

The Affair lasted the greater Part of the Day; and although the French at first gained some Ground, they were afterwards completely repulsed; and General Yellachitz's Corps reoccupied all its former Posts, except Brunnen, of which the Enemy retained Possession on the Evening of the 3d, but from whence he was also repulsed the next Morning.

Major-General Yellachitz bestows great Praise on the Conduct of the Contingent Troops of the Cantons of Glavis and Schweitz.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROBT. CRAUFURD

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Craufurd to Lord Grenville, dated Zurich, 7th July, 1799.

I Have much Satisfaction in being able to inform your Lordship, that in consequence of the total Defeat of General Macdonald's Army and the Retreat of Moreau, General Haddick's Corps, the Destination of which has been so frequently changed, is now decidedly on the Point of entering the Valais.

St. James's, July 17, 1799.

THE following Address from the British Inhabitants of Bombay and its Dependencies, was this Day presented to the King by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and was received by His Majesty in a very gracious Manner.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects the British Inhabitants of Bombay and its Dependencies, animated by an ardent Zeal for our Country, which we trust will ever be the distinguishing Characteristic of Britons, have exerted our best Endeavours, by a general Contribution in support of the present just and necessary War in which we are engaged, in Opposition to an unprovoked Combination of your Majesty's Enemies. Reflecting with equal Pride and Gratitude on the Blessings we derive from a Constitution which has elevated the National Character through Ages; and by the Security it affords to Religion, Liberty, and Property, has roused and maintained a Spirit of Commercial Adventure equally productive of Public Wealth and Individual Prosperity, it became our Duty as well as our earnest Inclination to unite for its Protection. Of this invaluable System we look up to your Majesty, under the Divine Ruler of the Universe, as the faithful Guardian, and as further endeared to us by those amiable Personal Virtues which are the peculiar Ornaments of your Character.

We feel particular Pleasure at this Period in congratulating your Majesty on the late Success, which, by the Blessing of God, your Naval Arms have obtained in the Mediterranean under Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, against an inveterate and usurping Foe, whose Hostility is directed to the Destruction of every Tie that can bind Society in good Order and Government. A Victory, which, while it has eminently displayed the Wisdom and Vigilance of Your Majesty's Counsels, in the Means of its Attainment, and the Bravery and good Conduct of your Officers in its Accomplishment, has averted from your Subjects in this remote Situation an intended Blow which threatened their Existence.

While we express to your Majesty the Exertions of your British Subjects here in the Public Cause, it is with much additional Satisfaction that we fulfil a Duty incumbent upon us in conveying to you the unfolicited Concurrence we have experienced in the Natives of this Island, through their different Casts, and the Aid they have afforded on the present Occasion; Effects which can only be ascribed to the benign Influence of your Majesty's Government in the Support and Protection of all to whom it is extended.

With the most fervent Wishes for the long Continuance of your Majesty's Reign with Increase of Glory and Prosperity, and the Enjoyment of your Domestic Felicity, we have the Honor of subscribing ourselves, with the warmest Sentiments of Veneration and Gratitude;

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
