NOTICE is hereby given, that there will be a Levee at Saint James's on Wednesday the 16th Instant.

Commission in the Volunteer Association of St. Olave, in the Borough of Southwark, signed by His Majesty. Dated June 26, 1799.
George Atkinson, Gent. to be Ensign.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the County of Fife, in a General Meeting assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the County of Fife, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the most sincere Congratulations upon the brilliant Success with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless your Majesty's Arms both by Sea and Land in every Quarter of the Globe.

We feel with the utmost Gratitude your Majesty's unremitting Exertions and unceasing Solitude for the Prosperity and Happiness of your People; and we earnestly entreat your Majesty to place the firmest Reliance upon the steady and unshaken Loyalty of your Majesty's faithful Subjects in this County, and upon their most ardent Zeal in the Prosecution of the just and unavoidable War in which the Country is engaged.

Attached to your Majesty by every Principle of Duty, Gratitude, and Affection, and having a just Sense of the Blessings now so long enjoyed by this Country, we are determined to make every Effort to transmit those Blessings unimpaired to our Posterity, and to stand or fall with our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties.

We pray that the Great Disposer of all Events will long secure to your Majesty the happy Possession of the illustrious Crown of these Realms; and that you will long reign over a free, loyal, and happy People.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Craufurd.

Notice is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session, for an Act or Acts for improving the Navigation of the River Loyne, otherwise called Lune, within the several Townships of Thurnham, Ashton with Stodday, Bulk with Aldcliffe, Lancaster, Skerton, Heaton with Oxcliffe, and Overton, in the several Parishes of Cockerham and Lancaster, in the County-Palatine of Lancaster: and for making One or more Wet Dock or Wet Docks, and also One or more Graving Dock or Graving Docks, and other Conveniences, at or near a certain Place called or known by the Name of Thornbush, within the said Township of Thurnham: and also for the Purpose of making a Navigable Canal or Navigable Canals, from the said Place called Thornbush, to a certain other Place known by the Name of Glasson Dock, also within the said Township of Thurnham: and for explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual several Acts of Parliament, made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, and the Twelfth and Twenty-ninth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, for improving the Navigation of the said River Loyne, otherwise called Lune, and the other Purposes therein respectively mentioned.

Lancaster, September 10, 1799.

Whitehall, October 4, 1799.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that between the Night of the 28th and the Morning of the 30th Uliam, the Exchequer-Bill Office in St. Margaret-Street, Westminster, was feloniously broke open by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, and the undermentioned Bank Notes and other Articles were stolen, viz. No. 6923, dated 5th January 1793, 50 l.; No. 8096, dated 23d August 1799, 10 l.; Nos. 342, 343, 344, 345, dated 1st August 1799, 20 l. each; also several other Bank Notes of 10 l. and 20 l. each, the Numbers of which are at present unknown; a Gold enamelled Ring of Frederick the Second of Prussia; a Gold Sardonyx Ring, the Head of Cleopatra; a small plain Gold Seal; a Pair of plain Silver Shoe Buckles; a Pair of Stone Ditto; Two Pair of Stone Knee Buckles, One Pair Round, the other Oval; a Queen Elizabeth's Shilling.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the same,) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders by William James Cooke.

General Post-Office, Sept. 18, 1799.

Notice is hereby given, that Letters addressed to Persons serving with the Army under the Command of Field-Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of York, will be received at the Ship-Letter Office Twice instead of Once in the Week, viz. on Tuesday and Friday, from Ten in the Morning until Ten o'Clock at Night, and not on Thursday as mentioned in the Advertisement from the Office of the 10th Instant.

And that such Letters will be regularly forwarded in Vessels from Yarmouth to the Helder Point on the same Days as the Mails are sent to Cuxhaven.

An Half Rate of Postage, under the Act of the Thirty-ninth of His present Majesty, of Sixpence each Letter, One Shilling Double, One Shilling and Sixpence Treble, and so on in Proportion, will be demanded upon all Letters addressed to Officers and others, but those directed to Private Soldiers and Sailors will be forwarded for One Penny each single Letter, under the Act of the Thirty-fifth of His present Majesty.

And that Newspapers will also be forwarded at a Rate of Threepence upon each, provided such Paper is sent without Cover, or in Covers open at the Sides.

Two Mails from the Army may be expected to arrive in each Week.

By Command of His Majesty's Postmaster-General,
Francis Freeling, Secretary.
