before the present Moment, as the whole Squadron was separated in Chace of the flying Enemy, and have successively arrived at this Port; it was impracticable, therefore, to communicate the Particulars to their Lordships sooner, or to state the very gallant Conduct of Captains Thornbrough and De Courcy, in the Robust and Magnanime, who, from their Position in the Van on that Day, were enabled to close with the Enemy early in the Action, and were zealously and bravely seconded by every other Ship of the Squadron, as well as by the Intrepidity displayed by the Anson in the Evening, in obeying my Signal to harass the Enemy, and in beating off their Frigates.

For further Particulars I refer their Lordships to the Letters they may have received from Captains Countess and Moore of the Ethalion and Melampus.

I am happy in reflecting that so many Advantages to His Majesty's Arms have been purchased with so inconsiderable a Loss in the Ships of the Squadron.

I have the Honor to remain, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

JOHN WARREN.

Whitehall, November 12, 1798

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that about Half past Six o'Clock in the Evening of Tuesday the 6th Instant, George Edmund Shuttleworth, Son of John Shuttleworth, of Sun-Tavern

Fields, in the County of Middlesex, Esq; was forcibly seized by Two or more Men in Back-Lane, near the Turnpike-Gate, in the Parish of St. George in the East, who, after having blindfolded and gagged him, dragged;

him to a Place called Botany-Bay, near the New Road, where with the most horrid Imprecations they forced him into a Hackney-Coach, threatening to blow out his Brains if he made the least Noise or Resistance; that One of the Men got into the Coach with him the said George Edmund Shuttleworth, and that the other, as he imagines, rode upon the Box with the Coachman: that after having gone on a considerable Time, the Coach stopt, as it is supposed, in or near Chick-Lane, now called West-Street, West Smithfield, from whence the said George Edmund Shuttleworth was conducted through some Alleys or Passages, and put into a private Room, set upon a Chair, and informed, that if he stirred, made the least Noise, or attempted to take the Bandage from his Eyes, or the Gag from his Mouth, he would be done for: that after keeping him in this Situation for Forty-eight Hours without any Sustenance, except a small Piece of Bread, and taking from him all his Money, (except Three Shillings,) they conveyed him through several Windings into West-Smithfield aforesaid, where they disengaged him the said George Edmund Shuttleworth, saying "he might go and be damned, for he was not the Person they wanted."

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the atrocious Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement the Sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me, John Shuttleworth.
