From Tuesday January 1, to Saturday January 5, 1799.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of December, 1798,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should to enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant December; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for the Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant December to the Twenty-eighth Day of February next inclusive:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of December, 1798.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and infectious Disease of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since manifested itself at Philadelphia, Boston, and New York, has totally ceased; His Majesty taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine laid by His Majesty's Orders in Council, bearing Date the 23th of September and the 24th Days of October last respectively, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandize, arriving or to arrive from Philadelphia, or any Port within the State of Pennsylvania, or from Boston and New York, or from any of the Ports within the Provinces of Massachusetts Bay and New York, be taken off: And that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings without unpacking, opening, and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Orders of the 28th of September and the 24th of October last respectively had not been made, any Thing in the said Orders contained to the contrary notwithstanding. And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commishonors for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly; and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for extending the Time allowed for taking out Certificates for using or wearing Armorial Bearings or Ensigns until the Fifteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

An Act for allowing farther Time for the Payment of Instalments to become due, on certain Sums advanced by Way of Loan, to certain Persons connected with, and trading to, the Islands of Grenada and Saint Vincent's.

An Act to continue, until the First Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Seven, on the Second Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, intitled, "An Act to continue, until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, Two several Acts, passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Years of His present Majesty, the one, Chapter Thirty-two, on the Tenth Day of March, and the other, Chapter Sixty-one, on the Twenty-fifth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for suspending, for a limited Time, the Operation of certain Acts made in the Fifteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for restraining the Negotiation of Promissory Notes and Bills of Exchange, under a limited Sum, within that Part of Great Britain called England;" and also to amend the said Act, and further to continue the fame, so amended, until the First Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

An Act to continue, until the First Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and amend an Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Chapter Two, videlicet, on the Thirtieth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, intituled, "An Act to continue, until the Expiration of Thirty Days after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, an Act passed in the Session of Parliament of the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Years of His present Majesty, Chapter One Hundred and Thirty-seven, videlicet, on the Twentieth of July One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, intituled, An Act to continue an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to revive and continue, for a limited Time, and amend an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to allow the Banks, and certain Banking Companies, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to issue Notes for Sums under a certain Amount for a limited Time; and for indemnifying all Persons who have issued Notes for small Sums of Money, in that Part of the United Kingdom, for a limited Time."

An Act to continue, until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, an Act passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Chapter Fifteen, videlicet, on the Sixteenth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five; and also an Act passed in the same Year, Chapter Eighty, videlicet, on the Twenty-second Day of March One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five; and also another Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His present Majesty, Chapter Seventy-six, videlicet, on the Fourteenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, relating to the Admission of certain Articles of Merchandize in Neutral Ships, and the issuing of Orders in Council for that Purpose; and to continue for the same Period an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Years of His present Majesty, Chapter Twenty-one, videlicet, on the Twenty-eighth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, authorising His Majesty to make Regulations respecting the Trade and Commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope.

And Two Private Acts.

IN pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to amend and continue, until One Month after the Conclusion of the present War, the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Session of Parliament of the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Years of His present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-one, videlicet, on the Twenty-second of June, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for the Restriction on Payments of Cash by the Bank;" I do hereby give Notice, that the Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England did on this Day notify to me, "that, on and after the 14th Instant, the Bank will pay in Cash all Fractional Sums under Five "Pounds; and that, on and after the 1st of February next, the Bank will pay Cash for all Notes of One and Two Pounds Value, that are dated prior to the 1st of July, 1798, or exchange them for new Notes of the same Value, at the Option of the Holders."

Given under my Hand, the 4th January, 1799.

Whitehall, January 5.

As several Artificers and Manufaclurers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufaclurers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufaclurers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brads, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

Upon Complaint made, upon Oath, before any Justice of Peace, that any Person is endeavouring to seduce any such Artificer, or that any such Artificer hath contracted or is preparing to go out of His Majesty's Dominions, for the Purposes aforesaid, such Justice may send his Warrant to bring the Person complained of before him, or before some other Justice; and if it shall appear by the Oath of One Witness, or by Confession, that he was guilty of any of the said Offences, such Justice may bind him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any of the above Offences shall be committed in Scotland, the same shall be prosecuted in the Court of Justiciary or the Circuits there.

Statute 23 George II. Chap. 13.

IF any Person shall contract with, or endeavour to seduce any Artificer in Wool, Mohair, Cotton, or Silk, or in Iron, Steel, Brads, or other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, to go out of this Kingdom or Ireland into any Foreign Country not within the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall be convicted, upon Indictment or Information, in the King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, &c. wherein such Offence shall be committed in England, or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland, or by Indictment or Information in the King's Bench at Dublin, if such Offence be committed in Ireland; the Person so convicted shall, for every Artificer contracted with or seduced, forfeit FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted for Twelve Calendar Months, and until Forfeiture be paid: And in case of a subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Persons so again offending shall forfeit, for every Person contracted with or seduced, ONE THOUSAND POUNDS, and shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County or Stewartry wherein such Offender shall be convicted, for Two Years, and until such Forfeiture be paid.

If any Person in Great Britain or Ireland shall put on board any Ship or Boat, not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain, any such Tools or Utensils as are commonly used in, or proper for the Preparing, Working up, or Finishing of the Woollen or Silk Manufactures, or any Part of such Tools, he shall, for every Offence, forfeit all such Tools, or Parts thereof, put on board, and TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered by Action of Debt, &c. in any Court of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Session in Scotland, or at any of the Four Courts in Dublin respectively, wherein no Effoin, &c. shall be allowed.

It shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or for any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, to seize and secure, in some of His Majesty's Warehouses, all such Tools or Utensils prohibited to be exported, as such Officer shall find on board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

St. James's, January 2, 1799.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, beg Leave, with unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment, and with the utmost Respect, to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the great and glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Arms under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson over the French Fleet at the Mouth of the Nile.

An Event so decisive and important in itself, as to have excited the Admiration of Europe, when combined with the other many and signal Successes of your Majesty's Forces both at Home and Abroad, cannot fail of striking Terror and Dismay into the Hearts of your Enemies. And we humbly hope, that, under the Blessing of Almighty God, and through the Energy and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, seconded as they have hitherto been, and we doubt not ever will be, by the undegenerated Courage, Enterprize, and Skill of your Fleets and Armies, and by the unexampled Zeal and Unanimity displayed by all Descriptions of your Subjects; it may be the Means of attaining that first and most anxious Wish of your Majesty's Heart, and the great End and Object to which all our Exertions have been directed, the free and uninterrupted Enjoyment of our Laws, our Liberties, and our Religion, in a secure, permanent, and honorable Peace.

May the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe and Great Disposer of all Events grant to our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may, in the Possession of Health and Happiness, long continue to reign over these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and united People.

James Trotter, High Sheriff.

December 31, 1798.

[Presented by James Trotter, Esq; High Sheriff of the County of Surrey.]

Carlton-House, January 5, 1799.

Office for managing the Affairs of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

By ORDER of the EARL CHOLMONDELEY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that every Creditor of His Royal Highness is to deliver into this Office, within Ten Days from the Date hereof, a Particular, in Writing, containing the Nature and Amount of any Debt, signed by him or her, that may have accrued within the Quarter ending this Day; and all Debts or Demands, of what Nature or Kind soever, which shall not be presented as aforesaid, and within the Time limited as aforesaid, are not, under any Pretence or Colour of Authority whatever, to be paid, satisfied, or discharged, nor any Part thereof, but are barred both at Law and in Equity: And all Bonds, Bills, Notes, or other Securities for Money, given or made in consideration of any Debt or Demand, whereof the Particulars in Writing are not delivered as aforesaid, are to all Intents and Purposes null and void.

See the Act of the 35th of His present Majesty, for settling an Annuity on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and other Purposes. Cap. 129. Sec. 32.

Tim. Brent, Secretary.

Whitehall, December 27, 1798.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of the 4th Ultimo, Thomas Dade, of Otley, Grocer, going from thence to Leeds, was stopped in the Fields near Spen-Lane, by Three Footpads, (one of which was dressed in Woman's Cloaths) and robbed of 195 l. most of which was in Bank Notes.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Robbery above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any One of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Thomas Dade.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
January 1, 1799.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters-Hall, in London, on Wednesday the 13th Day of March next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undernamed Estates will be let on Leases to commence upon the 12th Day of May next, as below expressed, that is to say; the Lands, Mill, and Collieries at Throckley, High-green, the Sneepe, and Black Crag, and Greenhaugh Collieries, in the Barony of Wark; and Low Rawgreen Copyhold Farm, with the Ground adjoining thereto, which is allotted for the said Farm, on the Division of Hexhamsbire Common, in the Parish of Hexham; which said Premises are in the County of Northumberland.

All Persons desirous to take any of the said Estates, are requested to deliver or send their Proposals, in Writing, to John Ibbetson, Esq; at Greenwich Hospital, at any Time before the 13th Day of March next, or on that Day, before the Hour of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at Salters-Hall, in London, after which Hour no Proposals will be received.

Mr. William Jobling, of Newtonhall, will shew the Lands and Mill at Throckley; and Mr. George Sample, of Highwood, the Farm at Low Rawgreen; and for Particulars respecting the Collieries at Throckley, apply to Messrs. IRISH LIFE-ANNUITIES,
 With Benefit of Survivorship.

London, December 26, 1798.

THE Subscribers to the Life-Annuities, established in Ireland in the Years 1773, 1775, and 1777, who are to be paid in London, may receive Six Months Annuity, due at Christmas last, at Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lushington, and Boldero, Bankers, No. 30, Cornhill, in the following Manner, viz.

The first Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Forty Years and upwards) from the 15th of January to the 18th ditto, both Days inclusive, from Ten in the Forenoon, until Two in the Afternoon.

The second Class in each (consisting of Nominees of the Age of Twenty Years and upwards, but under Forty) from the 22d ditto to the 25th ditto, both Days inclusive.

The third Class in each (consisting of Nominees under the Age of Twenty Years) from the 29th ditto to the 1st of February, both Days inclusive, and from the 5th of February to the 8th ditto, both Days inclusive.

Those of each Class remaining unpaid will be paid every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday following, during the same Hours.

The Debentures to be produced, and a Certificate of the Life of the Nominee, otherwise a personal Appearance will be required; and it is particularly requested, upon the Demise of the Nominee, that the Debentures may be delivered in as above, to be transmitted to Ireland, to render the Lists of Deaths complete, for the future Benefit and Regulation of each Class: And as the earliest Information should be obtained of the Occurrences which affect a Reversionary Property, wherein so many Individuals are concerned, it is further requested of any Person, who may discover any Fraud or Imposition on these Annuities, to give Notice thereof, with all convenient Speed, to Messrs. Boldero, Adey, Lushington, and Boldero.

The Public are requested to attend on the Days allotted for the Payment of the different Classes, and to take Notice, that in case any Person, who, by the Intent of the Act of Parliament providing for the Payment of these Annuities, shall neglect to demand the same for the Space of Three Years from the Receipt of their last Dividend, he or she shall for ever lose and forfeit the same, as if his or her respective Nominee had been dead at the Commencement of the said Three Years.

By Order,
 WM. CARR, Secretary.
