Custom-House, Woodbridge, Suffolk, Dec. 4, 1799.
Ship Vryheid, stranded on the Sea Shore, in Felixstow, in the County of Suffolk, on the 21st November 1798.

ALL those who have Claims or Demands to make upon the Cargo and Wreck of the said Ship are desired to send an Account thereof, on or before the 6th January next, to Robert Rislowe, Esq; Collector of the Customs, at the Port of Woodbridge, specifying the Particulars thereof, and the respective Bills of Lading, Marks, Brands, and other Documents, and Evidences to ascertain and prove the Property of the same when stranded, in order that those Matters may be duly weighed and taken into Consideration, and also the King's Duties which have attached thereon, or upon any Part of the said Cargo and Wreck, previous to a Meeting which soon afterwards is intended to be advertised, for the Purpose of rendering to every one what may clearly and justly appear to be his Due.

Lord Chancellor: Friday the 6th Day of December, in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, 1799, between the Honorable and Right Reverend Brownlow Lord Bishop of Winchester, John Sayer, Esq; and Samuel Compton Cox, Esq; Plaintiffs, Edward Beaver, Esq; (since deceased,) Thomas Skinner, Thomas Dyke, Elizabeth Jones, and William Froggatt, Defendants; and between the said Brownlow Lord Bishop of Winchester, John Sayer, and Samuel Compton Cox, Plaintiffs, Peter Beaver, Esq; and Martha Beaver, Widow, otherwise Martha Cunningham, Spinster, Defendants. By original Bill, and Bill of Revivor and Supplement.

FOrasmuch as this Court was this present Day informed by Mr. Cox, of Counsel for the Plaintiffs, that the Plaintiffs, on the 12th Day of July 1799, exhibited their Bill of Revivor and Supplement in this Court against the Defendants, as by the Six Clerks' Certificate now read appears, and took out Process of Subpœna, returnable the 6th Day of November last, requiring the Defendant Martha Beaver, Widow, otherwise Martha Cunningham, Spinster, to appear to and answer the same, but the said Defendant, hath not so done: that upon inquiry after the said Defendant's Place of Abode, she is not to be found so as to be served with such Process, but is gone out of the Realm, or doth abscond to avoid being served therewith, as by Affidavit now read appears; and that the said Defendant hath been in England within Two Years next before the filing of the Plaintiffs' said Bill, as by Affidavit now read also appears; it is thereupon ordered, that the said Defendant do appear to the Plaintiffs' said Bill on or before the First Day of next Hilary Term.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM WEMYSS, of the Ship Cesar, of Madras, having died some Years ago, Alexander Melvin, Esq; of Madras, administered to his Estate and Effects, and upon the 20th Day of July 1796, fitted an Account of his Intromissions with the said Estate, having a Balance in his Hands of 2274 3. 42 Pagodas; which Account he transmitted to Walter Wemyss, Merchant, in Dundee, only Brother German of the said William Wemyss, and proposed remitting said Balance to him. Walter Wemyss having since become Bankrupt, his Estate was sequestered by the Court of Session in Scotland, for Behoof of his Creditors, and Thomas Mawer, Writer in Dundee, is appointed Trustee upon the said Bankrupt Estate.

The Trustee, upon the 30th Day of March 1798, wrote Mr. Melvin of these Circumstances, and requested him to remit the Money to his own Agent in London, so as the Trustee might settle with him; but though he has yet received no Answer to this Letter, he has Reason to think Mr. Melvin may have remitted the Money to London. The said Thomas Mawer does hereby intimate to all concerned, that he is the only Person with whom this Business can be settled, and the Money paid to him for Behoof of Walter Wemyss's Creditors: and requests, if Mr. Melvin has any Agent in London, that he will correspond with the said Thomas Mawer upon the Subject.

THOMAS MAWER, Trustee upon the sequestered Estate of Walter Wemyss, Dundee.

November 28, 1799.

ALL Persons who have any Demand upon the Estate of the late Thomas Lennox Frederick, Esq; Vice-Admiral in the Royal Navy, are desired to send an Account of the same to his Executrix, at Messrs. Marsh, Page, and Creed, Norfolk-Street, London: and all Persons indebted to the Estate of the said Vice-Admiral Frederick are requested forthwith to pay the same as above.

December 2, 1799.

THE Creditors of David Gurr, of Horsham, in the Parish of Hellingly, in the County of Sussex, Innkeeper, are desired immediately to transmit an Account of their Demands: and all Persons indebted to the said David Gurr are to pay the same to Messrs. Langridge and Kell, Solicitors, at Lewes, Sussex.
