

That the Commissioners and other Officers of His Majesty's Customs do use their utmost Diligence and Care that the Quarantine before directed be duly performed.

That the Commanders of His Majesty's Ships of War, as likewise the Commanders of His Majesty's Forts and Garrisons lying near the Sea Coasts, and all Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Chief Magistrates, Constables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and all other Officers and Ministers of Justice, be aiding and assisting to the said Officers of His Majesty's Customs, and to all others that shall be concerned in stopping all such Ships as aforesaid, and in bringing them to the Places appointed for the Performance of their Quarantine, and in due Performance thereof.

And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the Rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkenner.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th of October 1799.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for enabling His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Provision without Payment of Duty, to continue in Force until Six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament," it is enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, and until the Expiration of Six Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament, it should be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs, and Successors, and he and they were thereby authorized, with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, whatever might be the general Average Price of any of the said Sorts of Corn, or of Oatmeal, in England or Scotland respectively, from Time to Time, when, and as often as the same should be judged expedient, to prohibit generally, for a limited Time, the Exportation from England and Scotland respectively, of any British or Foreign Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer, or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt-made thereof, or any Indian Corn, or Maize, or Meal, or Flour, made thereof; and to permit generally the Importation into England or Scotland respectively, of any Foreign Corn or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also the taking out of Warehouse for Home Consumption, of any such Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and in like Manner to recall such Prohibition or Permission, either in Part or in the Whole, if Circumstances should appear so to require, any Thing in any Act, or Part of any Act to the contrary notwithstanding, subject, nevertheless, to the Provisions therein mentioned and hereinafter contained; which Act, by an Act of the present Session of Parliament, hath been continued till the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred; His Majesty therefore, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, and in pursuance of the Powers vested in him by the said Act, has thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this present Order, and until the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall export or shall load, or lay on board any Ship or other Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, any Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer, or Bigg, Pease, Beans, Oats, or any Meal, or Flour, or Bread, Biscuit, or Malt made thereof, or any Indian Corn, or Maize, or Meal or Flour made thereof:

His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to prohibit the Exportation from this Kingdom of any Foreign Corn, or Meal or Flour, that shall have been imported and warehoused in the Manner and on the Conditions mentioned in an Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on British Corn exported," and shall not have been taken out of such Warehouse for Home Consumption, nor to prevent the carrying Coastwise, or carrying out, or the Exportation of the several Sorts of Corn or other Articles as aforesaid from this Kingdom, for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Act passed in the Thirty-first Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for amending the last-mentioned Act or either of them, in like Manner, and in the same Proportions and Quantities, and from and to the same Ports and Places, as is allowed by the said Two Acts passed in the Thirty-first and Thirty-third Years of His present Majesty's Reign, or either of them, at such Times as any of the several Sorts of Corn or other Articles as aforesaid are prohibited to be exported, in consequence of the Provisions contained in the Two last-mentioned Acts, subject to the like Securities, Conditions, Regulations, and Restrictions, Forfeitures, and Penalties as are by the said Two Acts, or by either of them, in any such Case required and imposed.

And His Majesty, by and with the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the Date of this present Order, and until the Thirtieth Day of September One thousand eight hundred, it shall be lawful to import into any Port or Place of this Kingdom any Foreign Corn, or other Articles as aforesaid, in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with His Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of any Duty whatsoever; and also to take out of Warehouse, for Home Consumption, any such Foreign Corn, or
