Lieutenant Alexander Plunket, of the 88th Foot, having never joined since his Appointment.
Ensign William Steele, of the Scotch Brigade.

Downing-Street, November 20, 1798.

A Decree having been published by the French Directory, declaring, that all Persons Natives of, or originally belonging to Neutral Countries, or Countries in Alliance with France, who may form a Part of the Crews of any of the King's Ships of War, or any other British Vessels, shall be considered and treated as Pirates; His Majesty has directed it to be signified to the Commissary for the French Prisoners in Great Britain, that if this Decree shall, in any Instance, be carried into Effect against any such Persons taken in any Vessels the Property of His Majesty, or of His Majesty's Subjects, and navigated under the British Flag, it is His Majesty's Determination to exercise the most rigorous Retaliation against the Subjects of the French Republic, whom the Chance of War has now placed, or may hereafter place, at the King's Disposal.

NOTICE to MARINERS.

Copenhagen, August 30, 1798.

IN order to render those Mariners who frequent the Port of Bergen more confident of their Situation when on that Coast, particularly when sailing to and from the said Port by Skuddenees, a new Lantern-Light has been erected on the Point of that Naze, which will begin to burn on the 1st of January, 1799, and continue on the same Regulations as the Rest of the Lights, viz. during the Summer, from Easter till Michaelmas, when it will be lit One Hour after the Setting of the Sun; and during the Winter, from Michaelmas till Easter, it then being lit Half an Hour after the Setting of the Sun, and continuing to burn till Day-light. It is further made known, that this Lantern will be hoisted on a Mast or Pole, close to which a Shied is built and painted White; therefore the same must be seen very plainly in those Directions in which it presents itself to View. The Lantern will be about Three Hundred Feet above the Surface of the Water. It is already known that there has long been a Coal-Light on the Isles of Hvidding, and a Lantern-Light close to Hoyvarden, the latter serving when one has entered Carmsound, to assist in choosing a good Berth to anchor in. Whenever one may wish to bear away for the Bay and enter Carmsound, one ought, with due Attention, be able to distinguish the Light of Skuddenees and Hvidding Isles. This last, which is suspended between Two Poles, gives a Blaze-Light, but that on the Skuddenees, as has been observed, is a Lantern, and gives a clear and steady Light; and besides, this Light cannot be seen when one comes from the Westward, unless one is so much to the Southward that the Cliff of Giæstongen does not interrupt the View of it, or that you have it due N. E. by E. : And in this Point of the Compass, the Navigation is clear from Hvidding Isles; one may therefore, if one got Sight first of one Light, and were in Doubt a short Time which of them it was, steer a little East, for were it Skuddenees Light that appeared, one would shortly after see the Blaze of Hvidding Isles, unless it were a Fog, hazy Weather, or Snow Storm. If, however, by steering more to the Eastward, another Light does soon appear, it must naturally be that on Hvidding Isles, and one may then by Soundings set one's Course accordingly and take a View of the other, since, if from the Situation of Skuddenees Light being hidden from the high Land, a Light appears more to the Eastward, than due N. E. by E. be assured it must be Hvidding Isles. Knowing this, one may with Safety keep under Skuddenees, as one may now by the new Light know to a Certainty where the Bite is, and accordingly run in under the Land, and so into Carmsound. When one comes near the Smorf-takken, one may expect to see all the Three Lights; and again, if the Light of Skuddenees is hidden by the high Land, then the Two others, particularly that close to Hoyvarden, will prove sufficient to direct one to a good Anchorage in this Harbour. But if one is unacquainted, and will not venture to run into Carmsound without Pilot, or other Obstacles presenting themselves, then the Lights on the Isle of Hvidding and Skuddenees will prove a remarkable Assistance to those who find themselves obliged to cruize here during the Night; but in that Case it is absolutely necessary to be particularly attentive that the Current (which is frequently very strong here) does not drive the Vessel on either Side.

St. James's, November 23, 1798.

THE following Address, having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Grace presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale, approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt Congratulations on the late most important Victories which have been gained by your Fleets under the Command of Lord Nelson and Sir John Borlase Warren, Baronet.

We view with the warmest Gratitude these signal Interpositions of Divine Providence for defeating the Designs of our Enemies against the Liberties of this Country and the Prosperity of the British Empire.

It is no less our Inclination than our Duty to cherish in the People under our Care an affectionate Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the excellent Constitution under which we have the Happiness to live.

We shall not fail to inculcate upon them a just Sense of the Goodness of God to us as a Nation, and to excite them to a steady Regard to the Doctrine and Duties of our holy Religion, as the most effectual Means of promoting both their own Happiness and the Welfare of the State.

That the Blessing of God may attend your Majesty's Arms, and crown with Success your Exertions for the Restoration of an honorable and lasting Peace, and that your Reign may be long and prosperous, is the sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and most faithful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Lothian and Tweeddale.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Robert Dickson, Moderator.

Edinburgh, 13th Nov. 1798.

Whitehall, November 27.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom; to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien; and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace; that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there:

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

If any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing; Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools; he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board; and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster; or in the Court of Session in Scotland; or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Essoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland; to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland; or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers, suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

Admiralty-Office, October 19, 1798.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol-Delivery for the Trial of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Thursday the 29th Day of November next, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.
