

him to a Place called Botany-Bay, near the New Road, where with the most horrid Imprecations they forced him into a Hackney-Coach, threatening to blow out his Brains if he made the least Noise or Resistance; that One of the Men got into the Coach with him the said George Edmund Shuttleworth, and that the other, as he imagines, rode upon the Box with the Coachman: that after having gone on a considerable Time, the Coach stopt, as it is supposed, in or near Chick-Lane, now called West-Street, West Smithfield, from whence the said George Edmund Shuttleworth was conducted through some Alleys or Passages, and put into a private Room, set upon a Chair, and informed, that if he stirred, made the least Noise, or attempted to take the Bandage from his Eyes, or the Gag from his Mouth, he would be done for: that after keeping him in this Situation for Forty-eight Hours without any Sustenance, except a small Piece of Bread, and taking from him all his Money, (except Three Shillings,) they conveyed him through several Windings into West-Smithfield aforesaid, where they disengaged him the said George Edmund Shuttleworth, saying "he might go and be damned, for he was not the Person they wanted."

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the atrocious Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement the Sum of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by me, John Shuttleworth.
