Whitehall, July 23, 1799.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Monday the 8th Day of this instant July, about Half past One o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. William Rutter, Sitter of the Custom-House Boat stationed at Lymington, within the Port of Southampton, in the County of Hants, being out upon Duty with Four of his Men in the said Boat to the Westward of Hurst Castle, near Mineway, he observed a Vessel coming in from Sea towards the Shore, which, suspecting to be employed in smuggling, he ordered his Men to row towards her for the Purpose of cutting her off from the Shore: that on coming near the said Vessel Mr. Rutter discovered her to be a Luggur of between Twenty and Thirty Tons Burthen, with Black Canvas Waiscloths and Tallowed Bottom, carrying a Tamed Mainsail, White Foresail, Mizzen, and Jib; and about Two o'Clock the same Morning when he got within Forty Yards of the said Luggur, near a Place called Beacon Bunny, about Three Hundred Yards from the Shore, he hailed her and enquired what Luggur she was, upon which one of the Crew who was standing by the After-Part of the Mainsail, which had been hoisted a few Minutes before, asked "What Boat is that?" and being answered that it was the Custom-House Boat, he told Mr. Rutter, that he must not come on board but keep off. Mr. Rutter then told the Crew on board the Luggur to haul down their Sails, as he should come on board of them presently, upon which the same Person again asked what Boat it was, and upon being answered that it was the Lymington Custom-House Boat, some Person on board the Luggur, and who was standing near the Afterpart of the Mainsail, immediately fired with a Blunderbuss or Gun at the Boat, by which Charles Colborne, one of Mr. Rutter's Boatmen, was killed, and William Lyne, another of his Boatmen, was severely wounded in the Right Arm: that Mr. Rutter then requested the Persons on board the Luggur not to fire again, and they were told what had happened to the Custom-House Boat, but no Answer being returned, he directed the Remainder of his Men to row off as fast as possible. The said Luggur was afterwards observed about Three Leagues to the Westward of the Needles, steering to the Southward.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders (except the Person who actually fired) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended.

PORTLAND.

Custom-House, London, July, 1799.

To the Honorable Court of Justice of the Rivers, and the Dependent Districts of Demerary, &c. &c.

JACOBUS SCHOEMAKER, and S. P. Bishop, as Administrators of the Estate of the late S. A. Verschuur, humbly represent to your Honors, not only that the Insolvency of the said Estate has been fully proved, but also that they have no Funds in Hand, to cultivate the Plantation belonging to the said Estate, situate in Mahayka, and called Ons Genoegen; and that the same rather goes behindhand for want of a sufficient Number of Hands, which cannot prove otherwise than highly prejudicial to the Concerned.—Wherefore they have resolved to dispose of the said Plantation by public Sale, to the highest Bidder, in pursuance to your Honors' Act respecting Insolvent Estates; or the Sale of Effects under Execution. But seeing that the short Terms allowed by the said Act will greatly diminish the Purchase Price, and it is very probable that if this Plantation could be sold at a Term of Two or Three Years, it would produce a considerable Deal more to the Estate, and thus prove of greater Security and Benefit to the Creditors at large; but as your Honors' Authority and Sanction is required to do all this, the Petitioners, in their aforesaid Capacities, take the Liberty to address themselves to your Honors, to authorize them to sell the said Plantation (after being duly advertised) by public Sale, and that upon the following Conditions, viz.

One Fourth Part of the Purchase Money at the Sale and Delivery of the Plantation

One Fourth Part one Year after.

One Fourth Part another Year after.

And the remaining One Fourth Part another Year after, together with Interest on the unpaid Terms. Or otherwise, on such Conditions as your Honors may think more proper and convenient, imploring your Honors' favourable Direction herein. In so doing, &c. &c.

(Signed) JACOBUS SCHOEMAKER.
S. P. BISHOP.

On the Back is the DECREE.

The Court authorises the Petitioners q. q. to sell the Plantation Ons Genoegen, mentioned in the before-written Petition, by public Sale, after being duly advertised, referring in that Respect to their Honors' Placard, dated 20th of May, 1777, and the 29th Article, of the Regulation of the Manner of proceeding therein mentioned, without entering for the Rest at present, upon the Request relating to the Terms therein fixed.

Done in the Court of Justice of the Rivers and District of Demerary, this 9th of April, 1799, Lowerstood, (in my Presence,) was signed.

Agrees with the Original, existing with the Secretary; quod attestor,
