Copy of a Letter from George Losack, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Jupiter, to Ewan Nepean, Esq; dated in Table-Bay, Cape of Good Hope, February 25, 1799.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter I have received from Captain Henry Lidgbird Ball, of His Majesty's Ship the Dædalus, stating the Particulars of the Capture of La Prudente French National Frigate, in Latitude 31 Deg. 30 Min. South, Longitude 33 Deg. 20 Min. East.

La Prudente is a fine Ship, but the Repairs she would require to fit her for His Majesty's Service would, in this Country, amount to a large Sum of Money, in my Opinion more than the Ship is worth. I have, therefore, declined taking her into His Majesty's Service.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

GEO. LOSACK.

His Majesty's Ship Dædalus, Table-Bay, Cape of Good Hope, February 16, 1799.

SIR,

I Have the Pleasure to inform you, that on the 9th Instant, in Latitude 31 Deg. 30 Min. South, Longitude 33 Deg. 20 Min. East, a little past Day-light in the Morning, we saw Two Sail on the Star-board-Bow; perceiving One to be a large Ship, gave Chace to her at Six. At Half-past Twelve P. M. came up alongside of the Chace, and brought her to Action; in Fifty-seven Minutes after which she struck. She proved to be La Prudente French National Frigate, from the Isle of France, manned with Two Hundred and Ninety-seven Men, and mounts Twenty-six Twelve-Pounders on the Main-Deck, Two long Six-Pounders and Two Brass Howitzers on the Quarter-Deck; she is pierced for Forty-two Guns, Fourteen on a Side, besides the Bridle-Port on the Main-Deck; was built at Brett about Eight Years since, and is a very fine large Ship. The Ship in her Company, when we first saw her, was an American, which they had sent on to the Isle of France as a Prize. It is with great Satisfaction that I communicate the Capture of La Prudente, being one of the Frigates which has done so much Injury to our Trade in the East Indies for some Time past.

All the Officers and Ship's Company of His Majesty's Ship under my Command behaved to my full Satisfaction during the Action; and I beg to recommend in the strongest Terms the First Lieutenant Mr. Nicholas Tucker, who is now in charge of the Prize.

Enclosed I transmit a List of the Killed and Wounded on board the Two Ships.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

H. L. BALL.

To George Losack, Esq; &c. &c. &c.

Cape of Good Hope.

Return of the Killed and Wounded on board His Majesty's Ship Dædalus, and the French National Frigate La Prudente.

Dædalus.—One Seaman and One Marine killed.

Eleven Seamen and One Marine wounded.

La Prudente.—Twenty-seven Men killed.

Twenty-two Men wounded.

H. L. BALL.

Downing-Street, July 23, 1799.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Extracts, were this Day received from the Right Honorable Lord Henley by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

Extract of a Letter from Lord Henley to Lord Grenville, dated Vienna, July 6, 1799.

THE Letters from Constantinople of the 18th past state, that Official Intelligence had been received by the Turkish Government from Acri, that the Garrison of that Place had made, on the 21st of May, a general Sally against the Army of General Buonaparte, had completely defeated it, and put a great Part of it to the Sword; that General Buonaparte had, in consequence found himself obliged to set Fire to his Camp and Baggage, and to avail himself of the Darkness of the Night to retire towards Joppa; that Gezzar Pacha had immediately not only sent his Cavalry in pursuit of him, but had dispatched Orders to the proper Places, in as far as might be possible to straiten or cut off his Retreat; and that the Heads of Thirteen French Generals and Three Hundred French Officers, sent by different Tartars, had arrived at Constantinople, and had been exposed, according to Custom, on the Gate of the Palace, with a suitable Inscription.

A second Messenger from Marshal Suwarrow, dispatched from Alexandria on the 1st Instant, is just arrived. I am informed that, besides a detailed Relation of the brilliant Successes of the Imperial Army on the 17th, 18th, and 19th past, and by which it appears, that the Loss of the French amounts in all to Twenty Thousand Men Killed and taken Prisoners, he brings an Account of the Austrians having re-occupied the Town of Tortona.

Extract of a Letter from Lord Henley to Lord Grenville, dated July 9, 1799.

AN Express arrived Yesterday with Dispatches from General Kray of the 1st Instant, mentioning the Surrender of Bologna, by Capitulation, to General Klennau, on the preceding Day.

In Addition to the Intelligence which I lately conveyed to your Lordship of the Defeat of General Buonaparte, and his Flight towards Joppa, I have now to state, that this Government has received Official Accounts from Constantinople, dated the 22d past, that Joppa had been taken by the Allied Force (meaning, it is to be supposed, that under Sir Sidney Smith and a Body of Turks); that Buonaparte had reached El Arift, on the Frontier of Syria, in his Flight; and that it was scarcely to be believed that in his present Circumstances of Distress he would be able to gain in Safety the Egyptian Side of the Desert.

Extract of a Letter from Lord Henley to Lord Grenville, dated Vienna, July 11, 1799.

IT is with great and unfeigned Pleasure that I inform your Lordship, that a Messenger arrived here about an Hour ago from Florence, with Letters dated the Evening of the 6th Instant, stating, that on the preceding Day the People having assembled in great Force, and cut down what is styled the Tree of Liberty, the French Sentinels and Corps de Garde had retired into the Forts, and that the following Day all the French Troops had left that Town and Pistoia, and marched towards Leghorn; the old Magistrates had immediately resumed their Functions, and had replaced the Arms of the Grand Duke in the Places from which they had been taken down. No Disorder whatever had taken place, and the greatest Demonstrations of Joy had been exhibited by all Ranks of People.

General Klenau writes on the 7th from Bologna, that in consequence of the Instances of the Magistrates of Florence, he had sent thither a Detachment of Troops under the Command of Colonel D'Aspre; these Troops were attacked by the French Garrison that marched out of Bologna, but succeeded in repelling them.

IN pursuance of the Directions of an Act, passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts, made in the Tenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament in the Manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other Provisions for the like Purposes;" I do hereby give Notice, that it hath been certified to me in Writing under the Hands of Two Members of Parliament, that Sir John Scott, late Member of Parliament for the Borough of Boroughbridge, in the County of Suffolk, is become a Peer of Great Britain, and summoned to Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new Writt for the electing of a Burgess to serve in this present Parliament for the said Borough, in the Room of the said Sir John Scott, now a Peer of Great Britain, and summoned to Parliament as aforesaid, at the End of Fourteen Days after the Insertion of this Notice in the Gazette. Dated the Twenty-first Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.
