

Parts we had only Twelve Feet Six Inches. On our approaching Medenblic at Noon, I made the Signals for the Dart and Gun Brigs to weigh and join me; and at Three P. M. I anchored with the Squadron off Enkhausen, and a Boat came off with Four Men wearing Orange Cockades; in consequence of which I went on Shore attended by the Captains;—we were received by all the Inhabitants with every Testimony of Joy at their Deliverance from their former tyrannical Government, and in the highest Degree expressive of their Loyalty and Attachment to the House of Orange.

I proceeded to the Stadthouse, and having summoned all the old and faithful Burgomasters, who had not taken the Oath to the Batavian Republic, I instantly reinstated them, until His Highness the Hereditary Prince of Orange's Instructions were received; to whom, and to His Royal Highness the Duke of York, I immediately sent an Express, and at the same Moment summoned before me and dissolved the Municipality, amidst the joyful Acclamations of the Inhabitants around the Stadthouse, Part of them at the same Time cutting down the Tree of Liberty, which they instantly burned; all of which was done in the most loyal, quiet, and regular Manner.

I have detached Capt. Boorder, in the Espeigle, with the Speedwell, to scour the Coast from Steveren to Lemmer; but previous to his going on that Service I sent him to Steveren, to bring me Intelligence of the Disposition of the Inhabitants: he returned Yesterday Morning with the pleasing Information of their having hoisted the Orange Colours, and most of the neighbouring Towns had done the same, and the Inhabitants joyfully complying with the same Terms as Enkhausen and Medenblic; I have likewise detached the Dart, with Two Gun-Brigs, to cut off the Communication with Amsterdam and the Towns in East Friezland, that have not returned to their Allegiance.

Our Appearance in the Zuyder Zee with such an unexpected Force has had a most wonderful and happy Effect, and given the greatest Confidence to those well disposed to the House of Orange.

I shall not lose a Moment's Time in moving forward, when the Wind and Tide will permit, to complete, as far as lays in my Power, what is finally intrusted to my Charge.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,
A. MITCHELL.

SIR, Triton, at Sea, September 13, 1799.
THIS Morning a Lugger came out of L'Orient, which, on coming near endeavoured to escape, but I got up with and captured her; she is called Le St. Jacques, mounts Six Four-Pounders, and Sixteen Men, bound to Rochefort with a Cargo of Shells, consisting of Six Hundred and Sixty-two of Thirteen Inches, with other Things. She belongs to the Republic, is new, and in good Condition.

I remain, &c. &c. &c.
JOHN GORE.

Rear-Admiral Sir John Warren, K. B.

Downing-Street, September 28, 1799.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been received from Lieutenant-Colonel Ramsay by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

MY LORD, Zurich, September 8, 1799.
I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that the Enemy made an Attack this Morning, with about Three Thousand Men, on the Post of Waldshoff, in Front of Zurich, occupied by about Six Hundred Men of the Russian Battalion of Essen.

The Enemy, by advancing rapidly, and availing themselves of the Darkness of the Night, contrived to fall rather unawares on a small advanced Piquet, and some Prisoners fell into his Hands at the Commencement of the Affair: terminated, however, in a Manner which, if it were possible, would add to the distinguished Reputation of the Russian Troops, and the Enemy were driven back to their Camp in great Disorder by the Battalion of Essen, who, without Hesitation, notwithstanding the disproportioned Superiority of the Enemy's Force, immediately advanced upon them and charged them with their Bayonets.

The Russians lost about Thirty Men killed and wounded; that of the French has not been ascertained, but there is Reason to suppose, from the Number of Dead left upon the Field, and other Circumstances, that it was more considerable.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
JOHN RAMSAY.
Right Honorable Lord Grenville,
