

was arrived there. Our Letters from Denmark say that the King of Sweden met his Queen the 15th Instant at a place called Schorstorf, where he consummated his Marriage, and the next day their Majesties went thence to Helmsstadt. It is expected that Wisnar will now in few days be delivered up to the Swedes. Amsterdam, May 28. The States of Holland, before their last recess, resolved to send a Deputation to this City, to dispose them to agree with the other Towns concerning the raising the Monies which has taken up so much of their time; but they deferred putting it in execution till their remeeting this day, when if they come not to a resolution in this matter, the said Deputation will be made. The Heer Van Hemskirke, Ambassador from this State to the King of Spain, begun his Journey this day, as the Heer Zitters, who goes with the same Character for England, will do about the beginning of the next week. The Spanish Envoy at the Hague has given in to the States General a very sharp Memorial concerning the French proceedings in Flanders, which we are told the French Ambassador is much nettled at, and is going to Answer by a Memorial he intends likewise to present to the States. It was reported that the Elector of Trier had written to the French King, to acquaint him that he did submit the matters in difference between them to his Majesties Determination; But our Letters from that Electors Court assure us of the contrary. So soon as the States of Holland are separated, the Prince and Princes of Orange intend to make a turn to Breda.

Hague, May 28. The Spanish Envoy who presented the last week a very long Memorial to the States General, concerning the proceedings of the French in Flanders, is it's said preparing another upon the same subject; and at the same time we are told the French Ambassador will not remain idle, but that he will Answer those Memorials by others as sharp, which will appear in few days. From Germany they write of nothing but the new pretensions of the French in the Palatinate and elsewhere, and of their seizing upon those places which they pretend to be dependencies of their Conquests. Those Letters add, That the Bishop of Witsburg had been summoned to quit the Title of Duke of Franconia, which the French King lays belongs only to himself; which being lookt upon as a thing of great consequence, the Germans are no less concerned at it than the Spaniards are to have their Kings Title of Duke of Burgundy disputed. The Heer Zitters, who goes Ambassador for England, will certainly part hence some time the next week. The States of Holland having been separated since last Friday, they are to meet again to-morrow, when it's hoped they will agree upon the method of raising the Moneys they have been so long debating about. The Prince of Orange went last Saturday for Gelderland to Hunt, and is expected back this Evening.

Philip le Mar and Frances Loveland, his Mother, were brought to their Trials upon an Indictment for conspiring against the Duke of Buckingham, to charge him with Sodomy &c. and were found Guilty.

William Gaven and John O-Cullen were tryed as Romish Priests: the first was acquitted, the other being an Irish man, (who as he was going for Ireland by Sea, was put ashore by stress of Weather, and there Apprehended) The Jury brought in a special Verdict, and it is left to the Law to determine whether he be within the Statute.
