Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the 24th of July last, a Smuggling Luger being observed by some Officers of the Revenue, in Cricketh or Kickith Bay, in the County of Carnarvon, then landing her Goods; Richard Bridgewater, Supervisor of Excise, Maurice Williams, Tide Surveyor of the Customs at Pullhely, in the said County, together with Two Tide Waiters and some other Officers in the Service of the Customs, went in a Boat in Pursuit of her: that when they came within about Three or Four Hundred Yards of the said Smuggling Vessel, (the Custom-House Colours being then flying in the Boat,) the Officers hailed her, upon which the Smugglers asked what Boat it was, and upon being told the King's Boat, they ordered the Officers to keep off or abide by the Consequence; but being told by the Officers that they should not, the Smugglers immediately fired a Musket, the Ball from which came very near the King's Boat; the Smugglers then fired Eight other Muskets, One of which passed between the Fore and Main-Mast of the King's Boat, and another close behind the Officer, Richard Bridgewater, and upon the Smugglers threatening to drive the Officers into the Water if they did not keep off, they returned without being able to board the said Smuggling Vessel.

The said Vessel is about Thirty-three Tons Burthen, Black Sides, and without a Name, and had about Eight or Twelve Hands on board, low Stern, very narrow Waist Gunnel, and supposed to have been built at Dover, or in that Part of the Coast.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Felony and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any One or more of the said Offenders, (except the Master or Commander on board the said Vessel, and the Person Persons who actually fired,) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended. PORTLAND.

Custom-House, London, October 1799.

And as a further Encouragement the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, (except as before excepted,) to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. Humm, Secretary.
