and to exhort them to joyn in fuch common meafures, as thall be thought neceffary for the fecurity of the Empire. The Fire at Straelfond was fo fierce, that it has left but 140 Houlds ftandirg in the Town. The French Forces increase every day on the Rbine; and we believe they have by this time taken the Cafile of Falkenburg, belonging to the Elector Palatines

Cologne, fuly 5. The report fill continues that feveral French Troops are coming to quarter in this Diocefs, and in the Countrey of Fuliers, which we give the more credit to, fince we have an account from Liege, that they are laying two Bridges over the Meufe at Dinant. The Bilhop of Strasburg, and Prince William of Furftemberg are fill h re.

Bruffels, July 9. The Duke de Villa Hermofa is expected here from Antwerp on Sunday next; where its probable he will at lait, obtain the Sublidies he demands Our Letters from the Hague of the Fifth Inflant tell us, that the Count d'Avaux the French Ambaffador had affured the States, that the King his Mafter had not any defign to attack or moleft the Spanish or the United-Netherlands, but that he was refolved to live in a perfect Amity and good Correspondence with both. At the fame time we have an account from Burgundy, of a Decree, by which all those, that have any Lands or Possessions in that Countrey, and Ihall continue in the Spanish Service, are declared Traytors. We are told that the French are going to lay two Bridges over the Meuse at Dinant, in order to their passing their Troops into the Countrey of Liege, which very much allarms all those parts. From Germany we have Advice, that the Caffle of Falkenburg is furrendred to the French, which it was expected would have made a better Defence, being by its scituation very strong, and provided with a fufficient Garrifon, and all things neceffary.

Amflerdam, fuly 9. In the Texel are arrived Seven Ships from East India, and two more are hourly exported, which will confiderably raife the Actions of that Company. From Cologne they write, that they were made very uneafie in those parts, by a report that has continued fome time, that a French Army will come and quarter upon them.

Hague, July 9. The Danish Minister here has lately presented a very sharp Memorial to the States-General, in which he demands the refliction of a Ship taken some time fince by the Zealanders in the Well Indies, and tells them, that the King his Master was resolved to grant Letters of Reprisals, if speedy fatisfaction was not given. Upon which the States have resolved to write to that King, to complain of this manner of proceeding. To morrow the States of Holland meet, but will not continue long together, not having any matters of importance before them. People here begin to be very confident that the French King will not attempt any thing upon Flanders this Summer.

Marfeilles, July 2. The 18 French Gallies which have been to long at Bocca; put to Sea yelterday morning, under the Command of the Duke de Viwonne, and took their courfe to the Weltward; to that we may fuddainly expect to hear of them from the Coaft of Spain, as we may of the other twelve, under the Command of Monfieur de Navailles from the Coaft of Iraly, it being now 10 or 12 days fince they failed from these Islands. Much about the same time IF or 12 men of War sailed from Thoulon, Commanded by Monsteur du Quesne, designed as is said, for Tripo.i. We have Advice that fix Algerines have taken their course towards the Levant.

Paris, fuly 6. All things are now preparing for the Kings journey for Flanders, which he will begin in few days. The fourth Infant the Sicur Hoëg, Ambaffador from Denmark, had Audience of the King, and acquainted him with the marriage between the King of Sweden and the Princels of Denmark, We have advice that the Caltle of Falkenburg, foituate on the River Queich, is furrendred to the Baron de Monclar, Lieutenant-General of the Kings Troops in Alface, and that the Marquis of Bouffers way with Eight Regiments of Horfe at Palizburg, from whence he was to march towards the Saar, and to encamp there till the middle of the next month.

Plymouth, June 29. Two days fince came into this Port the Mermaid Frigat, having Orders to cruife in the Channel.

Whitehall, July 1. This day the Parliament met at Wessiminster, and was Prorogued by Commission til the 22 of this month.

Whitehall, July 2. John Giles, who is acculed to be one of those that made that barbarous attempt upon Mr. Arnold, is to be Indicted for the same at the next Sessions at the Old Baily.
