AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of September 1799,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to encourage the Trade in the Levant Seas, by providing a more convenient Mode of performing Quarantine, and for reducing the Duty granted by an Act of the last Session on Goods the Manufacture of Great Britain, exported to any Place within the Streights of Gibraltar," it is declared to be expedient to permit Goods and

Merchandize to be imported from the Levant, under certain Regulations and Restrictions, without having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Ports or Places mentioned in an Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for enlarging and regulating the Trade into the Levant Seas." And it is enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from Time to Time, to grant Licence and Permission for the Importation into Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, coming from the Levant Seas, without clean Bills of Health, without such Goods and Merchandizes having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the Places mentioned in the said recited Act; and that all such Goods and Merchandizes shall and may be admitted to an Entry in any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, subject, nevertheless, to such Regulations, Rules, Orders, and Directions, with respect to opening and airing such Goods and Merchandizes previous to the landing thereof; and to the Performance of Quarantine by the Crews or other Persons belonging to or being on board of the Ships or Vessels in which such Goods or Merchandizes shall be imported, as His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, shall by any Order or Orders to be issued as aforesaid, make, prescribe, or direct; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas, by the Orders of His Majesty in Council now subsisting, all Ships and Vessels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, are subject to a Quarantine of Forty Days, and are required to unpack, open, and air their Cargoes at such Places, and for such Space of Time as are expressed in the said Orders: And whereas it appears to His Majesty, that it will tend to the greater Security of the public Health, and the better Prevention of all Danger of Infection being brought into this Kingdom, if such Ships as shall not be furnished with clean Bills of Health, be permitted to perform their Quarantine at one Place only, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Ships and Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, now arrived, or which may hereafter arrive from the Levant at any Port or Place in this Kingdom, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, without clean Bills of Health, and without having performed Quarantine in any of the Ports of the Mediterranean mentioned in the above-recited Act, passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Ma-
