ON the 12th of September last I the Reverend John Griffith, Clerk, wrote a Letter to Thomas Butterworth Bayley, Esquire, of Hope, near Manchester, reflecting on his Conduct as a Magistrate, relative to the Execution of one George Russell, for Croft breaking; and I also sent Duplicates of such Letter to Peter Drinkwater, Esq; John Leaf, Esq; to Mr. Edward Chehyre, of Manchester, Solicitor, and Mr. William Waters, the Deputy Constable of Manchester. Mr. Bayley, in consequence, instituted a Prosecution against me for a Libel, to which I pleaded the General Issue; but upon Reflection I am fully convinced that the Purport of the above-mentioned Letter, and the Expressions therein used were improper and unmerited; I have therefore withdrawn my Plea, and I conceive that this public Apology is a Matter of strict Justice to Mr. Bayley.
