Admiralty-Office, August 3, 1799.

Copy of a Letter from Sir William Sydney Smith, Knight, Captain of His Majesty's Ship Tigre, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Acre, the 3d of May, 1799.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to enclose you Copies of my Letters to Earl Saint Vincent, of the 7th of April and 2d Instant, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; as also a Sketch of the Position of the Forces. The Enemy have made Two Attempts since Yesterday Morning to force the Two English Ravelines, but were repulsed with Loss. The Works have now Cannon mounted on them, and are nearly completed. We have thus the Satisfaction of finding ourselves, on the Forty-sixth Day of the Siege, in a better State of Defence than we were the First Day the Enemy opened their Trenches, notwithstanding the Increase of the Breach which they continue to batter with Effect; and the Garrison, having occasionally closed with the Enemy in several Sorties, feel greater Confidence that they shall be able to resist an Assault, for which they are prepared.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

W. SIDNEY SMITH.

*Tigre, Saint Jean D'Acre Bay,
April 7, 1799.*

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that as soon as the Return of fine Weather, after the Equinoctial Gale, allowed me to approach this unsheltered Anchorage, I resumed my Station in the Bay with the Squadron under my Orders. I found the Enemy had profited, by our forced Absence, to push their Approaches to the Counterescarp, and even into the Ditch of the North East Angle of the Town-Wall, where they were employed in mining the Tower, to increase a Breach they had already made in it, and which had been found impracticable when they attempted to storm on the 1st Instant. The Alliance and Prize Gun-Boats, which had been caught in the Gale, had fortunately rode it out except One; and Captain Wilmot had been so indefatigable in mounting the Prize Guns, under the Direction of an able Officer of Engineers, Colonel Phelipeaux, that the Fire therefrom had already slackened that of the Enemy; still, however, much was to be apprehended from the Effect of the Mine, and a Sortie was determined on, in which the British Marines and Seamen were to force their Way into it, while the Turkish Troops attacked the Enemy's Trenches on the Right and Left. The Sally took place this Morning just before Daylight; the Impetuosity and Noise of the Turks rendered the Attempt to surprize the Enemy abortive, though in other Respects they did their Part well. Lieutenant Wright, who commanded the Seaman-Pioneer, notwithstanding he received Two Shot in his Right Arm as he advanced, entered the Mine with the Pikemen, and proceeded to the Bottom of it, where he verified its Direction, and destroyed all that could be destroyed in its then State, by pulling down the Supporters. Colonel Douglas, to whom I had given the necessary Step of Rank to enable him to command the Turkish Colonels, supported the Seamen in this desperate Service with his usual Gallantry, under the increased Fire of the Enemy, bringing off Lieutenant Wright, who had scarcely Strength left to get out of the Enemy's Trench, from which they were not dislodged, as also Mr. Janverin, Midshipman of the Tigre, and the Rest of the Wounded. The Action, altogether, speaks for itself, and says more than could be said by me in Praise of all concerned. I feel doubly indebted to Colonel Douglas for having preserved my gallant Friend Lieutenant Wright, whose Life, I am happy to say, is not despaired of by the Surgeon. We have, however, to lament the Loss of a brave and tried Officer, Major Oldfield, who commanded the Theseus's Marines, and fell gloriously on this Occasion, with Two of the Men under his Command. Our Loss in Wounded is Twenty-three, among which is Lieutenant Beatty, of the Marines, slightly. The Turks brought in above Sixty Heads, a greater Number of Musquets, and some intrenching Tools, much wanted in the Garrison. A further Attack on the Enemy's Second Parallel was not to be attempted without a greater Number of Regular Troops. The Return of the Detachment was well covered by the Theseus's Fire, Captain Miller having taken an excellent Position to that Effect.

The Result of our Day's Work is, that we have taught the Besiegers to respect the Enemy they have to deal with, so as to keep at a greater Distance. The Apprehensions of the Garrison are quieted as to the Effect of the Mine, which we have besides learnt how to countermine with Advantage, and more Time is gained for the Arrival of the Reinforcements daily expected.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

W. SIDNEY SMITH.

Vincent, Commander in Chief, &c. &c. &c.*

Tigre, moored under the Walls of Acre, May 2, 1799.

MY LORD,
THE Enemy continue to make the most vigorous Efforts to overcome our Resistance in the Defence of this Place. The Garrison has made occasional Sorties protected by our small Boats on their Flank with Field Pieces, in which the most essential Service has been performed by Lieutenant Brodie and Mr. Atkinson of the Thefeus, and Mr. Joes, Master of the Tigre, who commanded them.

Yesterday the Enemy, after many Hours heavy Cannonade from Thirty Pieces of Artillery brought from Jaffa, made a Fourth Attempt to mount the Breach, now much widened; but were repulsed with Loss. The Tigre moored on one Side and the Thefeus on the other flank the Town Walls; the Gun Boats, Launches, and other Rowing Boats continue to flank the Enemy's Trenches to their great Annoyance. Nothing but Desperation can induce them to make the Sort of Attempts they do to mount a Breach practicable only by the Means of Scaling Ladders, under such a Fire as we pour in upon them; and it is impossible to see the Lives even of our Enemies thus sacrificed, and so much Bravery misapplied, without Regret. Our Loss is as per List enclosed, and we have therein to lament some of the bravest and best among us. Captain Wilmot was shot on the 8th Ultimo, by a Rifleman, as he was mounting a Howitzer on the Breach: his Loss is severely felt.

We have run out a Ravelin on each Side of the Enemy's nearest Approach, in which the Marines of the Tigre and Thefeus have worked under a heavy and incessant Fire from the Enemy in a Way that commands the Admiration and Gratitude of the Turks, as it is evident the Flanking Fire produced from them contributed much to save the Place Yesterday. Colonel Phelipeaux, of the Engineers, who projected and superintended the Execution, has fallen a Sacrifice to his Zeal for this Service; want of Rest and Exposure to the Sun having given him a Fever, of which he died this Morning; our Grief for this Loss is excessive on every Account. Colonel Douglas supplies his Place, having hitherto carried on the Work under his Direction, and is indefatigable in completing it for the Reception of Cannon. I must not omit to mention, to the Credit of the Turks, that they fetch the Gabions, Farcines, and those Materials which the Garrison does not afford, from the Face of the Enemy's Works, setting Fire to what they cannot bring away. The Enemy repair in One Night all the Mischief we do them in the Day, and continue within Half Pistol Shot of the Walls in spite of the constant Fire kept up from the Ramparts under the Direction of Lieutenant Knight.

I hope I need not assure your Lordship that we shall continue to do our Duty to the utmost of our Power, in spite of all Obstacles; among which, Climate, as it affects Health; and the exposed Nature of our rocky Anchorage, are the most formidable, since they are not to be overcome, which I trust the Enemy are by our Exertions.

I am, &c. &c.

W. SIDNEY SMITH.

Admiralty-Office, August 3, 1799.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Christopher Anderson, Commander of the Bull Dog Privateer, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated in the River of Vienna, Portugal, the 11th July, 1799.

I Take the Liberty to acquaint you that on the 7th Instant, being in Vigo Bay, I took and destroyed Four small Coasters, having on board empty Pipes from Ferrol to Vigo, and sent the Crews on Shore in a Fishing Boat. On the 9th, coming out of Marim Bay, fell in with the El Juego Spanish Schooner Privateer, commanded by Remao Rodrigues Trelles, of Ten Muskets, Ten Pistols, and Ten Sabres, manned with Sixteen stout Men, of the Burthen of about Ten Tons, quite new and coppered, had come from Ferrol Two Days before, and had not taken any Thing; which Vessel I brought to this Place.

HIS Majesty having reviewed the Yeomanry Cavalry and Volunteer Corps of the County of Kent, at the Mote, the Seat of the Right Honorable Lord Romney, Lord Lieutenant of the County, on the 1st Instant, the following Letter was, by His Majesty's Command, written to his Lordship on the Occasion, by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

MY LORD, The Mote, August 1, 1799.

I HAVE His Majesty's Commands to express the extreme Gratification he has received in reviewing the Volunteer Corps of the County of Kent. Notwithstanding all the Reports of their good Conduct, Loyalty, and Proficiency in their Military Duties; their Appearance in His Majesty's Presence has far exceeded the most sanguine Expectation. I trust you will communicate to them, in the most forcible Manner you can, His Majesty's most cordial Approbation; I confess myself unequal to the Charge of doing it in Terms sufficiently expressive of His Majesty's Feelings.

I have it specially in Command from His Majesty to mention to your Lordship, that the Military Appearance of the Volunteer Corps of the County of Kent was but one Ingredient in that heartfelt Satisfaction His Majesty has this Day experienced in contemplating a Display of those Virtues and Manners which distinguish the genuine Character of Englishmen, and that however much it may be improved, will never be impaired by the Example of the Person to whom His Majesty has committed the Charge of this great and respectable County.

The particular Day chosen for this Review naturally brought to His Majesty's Contemplation the Circumstances which, in securing the Constitution, placed at the same Time his Family on the Throne of these Kingdoms, and after a Lapse of almost a Century, during which the same System of Liberty and Law has remained inviolate, the Manifestations of Loyalty and Attachment His Majesty has met with have sunk deep into his Heart, and made an Impression which never can be effaced.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

HENRY DUNDAS.

Whitehall, July 26, 1799.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that several Accidents have lately happened to some of the Powder Works belonging to Mr. John Butts on Hounslow Heath, and that there is great Reason to believe that the Whole or Part of the same was wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said malicious Acts, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to, or by other Means occasioned the said Calamities,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, July 23, 1799.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Monday the 8th Day of this instant July, about Half past One o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. William Rutter, Sitter of the Custom-House Boat stationed at Lymington, within the Port of Southampton, in the County of Hants, being out upon Duty with Four of his Men in the said Boat to the Westward of Hurst Castle, near Mineway, he observed a Vessel coming in from Sea towards the Shore, which, suspecting to be employed in smuggling, he ordered his Men to row towards her for the Purpose of cutting her off from the Shore: that on coming near the said Vessel Mr. Rutter discovered her to be a Luggier of between Twenty and Thirty Tons Burthen, with Black Canvas Waistcloths and Tallowed Bottom, carrying a Tanned Mainsail, White Foresail, Mizzen, and Jib; and about Two o'Clock the same Morning when he got within Forty Fards of the said Luggier, near a Place called Beacon Bunny, about Three Hundred Yards from the Shore, he hailed her and enquired what Luggier she was, upon which one of the Crew who was standing by the After-Part of the Mainsail, which had been hoisted a few Minutes before, asked "What Boat is that?" and being answered that it was the Custom-House Boat, he told Mr. Rutter, that he must not come on board but keep off. Mr. Rutter then told the Crew on board the Luggier to haul down their Sails, as he should come on board of them presently, upon which the same Person again asked what Boat it was, and upon being answered that it was the Lymington Custom-House Boat, some Person on board the Luggier, and who was standing near the Afterpart of the Mainsail, immediately fired with a Blunderbuss or Gun at the Boat, by which Charles Colborne, one of Mr. Rutter's Boatmen, was killed, and William Lyne, another of his Boatmen, was severely wounded in the Right Arm: that Mr. Rutter then requested the Persons on board the Luggier not to fire again, and they were told what had happened to the Custom-House Boat, but no Answer being returned, he directed the Remainder of his Men to row off as fast as possible. The said Luggier was afterwards observed about Three Leagues to the Westward of the Needles, steering to the Southward.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended.

PORTLAND.

Custom-House, London, July, 1799.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. Hume, Secretary.

To the Honorable Court of Justice of the Rivers, and the Dependent Districts of Demerary, &c. &c.

JACOBUS SCHOEMAKER, and S. P. Bishop, as Administrators of the Estate of the late S. A. Verichun, humbly represent to your Honors, not only that the Infolvency of the said Estate has been fully proved, but also that they have no Funds in Hand to cultivate the Plantation belonging to the said Estate, situate in Mahayka, and called Ons Genoege; and that the same rather goes behindhand for want of a sufficient Number of Hands, which cannot prove otherwise than highly prejudicial to the Concerned.—Wherefore they have resolved to dispose of the said Plantation by public Sale, to the highest Bidder, in pursuance to your Honors' Act respecting Insolvent Estates; or the Sale of Effects under Execution. But seeing that the short Terms allowed by the said Act will greatly diminish the Purchase Price, and it is very probable that if this Plantation could be sold at a Term of Two or Three Years, it would produce a considerable Deal more to the Estate, and thus prove of greater Security and Benefit to the Creditors at large; but as your Honors' Authority and Sanction is required to do all this, the Petitioners, in their aforesaid Capacities, take the Liberty to address themselves to your Honors, to authorize them to sell the said Plantation (after being duly advertised) by public Sale, and that upon the following Conditions, viz.

One Fourth Part of the Purchase Money at the Sale and Delivery of the Plantation

One Fourth Part one Year after.

One Fourth Part another Year after.

And the remaining One Fourth Part another Year after, together with Interest on the unpaid Terms. Or otherwise, on such Conditions as your Honors may think more proper and convenient, imploring your Honors' favourable Direction herein. In so doing, &c. &c.

(Signed) JACOBUS SCHOEMAKER.
S. P. BISHOP.

On the Back is the DECREE.

The Court authorises the Petitioners q. q. to sell the Plantation Ons Genoege, mentioned in the before-written Petition, by public Sale, after being duly advertised, referring in that Respect to their Honors' Placard, dated 20th of May, 1777, and the 29th Article, of the Regulation of the Manner of proceeding therein mentioned, without entering for the Rest at present, upon the Request relating to the Terms therein fixed.

Done in the Court of Justice of the Rivers and District of Demerary, this 9th of April, 1799, Lowerfood, (in my Presence,) was signed.

Agrees with the Original, existing with the Secretary; quod attestor,
