St. James's, January 11, 1799.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Grace presented to the King, which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Petersfield.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Petersfield, earnestly embrace this Opportunity to prefer our Sentiments of dutiful Regard for your Majesty's Welfare, and for the Happiness of your Majesty's Illustrious Family.

The Victories recently obtained by the Gallantry of the British Navy naturally become the Subject of our Congratulation; permit us, Sir, to state, that we cannot enough admire the Skill and Intrepidity which the Officers have displayed in their different Situations; nor are we enabled properly to express our Feelings of Gratitude towards the Sailors, Marines, and Soldiers, through whose whole Courage and extraordinary Exertions these glorious Achievements were completed.

These Victories, splendid as they are; derive a still greater Importance from their probable Consequences; we trust they check the Insolence of an oppressive and unprincipled Enemy, and that they will be productive of Peace and effectual Security to the British Dominions.
