Milan, April 24.

LIr Governor has occafioned feveral pieces of Cannon to be brought from Pavia, to fupply fuch places as want. The new Fortifications that are refolved to be made, will be gone on with, and all other things done (as far as the prefent circumflances of things will allow) to put this Countrey in a poffure of Defence, although the danger feems not at prefent fo great, at leaft to thole that are not in the feeret of affairs, as it did a Most hor two fince.

Bruffels, May 9. This morning the Great Council was Affembled, from Ten in the morning till Two in the afternoon. Don Pedro Ronquillo, who is to fucceed the Marquis de Bourgamanero, as Envoye Extraordinary from the King of Spain to the Court of England, is now ready to begin his journey; and it's believed, the fame Yacht that brings over the Marquis, will transport Don Pedro thither. Our Letters from Mons (which are confirmed by he paffengers that come from thence) fay, that 10 or 1 2000 French were drawing together in that neighborhood, with what defign was not known. The news we have from Germany, of the Leagues that are negotiating at the Courts of leveral Princes, by the Ministers of the King of England, and of the dispositions the Emperors Minillers find the 'Princes of the Empire they are fent to, in, gives people here great encouragement, and feems very much to fortifie them againft the apprehentions the motions of their neighbors may justly give them.

Amfterdam, May 14. As to the proceedings of the States of Holland, we can only repeat what has been often faid already, to wit, that they are not as yet come to any refolution in the matter of the monrys they are to raife, but it's hoped they will now very speedily, the occasions of the State requiring it. The Heer Zitters, who goes Ambalfador to England, will begin his Voyage this Week. Upon his arrival in England, the Heer Van Leeuwen will immediately leave that Court, and return home. There is a report of fome dif.rders lately happened at Hertogenbosch, of which we have not yet the Particulars.

Hague, May 14. The States of Holland having had a fhort rec'is fince laft Saturday, met again this day, and are endeavouring to finith the great bufinefs (which has employed them folong) about finding a Fond to defray the neceffary Charges of the prefent year, wherein it's believed they will make a confiderable Progrefs this week. As foon as they have fetted this important affair, they will Adjourn till the latter end of the next Month; during which recefs the Prince of Orange intends to goe for Gelderland to hunt, and the Princefs is now fo well that the will accompany his Highnel's thither; and accordingly preparations are making for their Journey. The French who maké themfelves every day more and more unealy to the Elector Palatine, have lately feized upon foveral Cafiles blonging to him, and befides pretend to great Arrears of Contributions: Whereupon His Electoral Highnels has very carnelly defired this State to interpole their good Offices with the molt Chri-flian King in his behalf, which they have promi-fed to do in the molt effectual manner. The Elector of Cologne, finding the several Instances he had made to this state, concerning the restitution of Haffelt and Maseyck, to have been hitherto without any effect, has it feems applied himfelf to the French King, that he would concern himfelf in this affair, who has accordingly fent Orders to his Am-balfador here to interpole with the States, that the faid places may be reflored to the Elector. From Berlin we have an account, That the Englifh and Imperial Minifters are very active in their N-gotiations at that Court, which they promife themselves a good succ is in, and that the French Envoy, the Sieur Rabenac, had received an abfolute Denial from the Elector to the Propositions he had made him.

Pendemnis, May 3. On Friday last in the morning failed the Firginia Ships mentioned in our last, the Wind then blowing a very fresh Gale at N. In the Evening the Wind changed, and the next day they were forced to put in here again.

Lime, May 5. Yesterday and the day before, a confiderable Fleet. of Ships was feen in this Bay plying to the Eaflward, being bound home from the Streights: By fome Veffels put into this Port we have an account, That this Fleet came from Tan-gier the beginning of April, That the Moors 1 ad then run a Trench between the Town and Charles Fort, in order, as was helieved, to the Atracking the latter, which was very well provided, and made ftronger by fome new Fortifications; That there were feveral Men of War in the Road, who, if there were occasion could supply the Town with a con-(derable number of Scamen; That they were dai-ly expecting the Arrival of the Fames Galley and the Swan Frigat with 400 m n from Ireland, which would be a great reinforcement to the Garifon; and that the Adventure, Captain Booth Commander. after an Engagement of feveral hours with an Algierine of 32 Guns, had forced har alhoar, where the Ship and most of the Turks perished, Captain Booth having fived a great many Christians, of which feveral were English, and fome of them belonging to this Town:

Windfor, May 8. The following Addreffes have been preferied to His Majelly, that from the County of Norfolk by the Right Honourable the Earl of Tarmouth, and that from Lynn by the Lord Pafton.

To the Kings Moft Excellent Majefty,

The humble Address of your Majeslies Loyal Subjrcs, your Majeslies Justices of the Peace, and the Grand Inquesis for the County of Norfolk (at their
