

Art. VI. Any Ships of War or other Vessels which may arrive with Reinforcements for the Combined British and Russian Army, shall not land the same, and shall be sent away as soon as possible.

Art. VII. General Bruné shall be at Liberty to send an Officer within the Lines of the Zuyp and to the Helder, to report to him the State of the Batteries and the Progress of the Embarkation. His Royal Highness the Duke of York shall be equally at Liberty to send an Officer within the French and Batavian Lines, to satisfy himself that no new Works are carried on on their Side. An Officer of Rank and Distinction shall be sent from each Army respectively, to guarantee the Execution of this Convention.

Art. VIII. Eight Thousand Prisoners of War, French and Batavians, taken before the present Campaign, and now detained in England, shall be restored without Conditions to their respective Countries. The Proportion and the Choice of such Prisoners for each, to be determined between the Two Republics. Major-General Knox shall remain with the French Army to guarantee the Execution of this Article.

Art. IX. The Cartel agreed upon between the Two Armies for the Exchange of the Prisoners taken during the present Campaign, shall continue in full Force till it shall be carried into complete Execution; and it is further agreed that the Dutch Admiral De Winter shall be considered as exchanged.

Concluded at Alkmaer, the 18th of October, 1799, by the undersigned General Officers, furnished with full Powers to this Effect.
