Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 24, to Saturday September 28, 1799.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of September 1799,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honorable Isaac Corry, Chancellor of the Exchequer in Ireland, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable George Granville Levison Gower, Earl Gower, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Stafford, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of September 1799,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision, without Payment of Duty, to continue in Force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament;" it is enacted, That from and after the passing of the said Act, and until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and he and they is and are hereby authorized, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, whatever may be the general Average Price of any of the said Sorts of Corn, or of Oatmeal, in England or Scotland, respectively from Time to Time, when and as often as the same shall be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time, the Exportation from England and

Scotland respectively, of any British or Foreign Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Big, Peas, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt, made thereof, or any Indian Corn, or Maize, or Meal, or Flour made thereof; and to permit, generally, the Importation into England or Scotland respectively, of any Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel, belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also the taking out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, of any such Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition or Permission, either in Part, or in the Whole, (if Circumstances shall appear so to require,) any Thing in any Act, or Part of any Act, to the contrary notwithstanding, subject, nevertheless, to the Provisoes therein mentioned, and hereinafter contained: His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in him by the said Act, has thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this present Order, and until further Order, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export, or shall load, or lay on board any Ship or other Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer or Big, Peas, Beans, Oats, or any Meal or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof.

His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation, from this Kingdom, of any Foreign Corn, Meal, or Flour that shall have been imported and warehoused in the Manner and on the Conditions mentioned in an Act, passed in the Thirty-first Year
