Milan, May 16:

THE Officers are very diligent in making their recruits, and we are told that the Count de Casati, Ambassador from the King of Spain, with the Suisse-Cantons, has orders sent him to make a considerable levy in that Country. The Fortifications of Valenza are almost finished, Leghorne, May 18. By a Vessel arrived from Argiers we have an account, that those People were in great trouble for the news they had received of three of their men of War being destroyed by the English Frigats, and for that they had an account that Canary had been stranded on the Coast of Barbary by the said Frigats, which they gave the more credit to, for that they had had not any news of him in a long while, and that he was expected home the latter end of the last Month. The Peace with the States General of the United Provinces was ratified, and had been published at Argiers.

Genova, May 22. The 20th Instant Sailed this States Convoey for Cadix, and with it several English Merchant Ships. The Delight, Captain Smith departed yesterday for Trapani, and three days since put into Final, four English Ships from Alicant, from whence they are sailed for Leghorne. Frequent Councils are held here, and by what is made publick of their Consultations, it seems they are full of fears of the French, and of the ill consequences their pretention concerning the first Salute may have.

Brague, May 25. The Emperor who is now at a place called Brandeys, removes thence in few days to the Swiss; Count Serini has been again examined, and his Officers seem to be in a very ill condition. We were in great apprehensions of the same, and it makes many people leave this Copenhagen, May 28. Most of the Ladies that waited upon the Queen of Sweden, are come back, their places being supplied by Suedes. We cannot yet certainly tell when our King begins his Journey for Holstein.

Hamburg, June 4. Sir Gabriel Silva, the King of England's Envoy, is gone from Zell to the Duke of Hanover's Court, from whence he will go to that of the Duke of Wolfemburg. On Sunday last several Danish Men of War, which have layn some time in the Elbe, sailed to the Sound.

Strasburg, May 31. The Baron de Monclar, Lieutenant General for the French in Alsace, is now at Landau, where the Army he is to Command will Rendezvous about the middle of the next Month, the Troops being to that end on their March; they will not, when together, make above 12 or 14000 men. The Duke of Deux-Ponts is Summoned to appear before the Royal Chamber at Metz.

Cologne, June 4. The Duke of Juliers continues at Aix-la-Chapelle. It is still doubt d whether he will accept of the Government of the Spanish Netherlands. From Ratisbonne we hear that daily complaints are made to the Dyet by the Princes who suffer by the Proceedings of the French, though without obtaining any redress, the consideration of the state of Affairs in the Empire keeping the Dyet from taking the resolutions they otherwise without doubt would.

Lille, June 2. Four thousand Horse are come hither, and we expect more. They observe very good order in their March.

Brussels, June 2. We are assured that the Spanish Ordinary, which arrived three days since, brought Bills of Exchange for a considerable Sum of Money, to be made use of for the Service of this Government. The Marquis de Bourgomanero begins his Journey for Holland on Thursday next, but he will make a very short stay there, having Orders to hasten to the Emperors Court, where he is to Reside as Ambassador from the Crown of Spain. The Heer Van Heimskirken, Ambassador from the States General of the United Provinces to Spain, passed some days since through this City, on his Journey to Madrid. The Earl of Arran, Son to Duke Hamilton, who came hither some days since, went this Morning for Flanders.

Hague, June 7. This morning Mr. Sidney had a Conference with the Deputies of the States General for Forreign Affairs, who by order of the said States, communicated to him the Resolution they had taken upon the Memorial presented to them by the Spanish Envoy, concerning the proceedings of the French in Flanders, which was, to send Orders (which has been accordingly done) to their Ambassadors in France, to endeavour to procure the Spaniards satisfaction in the matters they complain of, and to advise continually, in what they do, with Mr. Savile, the King of Englands Minister there. The States have likewise Deputed some of their Members to the French Ambassador here, to desire his good Offices on this occasion: Of all which, Communication hath been likewise given to the Spanish Minister here. The States General received yesterday the Ratification of the late Treaty of Peace made with Argiers, which it's hoped that Government will now observe. The East-India Company having had advice by a French Vessel arrived at Rocher, that their Ships which are coming home were arrived safe at the Cape of Good Hope, the Actions of the Company are thereupon risen. Mr. Sidney having received the King's leave to return home for some weeks; and a Yacht waiting for him at the Briel he will Embark in a day or two.

Marseilles, May 28. The French Gallies, 30 in number, are now at Botoa, a Port about 7 Leagues to the Westward of this place, where they have been these six or seven days with fair weather, which makes it believed they have not yet received their
